DR. CLIFTON J. ALLEN
1902-1986

Dr. Clifton J. Allen was a native of Latta, S.C., and was a graduate of Furman University and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. Following 11 years in the pastorate, he was employed by the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention from 1937 to 1972, during which time he was general editor for the 12-volume Broadman Bible Commentary. He authored numerous books and articles.

Following his retirement, Dr. Allen moved to Winston-Salem. He served as Sunday School Director of Pilot Mountain Association from 1973 to 1976, along with filling various positions as officer in the Baptist World Alliance.

By the measures of men, Clifton J. Allen accomplished much in his life. Yet, he considered himself a modest servant of God, using the gifts God had given him to reflect the love of Jesus Christ. He cared deeply for all people and strove to convey by word and deed the wonder and reality of God's love.

"We are partners with the Spirit," he wrote, "in a grand venture of turning all that happens to us into refining the quality of life so that the pure gold of faith and courage may reflect the presence of Christ." He believed that partnership with God requires the best in heart, mind, strength, and faithfulness, and is expressed in tangible attitudes and actions. He was friend to all who would accept his friendship; and he worked tirelessly to engender reconciliation between antagonists. He prayed for those who despitefully used him and persecuted him, and blessed those who cursed him. He loved his enemies.

Clifton was a treasured friend whose open and fertile mind, warm and compassionate heart, and integrity of spirit will continue to bless and enrich our lives. We praise God for the partnership we experienced with Clifton Allen.

By Eugene Sherrill, Pastor
Forsyth Park Baptist Church

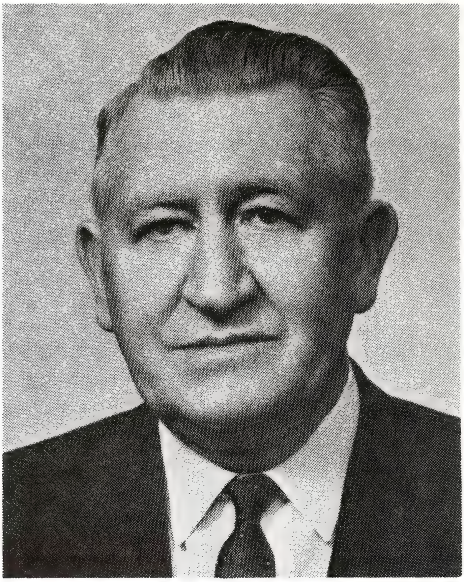
MRS. SUMTER (FLORENCE) BOWEN
1917-1986

Florence Bowen was a dedicated member of the First Baptist Church of Kernersville having joined as a young child, and devoted her life to its ministry. Always interested in education and teaching, her church life centered around teaching in the sixth grade of Sunday School and Vacation Bible School and working in the Woman's Missionary Union.

As the church celebrated its 100th anniversary, Florence was very instrumental in preparing a historical notebook, collecting various photographs, and memorabilia for the church. She also served in a similar capacity within the Pilot Mountain Association, when we as a Baptist Association celebrated our Centennial in 1985.

We are grateful for Florence and the ministry that she shared with us.

By Philip Wagoner
Minister of Education
Kernersville First Baptist Church



DR. AVERY M. CHURCH
1909-1986

Avery Milton Church was a native of Wilkes County, North Carolina, where he spent the early portion of his life.

His education consisted of graduation from Wilkesboro High School, Wake Forest College, Wake Forest, N.C., and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary of Louisville, KY. From the latter institution, he earned the degree of Doctor of Theology.

His pastoral ministry consisted of pastorates at First Baptist Church of Wilkesboro, and Waughtown and Parkway Baptist Churches in Winston-Salem, the latter two being a part of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. He also served student pastorates during his seminary days in Kentucky.

Dr. Church served as vice moderator and other leadership positions in the Pilot Mountain Association and in the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

He was a faithful, dedicated and useful servant of God, loved, cherished and appreciated by all who had the high privilege of knowing him.

By Dr. W. R. Grigg
Kernersville, N.C.

Proceedings

1986 Spring Session

of the

Pilot Mountain Baptist Assocation

April 27, 1986

THEME: "Beginning our second century with whole evangelism"

1. The Spring Session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was convened at 5:30 P.M. at the College Park Baptist Church.

2. An orchestra provided the call to worship.

3. The invocation was rendered by the Rev. Foy Martin.

4. Sydney Goldfinch, moderator, called the session to order.

5. C. Ed Stines, clerk, moved that those messengers already registered and those yet to register be authorized to conduct any necessary business at this spring meeting of the Association. After a second, the motion was approved.

6. James V. Hamblen, Executive Director of Missions, recognized special guests attending this session. In his recognition, Mr. Hamblen congratulated Mack Goss for writing the history of our Association; presented a copy of the annual minutes of the Association to Sydney Goldfinch; recognized new staff members since our Annual Meeting; new associational staff members, Sandra Hall and Sheree Jones; former Directors of Missions, Walter Warfford and Lewis Ludlum; Institutional Representatives and the speaker for this session, Roy J. Smith, General Secretary-Treasurer of the N.C. Baptist State Convention, and his wife, Joyce.

7. Richard Hicks, chairman of the Order of Business Committee, made two recommendations:

(1) The program as printed be our order of business with any necessary changes.

(2) Our fall meeting, October 21, 1986, be held at the Mineral Springs Baptist Church and our spring meeting of 1987 be held at the First Baptist Church, King.

Following a second, the recommendations were approved.

8. Words of greeting and welcome were brought by Charles Edwards, pastor of the College Park Baptist Church.

9. Special music, "He Keeps Me Singing" and "Wonderful Grace of Jesus," was presented by the orchestra and association choir.

10. The first message of the spring session was brought by the Rev. J. L. Wilson, pastor of the Ardmore Baptist Church. His topic was "Evangelism for the Whole World." Taking his text from Matthew 28:18-20, he spoke about the world that God made, cares for, and a world for which God has a plan and purpose. He noted that the surest way for any individual, church, denomination or association to die is to lose the vision of the world that the Spirit of God gives. We will become what we ought to be as an association not because we focus upon ourselves. We will become what we ought to be because we focus our attention and energy upon God's world. Evangelism is never complete until we have installed in the hearts and minds of our people that the world is God's and He wants us busy in it bearing a witness unto Him. As we are obedient to God's word, we find ourselves in the position of pleasing Him and being blessed.

11. Our music director led us in singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

12. The Long-Range Planning Report was given by Boyce Wilson. He stressed that all of us have times of dreaming. After many meetings and much planning the time for decision making is near at hand when a retreat will be held at Caraway on June 20-21. The data and dreams will be shared and a plan developed for our association. At the annual meeting on October 21, 1986, a three to five year plan will be presented to the association.

13. Irvin Grigg gave a Resource Center Fundraising Report. He reported that we have in hand or pledged over $318,000 for the construction of the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center with 73 percent of the churches in the association giving or pledging to give to the Center. The goal is 100 percent participation. (Copy of report attached to original minutes.)

14. The Evangelism Council Report was given by Ray Hamilton. Of the 77 churches in the association, 45 participated in the Good News America Crusade. For many churches, the Good News America Revivals were the highlight of the church year. "Every person born has the right to hear about Jesus," he said.

15. Mitzi Moore presented the Sunday School Council Report. She expressed appreciation for the associational ASSIST Team. She spoke about the role of Sunday School and Evangelism and reminded the session that the tasks of the Sunday School are fourfold: (1) Teach the Bible, (2) Outreach, (3) Evangelism and (4) Ministry. The Sunday School provides the network for outreach and evangelism. Using People Search, many prospects are located for cultivation.

16. Joyce Love, on behalf of the Nominating Committee, presented for election new officers and leaders of the association. There being no nominations from the floor, a second was made to elect the slate presented. After a second, the motion was approved. (Attached to original minutes)

17. After the congregational hymn "Amazing Grace," Mr. Bill Stillerman, director of the Baptist Retirement Homes of NC, led in prayer.

18. The association choir and orchestra presented special music, "Bound for the Promised Land," "Power in the Blood," and "He Lives."

19. The closing message, "Evangelism for the Whole Person," was delivered by Dr. Roy J. Smith, General Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Using as his text John 20:21, Dr. Smith emphasized that evangelism for the whole person is descriptive of the scope and nature of our mission and our ministry in the world. We are called to be ministers of the Lord Jesus Christ. We are responsible for being involved in evangelism to the whole person in the whole world. Southern Baptists were set apart in early days as being mission minded. During all our history we have stressed evangelism to the whole person. Evangelism to the whole person also involves social awareness. Only in recent years have we really sensed the importance of caring for the hungry, sick, aging, and orphaned. It was not until 1922, with the establishing of Baptist Hospital, that we accepted the mandate of healing people in North Carolina. Only since the 50s have we felt the need of caring for our aged. We are ministering to the whole person through our institutions when we give undergirding support to them. It does little good to go to starving persons and tell them about Jesus until you give them something to eat. We must minister to people in their need. It is always both/and never either/or. In the name of Jesus, we not only say we love, but we demonstrate it by our actions.

20. A prayer of dedication led by Carlton Mitchell followed the singing of "Take My Life and Let It Be."

21. The choral benediction was rendered by the College Park Young Adult Ensemble led by David Lane.

Resource Center Fundraising Report

Spring 1986

Your Resource Center Fundraising Committee is happy to report that we now have in hand or pledged over $318,000 for the construction of the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center. Of equal importance to the money itself is the fact that since our annual meeting in October of last year the percentage of churches who have now taken action on this matter has risen from 39 percent to 73 percent and moving steadily toward the 100 percent goal. This fundraising project was officially begun one year ago at the associational Spring Meeting at First Baptist Church on Fifth Street. In the six months from then till the Annual Meeting in October, 30 churches made decisions on being involved with this project. In the six months from then till now, another 26 churches have become involved, leaving only 21 of the 77 yet to be heard from officially. We do sincerely believe that our goal of 100 percent participation is extremely important for two reasons. Obviously, it is important from the money viewpoint, but I really believe that it is important from the individual church's viewpoint. When, by providing adequate facilities, we have put ourselves in a better position to carry out the "Great Commission," every church will feel better about itself if, indeed, they know that they had a part in this endeavor. Therefore, we urge you to conscientiously consider the part you want your church to play in this matter over a three-year period, and, having made the decision, to be steadfast in your resolve to carry through with your commitment.

We are also selectively seeking contributions from individuals who would like to give in memory or in honor of some special person in their lives. I have purposely used the word "selectively" in connection with these individual pledges, since we are only looking for those who would wish to be a part in this through offerings over and above that which they would give to their individual churches. We have designed a certificate suitable for framing which says: "The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association acknowledges with deep gratitude the gift from 'Mrs. George B. Baptist' in memory of 'George B. Baptist' for the building of the Lewis E. Ludlum Resource Center, Long Drive, Winston-Salem, North Carolina." It will bear the appropriate date and the signature of our Director of Missions. When the gift is in honor of living individuals, the word "honor" will, of course, be used instead of "memory" on the certificate and a note will be sent from the associational office to the person named to inform them of this honor. An appropriate permanent record of the churches and individuals who have contributed will be placed in the new building.

Some of you may wish additional information which time does not allow at this point. The members of this committee will be glad to talk to you after the meeting tonight or at another time of your choosing. This committee has been meeting on a regular basis for the past 15 months. Collectively, they have spent literally thousands of hours on your behalf and I feel that each of them, in one form or another, has contributed greatly to your successes to date in this fundraising effort. They are: David Morrow, pastor of Old Town; Jim Saul, Baptist Retirement Homes; Georgie Kitchen, Baptist Women's Director from Stoney Ridge; Amis Daniel, pastor of Union Cross; Mark Corts, pastor of Calvary; and J. L. Wilson, pastor of Ardmore. Ex officio members who have been active with the committee are Sydney Goldfinch, moderator and pastor of Walnut Cove First, and Jim Hamblen, Director of Missions.

As has become our custom in the last two associational meetings, you will be given an opportunity to give toward the Resource Center Fund later in the program during the period designated "Offering of Praise and Thanksgiving." I wish all of you could have been present earlier today on Long Drive for our "New Site Dedication." Over a quarter of a century dream is indeed becoming a reality. The actual ground breaking is expected around August or September. You will be hearing more on this later from the Construction Committee. By this time next year, the Resource Center should be completed or near completion. Together, let's be serious concerning the old admonition to pray as if everything depended on God and work together as if everything depended on us.

I can never close a report on "Fundraising" without reminding myself and you that we are not really talking about 'money'—we are talking about 'ministry.' We must give of ourselves and our money in order that Christ's ministry here on earth may be continued. There is evidence all around us that our dedication to ministry is often becoming inadequate. The percentage of unchurches population is growing in our state; in a society of "plenty," human needs are not being met; we could continue with a very long list. Through the facilities of our new Resource Center, let us rededicate ourselves to the concept of ministry in Christ's name.

AFTERNOON SESSION

1. After an instrumental music concert, the afternoon session of the 101st annual session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was convened at 3:00 p.m. by moderator, Sydney Goldfinch.

2. Philip Mitchell, associational music director, led in the singing of "The Solid Rock."

3. Richard Coburn from Edgewood Baptist Church read scripture: Psalm 35:18, Psalm 29:2, and Psalm 100. He stressed that in all we do that God should receive the glory. After reading the scripture, he led the opening prayer.

4. Ed Stines, clerk, moved that those already registered and those yet to register in the afternoon and evening constitute the 101st annual session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. After a second, the motion was approved.

5. Richard Hicks, chairman of the Order of Business Committee, expressed appreciation to his committee, Jim Hamblen and Sydney Goldfinch, for the hours of work and labor together in preparing the program. He moved the adoption of the program as printed in the Book of Reports for the order of business for this session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Following a second, the motion carried.

6. Words of greeting and welcome were brought by Cecil Cave, pastor of Mineral Springs Baptist Church. He pointed out that the Association had also met at Mineral Springs on October 17, 1978. He introduced his associate, Keith White, and expressed appreciation to him and others of the church staff who had prepared for this session.

7. Jim Hamblen recognized special guests who were present. Among those recognized was Mrs. Bertha Sneed of Antioch Baptist Church who has attended 51 consecutive annual meetings. Bob Watson of the Baptist State Convention, at the request of Jim Hamblen, was invited to come and bring greetings from the Baptist State Convention. Bob has for a long time been concerned and burdened about new work across the state. Bob was invited to be the keynote speaker of this session, setting our eyes on a new vision, charting a new course for us and giving evidence of the fact that we are parnters in mission.

8. Bob Watson brought words of greeting from Dr. Roy Smith, Dr. Sara Hobbs, and others in the Mission Division and the Baptist State Convention. Bob spoke on the theme of the annual session. There's a time to DREAM. You can hold dreams in your hand when they're on paper. There's a time to ACT. There are language mission people with whom we work and win to Christ. In Christian Social Ministry we minister to the bleeding and hurting. But it's a time to act. Sometimes we talk about something and think that we've done it. Mr. Watson gave five positive points on the theme:

A. It's a time to act and emphasize lostness. Our Home Mission Board estimated that there are 22,416 lost people in Stokes County. This represents 67.75 percent of the population in Stokes. In Forsyth County it is estimated that there are 131,625 lost people or more. That's 54.02 percent. This puts us in a minority in each county. It's a time to act to re-emphasize lostness!

B. It is a time to act to revive Bible Study.

C. It is a time to act to re-establish the Growth Principles and to re-educate and train our church membership.

D. It is time to act on visitation and house calls.

E. It is time to rejoice. God loves you; share Jesus.

9. Five brief reports were given in the planning and projection of the theme.

A. David Ward, treasurer, gave the financial report and referred the messengers to the Book of Reports. He moved that the report be accepted. The report was seconded and approved.

B. Charlie Turner, chairman of the Finance Committee, presented the proposed budget for 1987. He announced that this is the largest proposed budget the association has ever had and that it would take some action. He moved the adoption of the proposed budget. M. M. Goss, Northwest, seconded the motion. There being no questions, the budget was adopted.

C. Jim Hamblen, Director of Missions, shared in the calendar preparation process by the Coordinating Council. The calendar dates for the next three years as printed in the Book of Reports were discussed. He moved the adoption of the calendars as in the Reports be our guide for the next three years. The motion was seconded and carried.

D. Joyce Love, chairman of the Nominating Committee, moved that the slate of nominees for 1986-87 be elected. The motion was seconded. Jim Hamblen reminded the messengers that there were some persons who had been invited to serve who are still in process. Some names not listed had not yet gone through the Nominating Committee. He announced that we are trying to spread the leadership and the names would be brought to our next Executive Board meeting. The report was approved.

E. M. M. Goss, chairman of the Constitution Committee, announced the names of the Constitution Committee who had worked on the Constitution and revisions. He announced that the report had been approved by the Committee and the Executive Board of the Association. He moved that the proposed changes to the Constitution and Bylaws be accepted. Motion was seconded and approved.

10. Philip Mitchell led in the singing of "Great Is Thy Faithfulness." After the congregational hymn, reports continued.

F. The report of the WMU Council was presented by Marjorie Turner. She reported that 1986 has been a year of celebration for the WMU. In celebration we have looked at our roots in the past, our involvement in the present, and our challenge in the future. Twenty-seven churches have written histories of their WMU. In May 1988 the national WMU will be 100 years old and more celebration will take place. Mrs. Turner announced that we have organizations in 65 of the 77 churches and a Baptist Women's group at the NC Baptist Retirement Home. The goal is to have WMU in every church of the Association. She announced that the WMU Council meets quarterly to plan, coordinate and evaluate. We have the mandate, organization and leaders to make mission education a vital part of our church life.

G. The Sunday School Council report was presented by Mitzi Moore. She announced that we have a strong Sunday School Council and ASSIST Team. She announced that we have received the Standard of Excellence for Sunday School in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. We are one of eight in North Carolina who have achieved this recognition. She emphasized that you can grow a strong church if you grow a strong Sunday School. To do this a church needs to participate in (1) Bold Training, (2) Bold Planning, and (3) Bold Reaching.

H. Mike Bradshaw gave the Missions Development Council Report. He reported that the Council is filled with people dedicated to the work of missions and ministry. Several groups meet together six times a year seeking to discover mission opportunities and needs in our community. The past year has been busy. One of the highlights of the year was the retreat for handicapped adults held at Becks Baptist Church. Seventy-eight handicapped adults attended. Individuals from 14 churches came together to plan and carry out the retreat.

I. The Ordination Council report was given by J. W. Harmon, chairman. Several candidates have been examined during the year. He announced that he always has an interview with each candidate before he comes before the group. This helps the candidate know what to expect and helps to set him at ease. After the interview an appointment is made for the candidate to meet with the Council. Before meeting with the Council, the candidate is asked to write out what he believes about baptism, the Trinity, the Holy Spirit, sin, etc. Each member of the Council receives a copy of the paper. In this way the candidate and Council share together in the interview. After the interview the candidate leaves the room and the Council discusses the candidate. If pleased, a motion is made that the church proceed with the ordination of the candidate. Every candidate appearing before the Council has been recommended for ordination. He suggested that any candidate being ordained already be in a full-time or part-time job somewhere in a church when the Council is called to question. He also suggested that the church not set a date for ordination until the Council has already passed on it.

11. Richard Hicks announced that the Spring Meeting will be held at the First Baptist Church of King. Another invitation was given by the Becks Baptist Church. Boyce Wilson extended an invitation from the Knollwood Baptist Church to have a future session at Knollwood at the pleasure of the Order of Business Committee.

12. Jim Hamblen recognized Peggy Hall, Sheree Jones, and Sandra Hall from the associational office and asked that an expression of appreciation be shown by applause.

13. After the congregational singing of "I Know Whom I Have Believed," Gordon Schrum, pastor of Willow Oak Baptist Church, spoke on "What I Have Seen and Experienced in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association." He shared experiences of his call and work at Willow Oak.

14. The benediction for the afternoon session was given by Eugene Sherrill, pastor of Forsyth Park Baptist Church.

EVENING SESSION

15. The evening session opened with a musical concert, followed by the congregational singing of "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations."

16. Ann Fryar from Macedonia Baptist Church read scripture from Ecclesiastes 3:1-2 and 4-7 and led in prayer.

17. Ed Stines, clerk, reported that we have had 216 messengers and 35 visitors to register.

18. New ministers and staff were recognized by Jim Hamblen.

19. The Personnel Committee report was given by Cecil Cave. He recommended, on behalf of the Personnel Committee, that Mike Bradshaw be called as Missions Ministries Director of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The annual salary would be $30,000. The motion was seconded by Troy Hamrick. Mr. Cave commented on Mike Bradshaw's background and qualifications for Missions Ministries Director. He recognized Mike and his wife, Penni. Before the vote, Mike made some comments to the Association. The motion was approved. Sydney Goldfinch welcomed Mike on behalf of the Association.

20. Billy Moreland presented a motion that Danbury Baptist Church, having been under the watchcare of the Association for one year, be received into the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The motion carried. Members of the congregation present at the annual meeting were called forward to be welcomed into the Association. The moderator led in a prayer of thanksgiving to God. Dr. Carlton Mitchell welcomed them into the Association.

21. Boyce Wilson, chairman of the Long-Range Planning Committee, presented the Five Year Plan (1986-1991) for the Association. He announced that we have approved the purpose and objectives of the Association in the Constitution. He asked approval of the Long-Range Planning Process. He made a motion and asked for a second to be voted upon at the conclusion of the presentation. The motion: "I move the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association in session adopt the Five Year Plan (1986-1991), which the Long-Range Planning Committee, in conjunction with the leadership of the Association, has developed." The motion was seconded. The report was presented with the theme, "A Time to Act—Enhance the Future." The vote was taken by asking all the leaders who would support the plan to come forward and join hands. Then the messengers were asked to join the leadership in support of the plan.

22. After singing a hymn, "I Love to Tell the Story," Sydney Goldfinch led in prayer.

23. The associational choir, under the direction of Philip Mitchell, closed the evening session by presenting the mission cantata, "A.D. 2000."

24. Carlton Mitchell, our new moderator, led in a prayer of dedication and benediction.

C. Ed Stines, Clerk

REPORTS

Brotherhood

This year has produced some growth in several areas of our associational Brotherhood. The Brotherhood Council has a new Royal Ambassador Director, Dr. Robert Kelly. Dr. Charles Tabor is the Baptist Men's Mission Study Leader. He was a medical missionary with the Foreign Mission Board for many years.

Attendance improved about 10 percent at the Training Seminar September 8, 1986, at Becks Baptist Church. We have enjoyed a good working relationship with Marjorie Turner, associational WMU Director. We shared Home Mission Study with her Council on January 6, 1986, at First Baptist, Stanleyville, and the Training Seminar at Becks.

Men and boys in various churches continue to participate and support the West Virginia Covenant, Caswell and Togo Missions. We are proud that more have participated this year.

Our Baptist Men had a Prayer Rally February 24, 1986, at Winston-Salem First. Marion Rector, Baptist Men's Director, was in charge of this program. Its purpose was to promote Good News America. He has visited and spoken to five churches in our association, sharing their fellowship and providing inspiration. He also trained one Baptist Men's organization.

We have had five meetings of the Brotherhood Council. We made plans and set goals for the coming year and discussed programs, promotion, and training. It was my privilege to visit Glenn View, Lewisville, Union Grove and South Fork and met with their men for fellowship.

Seventy-eight boys participated in the associational Pinewood Derby February 22, 1986. On April 26 we had a large number of boys—Pioneers and Crusaders—to participate in the Track Meet at Parkland High.

The Brotherhood Council officers attended the first training session held at Caraway September 6 and 7. We are hoping you will give us an opportunity to help your church begin Brotherhood programs that will involve men and boys in missions.

Chaplaincy Ministries Council

After being elected director of the Chaplaincy Ministries Council, I did a survey of 29 institutions and agencies in the area served by the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. These included convalescent and retirement homes, hospitals, prisons, jails, law enforcement agencies and the military. This survey revealed that many of the spiritual needs of these institutions and agencies are being met by full-time chaplains and pastors, and volunteers from local churches. It also revealed many unmet needs.

This council has now had its first meeting, at which time the council was organized and other officers elected. It was determined by the council that our first responsibility would be to locate pastors, staff members, retired ministers, ministers working at other occupations and volunteers from churches who would be able to assist in this much needed ministry.

Following that we will offer some training opportunities and then match the volunteers with the institutions that have needs.

The other members of this council are: R. O. Bennett, George Bowman, Levy Goodrich, Lib Milner, Paul Mullen, Rodney Stilwell, and Betty Talbert.

Christian Life Council

The Christian Life Council has just been reorganized under the guidelines of the revised Constitution and Bylaws adopted at the Annual Meeting in 1985. In this reorganization process our council focused in on two areas of ministry: (1) Awareness, i.e., making materials available, etc.; and (2) family life ministry.

In order to help our churches be more aware of resources to help them face today's issues, we will have available the current literature published by the Christian Life Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention. These materials are in the associational office and will be on display at various meetings held throughout the year.

Our first workshop/seminar will be held March 16-17, 1987. It is our aim to better equip the members of the congregations to meet the challenge of family life today. Please pray for openness and support of the Christian Life Council. Pray for us as we serve you. If you have any suggestions concerning topics we need to address, please contact any of the Council members.

Church and Community Ministries Council

The Church and Community Ministries Council met monthly this past year, sharing lunch and making plans. All during the year we have been called on to provide funds to meet emergency needs of people who are hurting through Crisis Control of Forsyth County and King Outreach Ministry.

On March 10 we sponsored our first Ministry Awareness Workshop, which was held at Ardmore with participation of 18 agencies who provide a ministry to people, and 104 persons in attendance on a very rainy evening. We sponsored our second Adult Handicapped Retreat April 26 at Becks with 76 attending. We have endorsed, promoted, and supported many area groups this year—Forsyth County Council of Older Adults, Inc., Habitat for Humanity, Crop Walk, and chapel services at Forsyth Hospital. We have surveyed and encouraged our churches to provide a transportation ministry for those senior adults in their communities who no longer drive. Because of our efforts, several churches have begun a transportation ministry and others are considering doing so.

Groundwork has been laid and planning is being finalized for the first Multi-Family Housing Conference to be held in our state. This is sponsored by the State Convention and PMBA working through our council and will be held at Becks November 17-18.

We have defined the areas of interest of each of our council members. We now have knowledgeable people covering the areas of work requested and expected of our council as outlined in the constitution and bylaws to meet specific needs of people in crisis situations.

Our association was recognized by the Baptist State Convention for conducting the most Backyard Bible Clubs and Mission Vacation Bible Schools in 1985 of any association in our state. Thanks to all who had a part in our work this past year and may God bless us as we set our sights on new horizons under the leadership of Peggy Conrad, incoming director of our council.

Church Training Council

The Church Training Council saw this past year two major challenges:

(1) Children's Bible Drill
(2) New Work Emphasis

Three of our associational churches participated in Children's Bible Drills this year. Our children's specialist, Mrs. Natalie Birdsong, coordinated the event at which 11 of our children representing Calvary, Old Town, Becks, and Germanton participated, with all being found eligible to go to the state level drill held at Asheboro.

We were delighted to host Mrs. Ruth Prince during May. Ruth as the new work specialist for the Baptist State Convention until her retirement in July. Ruth met with Friendship Baptist Church pastor, Alfred Philley, and with Bethania Baptist Church while here to help encourage the growth of training in these churches.

We are excited about 1986-87 as we begin to look toward continued growth through new work established, Children's Bible Drills, and continued interest in Equipping Centers and short-term studies.

Cooperative Ministries Council

Traditionally, Pilot Mountain Baptist Association has taken leadership in relationships between black and white congregations, primarily through the initiative of W. R. Grigg. For four decades he has given himself to building relationships across racial lines and has served as a leader locally and on all denominational levels.

It is the intention of the Cooperative Ministries Council to continue this redemptive ministry. There have been no notable events to report this year. There is, however, a continuing commitment to the calling.

The Cooperative Ministries Council serves as a link between the churches of the Pilot Mountain Association and the Rowan Association. We seek ways to build fellowship, improve communication, and share in joint projects. Ministers of both groups meet in December and May for worship and fellowship. These help meet a need for growing relationships between individuals and churches. Our Director of Missions is a member of the Baptist Ministers Conference and Associates and the Rowan Baptist Association and represents us well in both organizations.

There is a deep need for stronger sense of brotherhood in working together in the Kingdom of God. The relative calmness of race relationships now is an opportunity for growth together, not a lapse into apathy. Our efforts will continue to seek greater awareness in our own association and greater cooperation with the Rowan Association churches.

Evangelism Council

The principal function of the Evangelism Council is to lead the association to emphasize evangelism. Evangelism is reaching people with the Gospel of Jesus Christ and developing those who believe in Him, leading them to become disciples.

As we prepare to begin a new year in the life of our association, the Evangelism Council wants to be a significant part of its ministry. One of the objectives of the association is to reach more people for Jesus Christ. The Evangelism Council, in keeping with this objective, wants to assist churches as they seek to increase baptisms each year. We propose to do this in three ways:

(1) Assisting 10 churches per year in conducting People Search.
(2) Assisting 10 churches per year in beginning Bible Study Groups.
(3) Assisting 10 churches to elect Evangelism Councils.

The Evangelism Council reminds churches and pastors that Sunday, January 11, 1987, is Witness Commitment Day. Also, we remind you that another Simultaneous Revival Crusade is scheduled for the Spring of 1990.

The Evangelism Council wants to help you. Be sure to let us know when we can assist you in any way. Evangelism is a must in our churches and association. Let us do all we can to encourage a climate of evangelism. The Spring Meeting of our association will focus on evangelism, with the Evangelism Council taking the lead in its planning.

Media Library

The Associational Church Media Organization was active behind the scenes this year. Many of our individual church media library directors supported each other with information and help during the year. Several of our directors and workers attended the annual state meeting at Camp Caraway in April. One director attended a week at Ridgecrest in August.

We worked with the Church Training and Sunday School Departments to purchase a VCR for the associational office. This is available for all member churches to check out. Sheree Jones, educational coordinator in the associational office, has worked diligently this year to upgrade and weed out our collection of audio-visual materials in the PMBA office.

Missions Development Council

The Missions Development Council, organized in the spring of 1986, began its work of coordinating associational missions development. The Council offers the directors of New Work, Church-Community Ministries, Chaplaincy, Missions Development, Cooperative Ministries, Sunday School, WMU, and Brotherhood the opportunity to meet together quarterly to check upcoming calendar events/projects.

In addition, the Council actively seeks to discover missions opportunities and needs and works with other component programs and churches to respond appropriately to those needs. As the Council becomes fully operational this fall, we hope we can do a better job of assisting PMBA churchs as each seeks to be involved in missions and ministry to their respective communities.

Music Ministry

The 1985-1986 year was a period of transition for the Music Council of the association. Yet, in the midst of leadership changes, many fine things were accomplished during the year.

The Music Council, composed of Gloria Lawrence, Janie Hooker, Dave Rickard, David Lane, Neil Maxey and Phil Mitchell, has met on an ongoing basis to implement, plan, and evaluate music ministry emphases which will enable the congregations of the PMBA to carry on effective ministry through music.

December 7, 1985, was the date of the Youth Christmas Celebration at Hanes Auditorium on the campus of Salem College. Over 100 youth participated in this event which was supported by many of our churches.

The Spring Meeting of the Association brought together choir members from the churches in the association to present "evangelistic music" accompanied by an instrumental ensemble.

In the fall of 1986, monthly meetings of the Music Council were resumed and a Ministers of Music fellowship followed. The fellowship time was highlighted by a delicious meal and a fine opportunity of fellowship and information. The fellowship period was used as a vehicle of communication of upcoming events and a topic of interest was also planned to provide the participants an opportunity to share ideas and to support the work of the individual churches.

The Fall Meeting of the association will usher in the presentation of "2000 A.D.," a missions cantata designed to support the Bold Missions Thrust emphasis of the Southern Baptist Convention. Members of the Adult Choirs from across the association will join to sing the challenge of personal responsibility in sharing the gospel around the world and more particularly in Winston-Salem. The music will be accompanied by slides which help to accent the powerful texts which make up "2000 A.D."

The music emphasis of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association exists to help congregations begin and improve ministry through music. It is with that thought that a part-time Director/Accompanists Workshop is planned for May 2, 1987. This event will be designed to focus in on the unique needs and challenges of music ministry in the smaller church. Fes Robertson of the Baptist Sunday School Board will lead this time of sharpening skills and gaining new insights. This date promises to be a highlight of the Music Council work in the coming year.

Fellowshiping. Reaching. Developing. Strengthening. Organizing. That's the work of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. That's the work of your associational Music Council.

New Work Council

Our New Work Council has had an excellent year. We have followed caringly the several missions within our circle of interest and counsel.

The Spanish Mission remains strong and effective. Pastor Carlos Oliveros remained quite busy during the summer, supplying food and other necessities to migrant families who have suffered from little work due to the severe drought.

The Spanish congregation is becoming increasingly interested in finding a suitable site on which to build their own facility. They have outgrown the facilities provided by Union Grove, the sponsoring church. The Spanish congregation has a modest building fund started which they hope to see grow.

Another mission is our Korean congregation, sponsored by First Baptist, Winston-Salem. This group, meeting in the First Baptist Chapel, has continued to grow and serve. A sizable number of Koreans come from High Point to meet.

Pastor Seong Soo Kim accepted a call to Los Angeles, California, to pastor the largest Korean Southern Baptist church in the United States. While we regret losing this fine pastor and family, we are blessed with the arrival of a new pastor, John Kim, who completed his M.Div. degree at Southeastern Seminary this past spring. We see a great future for this congregation.

We rejoice with the Danbury Church which this year moved from mission status to a fully constituted church and member of the Pilot Mountain Association. Their record and their future are clearly exciting.

Our council continues contact with Becks Baptist regarding their commendable venture in faith with the purchase of a fine tract of land and the vision of a new work beginning there in the future.

The New Work Council has looked with interest at the recently developed long-range plans for Pilot Mountain Association. Central in this long-range plan is the hope for new missions and churches to be sponsored by established churches in the association. There are several areas soon to need a new work. We must not let these opportunities pass us by. We are hoping and praying churches will rise to the challenge and see the great blessing a church can experience in birthing a new work!

Pastoral Ministries Council

The Apostle Paul penned a letter to the church at Philippi and expressed his appreciation and joy for their shared ministry in the gospel. Paul thanked the Philippian parishioners for the ministry they shared as pastor to people.

As pastor and people work to spread the gospel, their journey is one toward togetherness in ministry. The Pastoral Ministries Council has as one of its goals the enhancement of the ministry of pastor and people. We would hope and pray that they could be so enfleshed with one another that God's Will is clearly understood for congregation and pastor. The shared ministry that the apostle Paul felt "begins and grows where the people of God are willing to sit together and prayerfully settle their differences; to kneel together asking God's blessing on all they do; and to walk together in ministry to the lost, sick, bereaved and broken."

The newly created Pilot Mountain Baptist Association Pastoral Ministries Council is a resource to assist church congregations and church staff persons in the development of shared ministry.

The first major project of the Pastoral Ministries Council will take place March 9 and 10, 1987. Brooks Faulkner, supervisor of the career guidance section of the Southern Baptist Sunday School Board's church administration department, will be with us for two days working with pastors and deacons.

The Pastoral Ministries Council is anxious to be of assistance to church staff members and congregations. Those serving on the council are: Arnett Harris, chairman; Jack Hoyle, Wilson Harmon, David Catron, and Al Carpenter.

Seminary Extension Council

In keeping with its stated purpose of providing helpful, continuing, and planned learning opportunities which will enable all Christian leaders to have a more effective ministry, the Institute for Biblical Studies of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association has conducted six courses this year. There were three sections of Old Testament Survey taught superbly by Dr. Joe Coltrane, pastor at Lewisville Baptist Church. Dr. Frank Wood taught a very enriching and dynamic course of New Testament Theology. Prior to "Good News America" revivals, Dr. Mark Corts taught the course in Evangelism. Our association had the honor of introducing a new Seminary Extension course as a pilot section and our students received much practical benefit from the course, Clinical Pastoral Training, taught by Paul Mullen, chaplain at Forsyth Memorial Hospital.

We are also pleased that we were able to sponsor and assit two prison units to begin Seminary Extension Centers: one in Forsyth County and one in Davie County. The chaplains for those units deserve a great deal of credit and support for working hard with the men there who show such an interest in their own Christian development and education.

The next course in Seminary Extension is one which would benefit every teacher of every class in every organization of every church in the association. "Dynamics of Teaching" will be taught by Gene Sherrill, pastor at Forsyth Park Baptist Church.

Other upcoming courses are the Book of Revelation, Personal Ministries, New Testament Survey, and Leadership Development.

This Council pledges its efforts in bringing to this association those learning opportunities which will help make each of us the best servant-minister each is capable of being.

Sunday School

The Associational Sunday School Council and ASSIST Team made application and has been awarded the Associational Sunday School Standard of Excellence! We have been notified that we are one of eight associations in our State Convention to achieve this award. Our Sunday School Council and ASSIST Team are thrilled to receive this award and worked hard to achieve all the points on the Standard of Excellence!

This year we have placed high priority on Sunday School "training" for our team and for our church leadership. To enhance and greatly increase our skills, our team attended the State Leadership Clinic in January plus a highly intensive Assist Week at Ridgecrest in August. This week at Ridgecrest was reserved for ASSIST Team members only and was promoted, financed, and developed by the Sunday School Board. Their purpose was to give intensive training to prepare ASSIST Team members to train people in their association to reach the Challenge 10/90 goals, to become highly skilled conference leaders, and to promote the newest methods, resources, and materials.

Our ASSIST Team held two training session for People Search Committees, one in the fall and one in the spring. We held a highly successful Workshop for Sunday School directors, pastors, and church staff. Our Vacation Bible School clinics were well attended and led by an excellent staff who were trained at the State Training clinic.

In May our ASSIST Team had a very inspiring and creative planning retreat at Eaton Cottage, Ridgecrest. We came away with an exciting challenge to form an Association Training School, offering courses and electives leading to Sunday School Leadership Diploma and an Advanced Diploma, as well as courses of special interest and needs of individuals. We will hold this school each fall and spring for a three-year cycle to cover each of the six books required for the diploma. We hope to train at least 300 Sunday School workers to receive Leadership Diplomas in the next three years. We will promote special recognition in the local church and in the association each year for those receiving diplomas. At the end of the three-year cycle we will host a great celebration in honor of those receiving diplomas.

We have also been trained as a team to offer personal consultative service to local churches for evaluation, needs assessment, and future growth recommendations. Call on us; we're ready to assist you!

Woman's Missionary Union

This year as we have celebrated the 100th anniversary of North Carolina Woman's Missionary Union, we have looked at "Our Roots in the Past," "Our Involvement in the Present," "Our Challenge in the Future."

We have 65 organizations and one Baptist Women group at the N.C. Baptist Retirement Home. Contact has been made with all 77 congregations. A total of 1,518 people from 62 churches have attended WMU events. A total of 224 leaders from 44 churches attended the September 1985 Leadership Conference. Our associational WMU qualified for "Distinguished" on the WMU Achievement Guide.

Always the highlight of the year, the Annual Meeting held at Ardmore Baptist Church included a fashion show, historical displays from the churches, and recognition of ladies with most year of commitment to WMU. A total of 298 people from 41 of our churches attended this event which was coordinated by Peggy Neal, Centennial chairperson.

Mission Friends Director Connie Dickens and assistant Tha Park's baked potato supper was enjoyed by 40 leaders from 19 churches. Preview of the year with theme interpretation, slides, and new materials helped prepare leaders to do more effective work.

G.A. Director Clayron Webb coordinated two sleep-overs. "Missionary Kids" Tony Wiggs and Karen Eller helped the girls see what life is like on the mission field for missionary children. Parents joined the girls for a cook-out on Friday evening.

Acteens had two special events—fashion show and "Are You Anybody?" prayer retreat. Director Frances McDaniel reports new enthusiasm and participation.

"Hugging with Your Heart" was the theme of the BYW fellowship dinner. Program consisted of WHEEL OF MISSIONS game, clowns, and a lot of good food. Tammy Tilley, Charlene McDaniel, and Nancy Sebastian were hostesses.

As always, the Baptist Women fellowship supper was a HUGE success. A total of 463 ladies from 44 churches enjoyed an evening of food, fellowship, and inspiration. Centennial prayer retreat was held in May at Miller Park. Director Georgie Kitchen, Assistant Sue Tesh, and BW Council coordinated these events.

"How Far Love Reaches" mission action project in February was lap robes for the rest homes in Forsyth and Stokes counties. Ladies from PMBA churches flooded the associational office with beautiful lap robes which were distributed by Mission Action Director Beverly Hamblen.

WMU IS ALIVE AND WELL IN OUR ASSOCIATION!

To the Chairman of the Audit Committee
Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.

We have examined the statement of assets and liabilities arising from the cash transactions of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc. as of December 31, 1985, and the related statements of cash receipts and disbursements and changes in fund balances - cash basis, for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As explained in Note 1, it is the Association's policy to prepare its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements; consequently, certain revenue and related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses and liabilities are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not included to present financial position or results of operation in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the assets and liabilities arising from the cash transactions of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.

as of December 31, 1985, and the cash received and paid during the year then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1, which basis has been applied in a manner consistent with that of the preceding period.

Our examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The accompanying detail schedules of revenues and expenditures are presented for purpose of additional analysis and are not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic statements taken as a whole.

Notes to Financial Statements - Cash Basis

PILOT MOUNTAIN BAPTIST ASSOCIATION, INC.
December 31, 1985

NOTE 1 - Nature of Association and Significant Accounting Policies

ORGANIZATION: Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc. is a non-profit organization engaged primarily in certain ministerial activities. The Association pools the financial resources of its member churches so as to engage in direct cooperative mission activities. On December 31, 1985, Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.'s member churches numbered 77.

ACCOUNTING POLICY: The Association prepares its financial statements in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds established according to their nature. Separate accounts are maintained for each fund; however, in the accompanying financial statements, funds having similar characteristics have been combined into fund groups.

The assets, liabilities, and fund balances of the Association are reported in two self-balancing fund groups.

General fund, which includes unrestricted and designated resources represents the portion of expendable funds that is available for support of the Association's activities.

Resource Center Fund, represents monies restricted for the construction of the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center Building.

BASIS OF ACCOUNTING: Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc. prepares its financial statements on the cash basis of accounting. Under this basis, revenues are recognized when collected rather than when earned, and expenditures are recognized when paid, rather than when incurred.

NOTE 2 - Proceeds from Sale of Property

On July 10, 1985, Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc. sold certain real property for $22,000. Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc. received $7,000 in 1985 in conjunction with the sale of this property and took a note, secured by a deed of trust, for the remaining balance. This note accrues interest at 10.5 percent and is payable in two annual installments of $7,500 beginning July 1986.

Communications Committee

The Communications Committee met in June 1986 to discuss its new responsibilities as outlined in the Bylaws. As the association seeks to enhance its ministry to the churches and to the community, this committee will offer guidance and assistance to individual churches, associational committees and organizations, and the associational staff in the area of communications. This may involve such things as developing plans for an Associational Emphasis Week, helping associational leaders to promote their plans and programs creatively, and assisting churches in improving the effectiveness of their newsletters. The committee will also work closely with the associational staff in developing ways to better communicate the goals, needs, services, and ministry opportunities of the association.

Since the associational newsletter, The Pilot, is a major channel of communication from the association to the churches, the committee has attempted to evaluate the effectiveness of this important tool. A Reader Attitude Survey was included in the August issue. Excellent results were obtained, with over 100 readers responding. These responses were evaluated in September as the committee participated in a communications audit led by Margaret McCommon, an editorial associate with the Associational Missions Division of the Home Mission Board. Ms. McCommon also assisted us in evaluating other printed material which is sent from the associational office, and in developing a clearer understanding of the role of an associational communications committee.

The associational staff sought the advice of the Communications Committee in selecting a meaningful logo for the final report of the Long-Range Planning Committee. This is an example of the kind of consultation which the Communications Committee can provide for other groups within the association.

During the next year, the committee hopes to develop plans for an Associational Emphasis Week. Plans to offer a communications workshop for the churches in the association are also being considered.

History Committee

In recent years for my annual report I have recorded some significant achievements of a few representative churches. Special attention was given to activities that not only marked considerable progress but also were significant because they were of such nature as to lay strong foundations for the future.

For this report I shall characterize activities of a few associational committees whose work in recent years has been timely and has laid good foundations for the future.

I. The Constitution Committee: Last year the Committee recommended that our association have two basic foundation documents in addition to the Constitution; namely, Bylaws and Operations Manual. They wrote the Constitution and Bylaws but explained in their annual report that the Operations Manual "must be generated by the individual work groups of the association and tested by their use in the organization."

It is of particular interest to note that the Constitution and Bylaws incorporates, among other things, the following ideas and concepts:

1. In the Constitution four associational objectives were clearly stated and in the Bylaws each working unit is clearly identified with one or more of these objectives.
2. The Bylaws developed a brief job description for each associational officer and for each group working unit.
3. Functions, not identical but similar in nature, are grouped together and assigned to councils for the purpose of coordination, mutual stimulation, and operational efficiency. But it is not intended that the council will supplant the work of the committees related to it.

II. The Long-Range Planning Committee: Early this year the Committee published a four point study designed to characterize the environment in which the association and the churches have to work and serve. It was in four parts: (1) Population Study, (2) Church Study, (3) Social Systems Study, and (4) Other Religious Bodies Study. This study should be very helpful to churches in determining and pursuing their respective missions.

Later in the year the committee published a 14 page document whose basic outline was five clearly stated associational objectives. The division under each objective developed strategy for achieveing that objective. The elements of this strategy or achievement plan includes the following:

1. One or more goals were suggested.
2. Action plans are proposed to achieve each goal.
3. Each action plan is assigned to an officer or associational working unit.
4. Dates are proposed for completing each action plan (all within five years).
5. Each associational working unit is assigned one or more tasks.

Taken together, these two documents help churches and the association in the following three ways:

1. Understand our environment
2. The associational stated objectives
3. Action plan (strategy) to achieve the associational objectives.

III. Resource Center Construction Committee: About 30 years ago someone asked Mr. W. A. Harrell, head of the Church Planning Department of the Sunday School Board, the question, "When is a good time to build a church building?" Without hesitation he replied, "The best time to build is when you need it."

Some of us here thought that we should build an associational office or Resource Center and made conscientious effort to do so. One "road block" after another delayed the movement for more than 15 years. But about three years ago we laid better foundations for the movement by a very thorough feasibility study. The study completely justified the movement and also gave some cues that have been guiding factors in the movement since.

It is pretty evident now that we will soon have under construction a much more adequate building than we could have built 10 or 15 years ago. The excellent work of the committee and subcommittees have elicited excellent response from the churches.

Conclusion: Baptists, in recent years, have added some new and significant words to their vocabulary. We Baptists, for the most part, are a conservative people and have retained most of our traditional values by use of traditional words. But common usage of the following words and expression reveal new commitment and dedication to new methods, relationships, ministries, and expressions of our faith:

1. churches on mission
2. shared ministry
3. awareness conference
4. fellowship council
5. strategy planning
6. assist team
7. resource center
8. cooperative ministries
9. diversity
10. demographic study
11. key leadership
12. mission awareness
13. mission strategy

Long-Range Planning Committee

The members of the Long-Range Planning Committee have been very faithful to the planning process. I commend them for all their effort.

The results of the work of the committee are clearly demonstrated in the Five Year Plan booklet which is being distributed at the Fall Meeting. Some of the most significant events which the Long-Range Planning Committee coordinated or led during the year are summarized below:

Training Session for Group Leaders of the Church Leadership Retreat led by Lawrence Childs and Warren Mallard from the Mecklenburg Baptist Association (January 30, 1986)

Strategy Resource Team Meeting in Atlanta with Home Mission Board "program" leader and Jim Hamblen and Boyce Wilson (February 13-14, 1986)

Church Leadership Retreat: Listening and Feedback Sessions among congregations of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association (February 28-March 1, 1986)

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association Planning Retreat at Caraway Conference Center led by Lawerence Childs, consultant (June 20-21, 1986)

A series of follow-up working sessions pertaining to the retreat were held to complete the negotiations among the associational program leaders of the "goals" and "actions" for Five Year Plan.

A meeting was held in Winston-Salem on September 15 with Larry Rose of the Home Mission Board. Also, Jim Hamblen and Boyce Wilson met at the Baptist Building, Cary, N.C., on September 17 with Larry Rose and Roy Smith and his staff and persons responsible for the various program areas. Both meetings were in preparation for another strategy Resource Team meeting to be held at the Home Mission Board on November 13-14, 1986. A listing of the resources the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association program leaders will need to achieve the objectives described in the Five Year Plan was compiled and discussed at the Cary meeting. Many of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina personnel will meet with us at the Home Mission Board in an effort to coordinate with SBC Boards and Agencies the resources requested by our local program leaders.

The Five Year Plan was presented to the Executive Board of the Association on September 29, 1986. The Board endorsed the Plan and embraced the work of the committee.

The "handshake and heartfelt" commitment of the members of the Long-Range Planning Committee to the "planning process" continues to be very strong. The "ownership" of the Five Year Plan is now "shared" and is in the heads, hearts, and hands of the program leaders of the congregations and the program leaders of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Everyone is encouraged to respond to this "TIME TO ACT" and to embrace the future of his or her congregation and the Association.

Nominating Committee

Our committee has worked earnestly in the task of matching people and positions to provide strong leadership for our association. With the adoption of the revised constitution we now have 21 councils and 12 committees. We have tried to maintain a balance of pastors and laypersons, men and women, with Forsyth and Stokes churches equally represented.

It is our hope that each person serving in this association will consider it a privilege to work together.

Personnel Committee

Giant strides have been made in our personnel relationships and in preparing for the future ministry of the Association. During this year we have completed setting up a full evaluation program for all of our associational staff. The testimony of the staff with our committee has been that the committee's relationships with the staff is a confirming one.

During the year Sandra Hall has been employed as Financial Secretary. Her addition to the office staff brings the staff back to its basic functional level. Sandra brings enthusiasm and a responsible attitude to her job. We are glad to have her as a part of our associational ministry team.

During this past year, under the leadership of our Director of Missions, we have laid the groundwork for the coming of a new Missions Ministries Director. Negotiations with the Baptist State Convention were completed and the process of appointment by the Home Mission Board has been entered into and our Executive Committee has given approval to the call of Mr. Mike Bradshaw as our Missions Ministries Director, beginning November 3. The State Convention and the Home Mission Board will share in approximately one-third of his salary expenses. His task will be to work among the churches in directing the ministries of the churches to community needs, in assisting churches to focus their resources upon specific needs. He will also serve as a resource person to the church in organizing outreach ministries. Mike and his wife are members of the Ardmore Baptist Church. One of his deep concerns is that social ministry be tied more and more closely to the local church. He comes with a strong commitment to assist the churches in such outreach ministries.

We believe that our staff is competent, dedicated, and committed to sharing with all of us the task of reaching Forsyth County and, indeed, all of our associational area with the Gospel of Christ in every means possible. We praise the Lord for the good attitude and the responsible leadership which they bring to our mutual commitment.

I want to express my personal thanks, as chairman, to all the committee members for their faithful endeavors through the year and for their regular attendance.

Fellowship Conferences

Church Secretaries Conference

This conference meets bimonthly with the purpose of encouraging and supporting each other in our unique field of service in the church.

The first meeting for this year was titled "Just a Church Secretary." The second meeting was a communications "Swap Shop" with a panel leading the discussion. In May we had a picnic with special emphasis on a time of fellowship. Our program for July was led by Raymon Presson of Calvary Baptist Church dealing with the topic, "Don't Take Yourself Too Seriously." Margaret McCommon, a communications specialist with the Home Mission Board, was our special guest for our September meeting. This was a joint meeting with those persons in the church responsible for all forms of communication.

The following officers were elected to serve through May 1987:

President - Joyce Love, West Side
Vice President - Helen Johnson, Pfafftown
Secretary/Treasurer - Clara Johnson, Konnoak
Program Committee: Marsha Ball, chairperson, Calvary; Sheree Jones, PMBA Office; Lynn Mabe, Oaklawn; Nancy Sebastian, Northwest; Gloria Smith, King First; Louise Young, Calvary

Publicity Committee: Peggy Hall, chairperson, PMBA Office; Marlene Bruno, Calvary; Peggy Clawson, Winston-Salem First

Ministers' Conference

The Ministers' Conference is composed of pastors and staff members of the churches of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The conference meets monthly at various churches across our association. The monthly programs usually pertain to the ministry of the church and give assistance to the ministerial staff as they go about their ministry.

Of special concern to the ministers at this present time is the very large number of forced resignations and terminations of God-called ministers. Our prayer is for better pastor-church relations, more prayer and concern for one another in the local church, and for a deeper commitment to working together in spite of differences. Let us concentrate on those things which we have in common, more so than on those things over which we differ.

Ministers' Mates Conference

Our group enjoyed a great year of fellowship, friendship, and support. The varied programs had the theme, "Creating Magic."

We met eight times, with two Saturday morning breakfasts, one covered dish supper, a Valentine banquet, three regular morning meetings, and closed out our year in May with a covered dish luncheon.

Officers for the 1986-87 year are:

President - Cornelia Grigg, Colfax
Vice President - Sara Stevens, Kernersville First
Secretary/Treasurer/Historian - Johnsie Liner, Knollwood; Ruth Lawrence, Ardmore
Devotions - Etta Stokes, Wake Forest; Miriam Mitchell, Wake Forest; Beth May, Center Grove
Programs - Wanda Smith, Mount Calvary; Mary Eva Knight, Knollwood Decorations - Sara Stevens, Kernersville First; Beverly Hamblen, Winston-Salem First

Meetings for the coming year will be at varied times and we hope that these times can be fitted into the schedules of all our ministers' mates.

Other Reports

Executive Director of Missions

The first year of our "second century" is nearing an end. You have maintained the celebration of our first 100 years by implementing some of the dreams and visions into the fellowship, organization, and ministries of our association.

One of the more visible expressions of fellowship can be seen in the monthly meeting of the Special Ministers' Fellowship. For over a year a group of ministers have gathered each month in different churches to share their common concerns and needs within their respective congregations. I have witnessed mutual support and genuine caring for each other. How wonderful it will be when this type of relationship can be experienced throughout the association.

The revised organizational structure is functioning well in most areas. Many leaders are beginning to discover that the primary purpose of our association is to assist the congregations to fulfill their purpose more faithfully. Some of the newly organized councils have initiated activities designed to be helpful to the congregations, especially in the areas of Chaplaincy Ministries, Christian Life, Missions Development, and Pastoral Ministries.

In the new areas of administrative service the Administrative Committee, Communications Committee, and Credentials Committee are making their impact felt throughout the associational organizations. The extra efforts of the Audit Committee, Finance Committee and Personnel Committee have improved the day-to-day operation of our association.

During the 101st Annual Meeting the Long-Range Planning Committee will present the results of over two years' work, the PMBA Five Year Plan. We now have a new sense of direction for our work during the next half decade. The future truly looks bright with our objectives set on assisting congregations to:

- Enhance the Fellowship;
- Reach People;
- Develop Believers;
- Strengthen Missions; and
- Improve the Organization.

Our goal of establishing fifteen (15) new church-type missions by 1991 is certainly a challenging goal. All the support organizations (Brotherhood Council, Missions Development Council, Sunday School Council, WMU Council, and several others) have accepted a great challenge to see God's will accomplished here in this area during these days.

The hard work of the Fundraising Committee and the Construction Committee on the Resource Center have brought us a long way toward realizing the 20-year dream for a place for PMBA. While the recent change in the economy has delayed the final decision about the costs for this facility, there is genuine excitement everywhere I go regarding this project.

One of the greatest thrills for me during this past year has been in working with the finest staff "teams" I have seen in all of my ministry. With the addition of Sandra Hall (Financial Secretary) the PMBA is blessed with support personnel far above average. Peggy Hall continues to be the team leader and Sheree Jones offers a new dimension as Educational Coordinator. Later this year we will take another step of faith in the addition of Mike Bradshaw as Missions Ministries Director.

Thank you again for allowing me to work with you and fulfill my calling as a "servant" in the Father's Kingdom work through the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

Resource Center Fundraising Committee

As of September 22 the Resource Center has received $201,527.30 in pledges. With $140,459.50 cash on hand and $195,848.83 due in pledges and property sale, we have a total of $336,308 toward our $500,000 goal. This represents 60 percent of our total, which puts us in excellent position to begin the actual building process.

Your continued interest and attention to this matter will be essential to our successful completion of the project.

Resource Center Construction Committee

During the past year the Construction Committee has held several meetings. In March, upon approval by the Executive Board, Kirby-Altic Associates were chosen to draw the plans and specifications for our Resource Center. After two or three meetings of reviewing the plans, final approval was given in May. On June 3 the architects gave our plans and specifications to several construction companies for bids to be turned in by 3:00 p.m. July 10, 1986.

On that same date at 7:30 p.m. our committee met and reviewed the bids. Much to our disappointment there were only four contractors that submitted bids, and the lowest bid was approximately 25 percent above our expectations. An attempt was made to negotiate with the lowest bidder for a better price; no acceptable progress was made. At a meeting on August 11 our committee voted to reject all bids.

The recommendation to reject all bids was made to the Executive Board on August 25 along with a recommendation that the Construction Committee be authorized to negotiate a cost-plus contract for the Resource Center building.

Both recommendations were accepted but there was an expressed concern about a cost-plus contract. Our committee shared this concern and, since that date, has been working with a contractor to get an acceptable fixed contract. The contractor has not finished getting together all his figures and, therefore, has not made any bid as of September 30, 1986. However, we are hopeful that a definite proposal can be made to the Executive Board within the very near future.

Vice Moderator/Executive Board

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association is completing a highly successful year after marking 100 years of meaningful cooperative ministry in the name of our Lord.

The first year of operation under our new constitution and bylaws has been characterized by a large amount of planning and steady improvement in the organizational life of the association. Your vice moderator is an ex officio member of all the committees and councils of the association and just the announcements of all the meetings reminds him of the tremendous scope of activity in our association. (I have not attempted to attend all of these meetings, but have sought to help where needed.)

The professional staff of the association deserves our thanks for the enormous amount of work which they have done this year. They have enlisted the aid of many volunteers who are also praiseworthy.

The Executive Board acts as the association ad interim. The vice moderator serves as chairman of this Board. This year we have met five times. A summary of the many actions follows.

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETINGS OF ASSOCIATIONAL YEAR 1985-86

December 16, 1985

1. Recognition of eight new Board members and two new pastors, Perry Huffstetler (Stanleyville First) and Steve Hedgecock (Pinnacle).

2. An associational Sunday School Leadership Diploma from the Baptist State Convention was presented to Ty Talton (Union Grove).

3. The Board agreed to honor the request of the State Convention not to take special offerings during Associational Emphasis Week, but to tie the emphasis in with the State Missions offering in September. It was noted that the association would receive 10 percent of the state mission offering received in each association.

4. Following a recommendation from the Nominating Committee, the Board elected Carlton Mitchell (Wake Forest) vice moderator; Bill Yates (Pfafftown), Troy Hamrick (Ardmore), and Herman Kitchen (Stoney Ridge) members of the Administrative Committee at Large; and Arnett Harris (Winston-Salem First) Pastoral Ministries Council Director.

5. Following a recommendation from the Personnel Committee, the Board approved a Personnel Committee policy whereby staff Christmas gifts from associational funds would be administered at the discretion of the Personnel Committee. This change was recommended because of inequities which came out of the rigid policy which had been in effect.

6. Reports were heard from the Audit Committee, Computer Study Committee, and Camp Retreat Study Committee.

7. The Director of Missions' report included statements about the progress on pledges and receipts for the Resource Center, the work of the Order of Business Committee, and participation in Good News America Simultaneous Revivals by 36 churches.

8. Boyce Wilson gave highlights of the work of the Long-Range Planning Committee.

9. On the recommendation of DOM Jim Hamblen, the Board gave approval to Peggy Hall and Sheree Jones for handling of our accounts and access to our Safety Deposit box as required by the bank.

April 1, 1986 Highlights

1. A report was heard from the Resouce Center Fundraising Committee calling attention to the Site Dedication scheduled for April 27 and the fact that in the future financial reports on the building project would be distributed with the other financial reports.

2. Ed Collette, chairman of the Resource Center Construction Committee, presented a progress report. The Board approved the following recommendations from his committee:

a) That PMBA complete a contract with J. Aubrey Kirby of Kirby-Altic Associates, Inc., Winston-Salem, for complete drawings and specifications for the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center to be built on Long Drive. The fee to be paid to him shall be six percent of the contract price. His services shall include supervision of construction to the extent of approving all payments to the contractor.

b) That the committee be authorized, through the architect, to obtain bids for project (fixed contract) and make recommendations to the Executive Board for acceptance or rejection of the best bid.

Discussion indicated that the estimated project cost is between $450,000 and $500,000 and includes site purchase, architect's fees, construction building, grading, paving, landscaping and furnishings.

3. The Board approved the recommendations from the Order of Business Committee regarding the Site Dedication and the PMBA Spring Meeting scheduled for Sunday, April 27.

4. The Board approved the following motion presented by the Long-Range Planning Committee with the endorsement of the Finance Committee:

> That the Executive Board instruct the Finance Committee to increase the 1986 General Budget, Support Ministries, Associational Planning by $1,600. (The revised amount became $1,840.)

5. The Board elected the following persons to the offices indicated, having received the motion from Joyce Love, chairman of the Nominating Committee:

Evangelism Council (member), Grant Jeffries (Calvary); Missions Development Council (director), Mike Bradshaw (Ardmore); Chaplaincy Ministries Council (director), W. T. Hendrix (Old Town); Sunday School Council (outreach director), Ty Talton (Union Grove); VBS (assistant director), Chris Norman (Peace Haven).

6. The Board approved four requests from the Personnel Committee:

a) A hospitalization program through the Annuity Board of the SBC or its equivalent is available to all full-time employees who elect to participate.

b) That PMBA implement phase 3 of the associational staffing plan by employing an Education Coordinator/Receptionist at an annual salary of $13,200 plus all benefits provided in policies of PMBA.

c) It is recommended that the Computer Study Committee be revitalized and report be made to the next Executive Board meeting (June '86) regarding the purchase of a computer by July '86.

d) That the Personnel Committee be directed to continue the process of completing the Cooperative Agreement with the BSC/NC and the HMB regarding the position of Director of Missions Ministries for PMBA.

Discussion on the fourth recommendation indicated that the supplement from the BSC/HMB would be a phased-down participation and that this is not a new position for the association, but one that has been vacant.

7. The Board approved a motion by James McKee that all proposals be sent to Executive Board members as far in advance as possible, especially those of special significance and importance.

8. The Board approved the following policy:

Each action or recommendation presented to the Executive Board shall be made by a representative of the particular program council or actual committee involved.

9. The Board adopted the following recommendations which were presented by J. L. Wilson for the Camp Retreat Study Committee.

a) That Camp Retreat be developed as a Wilderness Camp and that $7,000 be sought to build the facilities necessary (bath house, septic tank, additional wiring, etc.);

b) That funding ($7,000) be sought from individuals, groups, or churches within the association that have special interest in the development of Camp Retreat (no association campaign);

c) That the association establish a Camp Retreat Committee made up of a representative group chosen from those with interest in the camp and knowledgeable of various aspects of camping. This committee will:

   1) Be responsible for the development and maintenance of Camp Retreat within the accepted plans;

   2) Develop policies for the operation of Camp Retreat which will be approved by the Executive Board;

   3) Submit budget requests for items not covered through user fees according to the regular budgeting procedures of the association;

d) That a review of the use of Camp Retreat be made in the fall of 1989 to determine whether the association should continue to use the Camp or to dispose of it.

10. The Board agreed that Vice Moderator Mitchell should appoint a Special Interim Camp Retreat Committee until a permanent committee could be elected.

11. DOM Hamblen called attention to the constituting of Dan River Mission into Danbury Baptist Church on April 20, the Site Dedication for the Resource Center on April 27, and the associational Planning Retreat, June 20-21 at Caraway.

June 30, 1986 Highlights

1. Bill Fryar, pastor of Macedonia Church, was introduced.

2. On the motion of Moderator Sydney Goldfinch, the Board agreed that the chairman of the Finance Committee be approved for signing checks (in addition to the treasurer and assistant treasurer).

3. The Board approved the Audit Committee report brought by Larry Matthews.

4. Chairman Charles Turner of the Finance Committee presented his report which was accepted by the Board.

5. Chairman Boyce Wilson gave the Long-Range Planning Committee report.

6. The Board approved a recommendation brought by Chairman Mark Corts of the Personnel Committee that his committee be authorized to interview a candidate for the Director of Missions Ministries position, with final Executive Board approval of the candidate scheduled for September 29.

7. The Board approved a recommendation from Chairman Charlie Turner of the Computer Study Committee which would allot $6,500 for the purchase of the following:

2 - Model 6300 PC AT&T Computers
1 - Model 93 Okidata Printer
1 - Word Perfect Word Processing Program
1 - Small Printer
1 - Case Wide CPO Paper
1 - Case Letter-size CPO Paper
Approximately 26 hours of training.

He reported that a portion of the monies would be repaid to this fund: $1,000 AT&T refund and an estimated $250 sales tax refund. The association has had a Data General Computer donated which will be sold on the used computer market for $4,000 to $5,000.

8. J. L. Wilson gave the Resource Center Fundraising Committee report, noting that $323,483.19 had been given or pledged to date, about $100,000 short of the goal.

9. Velma McGee presented the report of the Nominating Committee and the following were elected by the Board:

Music Ministry Council: Philip Mitchell (Ardmore), Director
Neil Maxey (Walnut Cove First), Assistant Director
Camp Retreat Committee: 1987 Bryon Lawson (Brim's Grove)
Ira Tedder (Quaker Gap)
Georgie Kitchen (Stoney Ridge)
1988 Martha Royal (College Park)
Gene Simmons (Mount Olive)
Walter Tolbert (Union Grove)
1989 Roger Aycock (Union Grove), Chairman
Marion Rector (Winston-Salem First)
Eugene Schlaman (Winston-Salem First)

10. Richard Hicks presented the tentative program for the Annual Meeting on October 21, 1986, and this was approved.

11. A request from James Greene, director of Youth and Campus Ministries for the Baptist State Convention, asking for time on the program, was referred to the Order of Business Committee.

August 25, 1986 Highlights - Called Meeting

A special called meeting of the Executive Board was held August 25 at the request of the Building-Planning Committee.

1. Ed Collette, chairman of the Building-Planning Committee, moved that all bids on the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center be rejected and the motion carried. It was explained that 12 contractors indicated a desire to bid on the building, but only four actually turned in bids. These bids ranged from a low of $62.90 per square foot to a high of $64.89 per square foot. Some negotiation was attempted, but this resulted in suggestions for deletions rather than lower prices.

2. For the committee, Mr. Collette then offered a motion that the Building Committee be authorized to negotiate a cost-plus contract. There was extended discussion about the meaning of a cost-plus contract, the question as to a ceiling on such a contract, questions about whether the association could afford a building in the $500,000 range, and whether any contracts should be made before the money was in hand or in pledges. J. W. Angell then offered an amendment, "and return the contract to the Executive Board for approval and implementation." The motion as amended was passed.

3. The Board passed another motion instructing the Building Committee to keep the Finance Committee informed as to the contract and further asking that the Finance Committee make a recommendation on financing at the same time. The Board was reminded that the association had never voted on the borrowing of money, nor had the Board taken any such action.

4. Boyce Wilson distributed copies of the Long-Range Plans of the association for 1986 to 1990 to be voted on at the Annual Meeting.

September 29, 1986 Highlights

1. Pastor Bill Guthrie of Crestwood Church was introduced.

2. Sydney Goldfinch, chairman of the Administrative Committee, presented the agenda for the evening, and it was adopted on his motion.

3. Richard Hicks reported for the Order of Business Committee, distributing the tentative program for the Annual Meeting. He requested that resolutions be sent to his committee for presentation at the Annual Meeting. He also noted that First Baptist Church of King had invited the association for its spring meeting on April 26, 1987, and the Board accepted the invitation. It was also noted that invitations are needed for future meetings.

4. Joyce Love presented the report of the Nominating Committee and the following were elected:

Institutional Representatives: ACTS Board - Ginny Britt, Winston-Salem, First Mission Development Director - Billy Priddy, King First
Chaplaincy Ministries Council - George Bowman, Rodney Stilwell, Paul Mullen, R. O. Bennett, Levy Goodrich, Betty Talbert, Lib Milner
Pastoral Ministries Council - Al Carpenter, Winston-Salem First, and David Catron, Wake Forest

Stewardship Council Director - Amis Daniel, Union Cross
Finance Committee - 1987 - Ruby Shelton, Mount Olive, and Perry Huffstetler, Stanleyville First

5. Cecil Cave, chairman-elect of the Personnel Committee, reported the recommendation that Mike Bradshaw be called as Missions Ministries Director of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The Board was reminded that the annual salary and benefits for 1987 would be $30,000 with the BSC/NC and HMB providing $12,000 and the association providing $18,000. If elected by the association, he would begin work on November 3. The motion carried.

6. The Resource Center Building Committee report was heard. It was noted that the architect had been paid $24,000 to date. It was also reported that some contractors are working on cost-plus figures for the building. In this connection the Finance Committee had been asked to look into financing possibilities. On the motion of Boyce Wilson it was agreed that we should accept an agreement to borrow up to $250,000 for one-half percent above the prime rate from Southern Bank. This agreement was to be binding for 30 days. The motion included the stipulation that the association was not committed to the borrowing of any money at this time.

7. Finance Committee report was presented by Thurman Hauser and copies of the proposed budget were distributed. He moved that the Board endorse the budget which will be presented to the association. Cecil Cave, speaking for the Personnel Committee, moved that three minor changes be made in the budget before endorsement, and the budget as amended was endorsed.

8. The Long-Range Planning Committee report was endorsed on the motion of Chairman Boyce Wilson.

9. Recommendations of the Constitution Committee for minor changes in the Constitution and Bylaws were approved. These involve changes in the statement of purpose which would bring the language in line with the Long-Range Planning Committee's report and clarification of the point that the officers of the association would now sign papers for the association instead of trustees, who no longer exist under the new constitution.

10. In DOM Hamblen's report he noted that under the new Long-Range Plan, it would be necessary for program leaders and Administrative Services committees who need funding to get their agenda into the Long-Range Planning process by revision time in June 1987. He reported that the computers are now in place and functioning. He also noted that the Chaplaincy Ministries Council has met and is now functioning. He asked for prayer concerning the increasing number of terminations or forced resignations occurring within our association. He closed with an expression of appreciation to the Personnel Committee for their support, affirmation, and confrontation when needed.

Thus ends a long report which briefly chronicles the tremendous amount of activity and the many important decisions which have faced the Executive Board this year. The work of the Lord is abundantly evident in the life of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association

Five Year Plan: 1987-1991

"There is a right time for everything" Ecclesiastes 3:1 (TLB)

A Time to Dream . . . A TIME TO ACT . . . A Time to Rejoice

Reach People
Develop Believers
Strengthen Missions
Improve the Organization
Enhance the Fellowship

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE:

"The purpose of the Association is to glorify God by assisting congregations to be in fellowship and to fulfill their mission, individually and together."

"There is a right time for everything!"

Our spiritual journey together over the past three years has led us through a time for "New Beginnings," a time for celebrating and reflecting upon "Our History, Our Trust," and a "Time To Dream."

Most of our journey has been focused inward. We have reviewed our beginnings and our belongings. We have renewed and reaffirmed our individuality, our togetherness, and our strengths.

The Long-Range Planning Committee has assisted in charting the course of our journey together. The planning process helped us systematically develop a custom-fit, locally owned strategy to fulfill our mission, individually and together, in "our Jerusalem" - Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The process made us more aware of the great potential and needs for ministry within the congregations of the Association and within the neighborhoods surrounding those congregations. The facts and figures gathered underscore the importance of being more focused and more intentional about what we, individually and together, should be doing to meet those needs. Our journey inward has given us a clearer sense of the purpose of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

As we have sought a deeper spiritual renewal and commitment, God has led and blessed us. He led us to a unique opportunity to link our hearts, heads, and hands with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention in a long-range planning process. The association, state, and national partnership was the first of its kind in North Carolina. While all the planning has been done by the leadership of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, the state convention and the SBC boards and agencies have provided consultative assistance and have offered to seek program and conference personnel and materials resources which we may need to achieve our objectives.

The objectives described in the following pages will be reviewed annually and modifications will be made if deemed necessary. The planning process will continue and be dynamic and sensitive to the changing setting and needs in the Association. A "handshake and heartfelt" commitment to the Five Year Plan has been made by the leadership of the Association with each other and with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and with the Southern Baptist Convention boards and agencies.

If the objectives, goals, and actions presented herein are God's plan for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, then you and the congregations will provide the needed resources to make our dreams become a reality. Since you are the Association, I call upon each one of you to this "Time to Act" and to embrace the future with us.

Boyce R. Wilson, Chairman
Long-Range Planning Committee

Objective: Assist the congregation to ENHANCE THE FELLOWSHIP. (Help congregations relate to each other in a growing and mutually supportive fellowship within the family of believers in Christ.)

RALPH E. FERGUSON

"There are those who make the barren places of life fruitful with kindness, who carry a vision of heaven in their heart, and who try to make the world correspond to that vision." Thus wrote Helen Keller.

Ralph Ferguson, my predecessor here at Konnoak and my dear friend, was one of those whom Helen Keller described. He believed that his vision of heaven was worth sharing, thus the motivation to give himself to the ministry of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Ralph's influence upon others began with Christ's influence on him. That influence was experienced at home by his lovely wife, June, and two fine children, Denny and Ann. His years of ministry were characterized by kindness and caring, a love for the Gospel he preached, and a strong conviction that life on earth is intended to be a pilgrimage as mankind seeks a better country, a heavenly country.

"A gentleman of the highest order" - "An encourager" - "A kind and compassionate friend" - "A preacher of the Word" - these are but a few of the many descriptions people have given of Ralph Ferguson. Such a person is surely missed. We thank God that our world and our lives have been enriched by this good man. Now he experiences life at its fullest.

Ray Hamilton, Pastor
Konnoak Baptist Church

MRS. PEARL LONG HAUSER
1893-1987

Mrs. Pearl Long Hauser made great contributions to the growth and outreach of Union Hill Baptist Church. Eight years after her father was elected and ordained a deacon in the church, Miss Pearl, in 1912 was chosen to be the church clerk. As part of her responsibility she felt she should attend the associational meetings. In 1913, along with other messengers, she made an eight hour journey by horse and buggy to the annual associational meeting in King. She took notes on the events and could remember the text that "Brother T. W. King preached on." This interest in church records culminated, in her later life, with her insistence that all recorded minutes be micro-filmed by Wake Forest University.

Miss Pearl was involved in Sunday School as a teacher for over 65 years. She felt that children needed a good spiritual "up-bringing." With the help of Pastor T. A. Caudle, in 1932 she organized the Women's Missionary Society and for twenty years was president of this group. She was involved in B.Y.P.U. and was a leader for one of the youth groups for about ten years. As late as 1981 she was the principal of the Vacation Bible School.

She was very much aware that the Cooperative Program had saved the mission program of Southern Baptist Churches. She encouraged her fellow members to participate in this program in 1931 and thereafter she became personally involved in every special offering - hospital, colleges, children's home and missions. As leader of the mission program, she felt a deep obligation for the church to meet every mission offering goal set through the years. In December 1986, a month before her death, she was busy on the telephone calling members to remind them of the Lottie Moon offering needs.

In all, Mrs. Peal Long Hauser devoted 78 years to the building and spreading of God's Kingdom in and beyond her country church.

Wiley Guthrie, Pastor
Union Hill Baptist Church

1908-1987

The compelling principle of Walter Warfford's life was his call to the ministry. Answering the call at age 17 and ordained at 20, he never wavered in his commitment to the work for which he was set apart. Standing with him, assisting and encouraging him through their fifty years of marriage, was his gifted and godly wife, Hilda.

Walter Warfford was a product of and a participant in the history of Baptists in the Piedmont. He was keenly aware of his roots and maintained active contact with scores of churches throughout his lifetime. A firm Southern Baptist, he had deep appreciation for other traditions and encouraged cooperation and fellowship among all groups.

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association benefited from Walter Warfford's commitment to evangelism and establishing new work. His years of leadership as Associational Missionary (1946-1950) left a legacy of starting churches that are now strong. He gave valuable help to the founding of Hayes Home. He planted and he watered. God continues to give the growth.

Walter Warfford loved God's Word. He studied it, preached it and taught it. Few could match the determination and commitment evidenced by his more than twenty-eight years of teaching the Sunday School lesson live on the radio. Long after retirement and in failing health, he made his way to the station every Sunday to carry on this ministry which meant so much to him. On a Sunday in May a stroke prevented his fulfilling his appointed task. And on a Sunday morning, August 23, just at the time the Sunday School broadcast was ending, he was called to his heavenly home.

J. L. Wilson, Pastor

Proceedings

1987 Spring Session

of the

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
King, North Carolina
April 26, 1987

1. The meeting began with the singing of "Redeemed, How I Love to Proclaim It." Rev. Ray Hamilton (Konnoak) offered the invocation.

2. Carlton Mitchell (Wake Forest), moderator, called the meeting to order.

3. Richard Groves (Wake Forest), clerk, moved that all persons elected messengers from the churches be seated as messengers to the Spring Meeting of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The motion was seconded and approved.

4. Jim Hamblen, executive director, recognized and expressed appreciation to the messengers from the churches. He reported that Leon Rice, member and former deacon at Knollwood, had died on the evening of April 25 and that Joan Philley, wife of Alfred Philley, pastor of Friendship, died on Good Friday. He also asked for prayers for June and Ann Ferguson in the illness of Ralph Ferguson and reported on the condition of Lewis Ludlum. He then asked for a moment of silent prayer for these persons and their families.

5. Richard Hicks (Edgewood), chairman of the Order of Business Committee, moved that the printed order of business be accepted, with the deletion of the choral benediction. The motion was seconded and approved.

6. Eddie Brackett, pastor, welcomed the gathered messengers to the First Baptist Church of King. The choir of First Baptist Church, accompanied by a brass ensemble, presented the special music, "Festival Piece."

7. Ralph Cannon, designated "elder statesman of the association" by Moderator Carlton Mitchell, shared "What I have seen and experienced in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association." Mr. Cannon, who came to Southside in 1956, told of experiences related to Hayes Home and the acceptance of Wake Forest Baptist Church into the Association. He also shared recollections of Lewis Ludlum, a friend and co-worker. Looking back on thirty years of ministry in the Pilot Mountain Association, Mr. Cannon said, "I have seen many changes in the Association, but I haven't fought all of them."

8. The messengers sang, "We Have Heard the Joyful Sound."

9. Calvin Knight, chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented the committee's report, adding the following names: Credentials Committee chairman, John Lawrence (Oaklawn); History Committee chairman, Lewis Ludlum; and Order of Business Committee chairman, Charles Hutchins (Rural Hall First). (Copy attached) The report was approved.

10. Jim Hamblen, in the absence of Ed Collette, reported on the progress of the Resource Center. He announced that Mr. Collette has asked Boyce Wilson to serve temporarily as head of the committee. Mr. Hamblen reviewed what has happened with regard to the Resource Center since last summer: in August four bids were received, each from $104,000 - $125,000 more than the committee considered acceptable, and, therefore, each was rejected; the lowest bidder was asked to renegotiate, but this effort was unsuccessful; D.J. Redding was asked to work with the subcontractors and submit a negotiated bid. To date, he has found where, roughly, $60,000 can be saved and is gathering bids from subcontractors. There will be a special called meeting of the Association when a contract is ready for presentation.

11. Jim Hamblen announced that the "Church Starting Probe," scheduled for May 6-7, has been moved to the fall, due to scheduling difficulties with the outside Church Extension consultants. The Probe will be conducted to determine the best sites for new churches.

12. Carlton Mitchell, moderator, announced that Ralph Ferguson had just died. He asked Bill Pope (Mt. Olive), who was to lead in the offertory prayer, to remember the Fergusons in his prayer.

13. The messengers sang, "O Zion, Haste," and Rev. Mr. Pope led in the offertory prayer. The offering went to the Resource Center.

14. The choir of King First Baptist Church, accompanied by the brass ensemble, presented "O How I Love Jesus" and "Here Am I, Send Me."

15. Ray Hamilton (Konnoak) introduced the preacher for the meeting, Enoch Booth, until recently pastor of the Unity Baptist Church and presently pastor of the Guilford Baptist Church, noting that the focus of the spring meeting was on evangelism. Using Matthew 28:16-20 as a text, Rev. Mr. Booth preached a sermon titled, "Then Say So." He said that in the Great Commission Jesus (1) assured the disciples of His authority, (2) gave them a commission, and (3) promised them His presence. At the conclusion of the sermon Rev. Mr. Booth extended an invitation to recommitment to preaching the Gospel. Numerous persons responded by coming forward and kneeling in prayer. Members of the Evangelism Committee served as counselors as the messengers sang, "Rescue the Perishing."

16. Jim Hamblen led in the prayer of dedication.

Respectfully submitted,
Richard Groves, Clerk

Special Called Meeting

of the

MINERAL SPRINGS BAPTIST CHURCH

July 30, 1987

1. Carlton Mitchell, moderator, called the special called meeting of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association to order. Phil Mitchell led in the singing of "We're Marching to Zion," with Ed Locke playing the piano. Billy Moreland read Matthew 9:35ff and I Thessalonians 2:4ff and spoke briefly on the importance of sharing one's faith in Christ with others and training others to do so as well. Mr. Moreland then led in prayer.

2. Mr. Mitchell explained that Jim Hamblen was speaking at Glorietta, fulfilling a long-standing obligation, and, therefore, would be unable to attend the meeting. He gave a brief history of the planning of the Resource Center, noting that there had been talk of such a building to house the association offices for twenty years, but that planning had begun three years ago when committees began their work and churches were asked to pledge their support. He noted that originally it had been hoped that it would be possible to break ground during the centennial year of the association, but that proved not to be possible. A restudying of the project in the past couple of months had made it possible to proceed at the present time.

3. Mr. Mitchell recognized Ed Collette, who spoke for and expressed gratitude to the other members of the Building Committee (Warren Carr, Marion Rector, Marjorie Turner, Boyce Wilson, Troy Wood, Vonnie Wood). Mr. Collette made the following motion:

"The Executive Board recommends that Pilot Mountain Baptist Association approve the construction of the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center as follows:

1. The basic contract cost of $435,045;
2. The cost of extra footing, if necessary, in excess of three feet in width;
3. The cost of reinforcing underground wall at a maximum cost of $6,300;
4. A contingency fund of $10,000 to be used for changes as deemed necessary by the Building Committee;
5. To authorize the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association officers to contract with D.J. Redding Co., Inc. for this construction.

(The preceding motion contained two corrections of the printed motion which was made available at the meeting: the figure $435,245 was changed to $435,045 and "if necessary" was omitted from number 3. The latter change was made, Mr. Collette explained, because an agreement had just been reached that additional cost of reinforcing the footing would be necessary.)

Billy Moreland seconded the motion. Mr. Collette reviewed the history of the planning process. In the summer of 1986 four contractors submitted bids on the plans which had been prepared. The bids, which ranged from $503,000 to $519,000, were considered too high by the Building Committee. An effort was made to negotiate with the lowest bidder and the architect regarding plans and specifications. The result was a lower bid, but the functional nature of the building was changed so much that the committee chose not to pursue that course. Instead, the committee asked the Executive Board for permission to build the Resource Center on a cost-plus basis. The Executive Board granted permission, but, before the committee could move in that regard, the name of D.J. Redding was suggested as a possible builder. The committee contacted Mr. Redding, who said he would bid on the building on a contract basis but not on a cost-plus basis. Mr. Redding suggested several changes in the plans and specifications and submitted a bid of $435,045, with $6,300 added (as of this meeting) for reinforcing underground walls.

Richard Hicks asked Mr. Collette to explain the major changes which Mr. Redding had suggested. Mr. Collette listed the following changes:

1. eliminating the folding doors on the first floor, saving $10,000;
2. changing the truss system on the first and second floors from steel to wooden trusses, saving $18,000;
3. using masonry for the first floor and brick veneer and 2 x 6's elsewhere rather than masonry all the way up;
4. adding insulation between the first and second floors, a long-run savings but an additional $1,400 initially;
5. using white pine inside doors rather than birch.

Mark Corts asked for (1) the worse case scenario regarding the cost of extra footing, (2) the total footage of the building, and (3) cost per square foot. Mr. Collette responded by saying that the extra cost for footing would be no more than $5,000, that there would be 6,000 square feet finished on the first and second floor and 2,000 unfinished on the third floor, and that the cost per square foot would be $73.50 considering only the finished footage and $55.00 considering finished and unfinished footage.

Ralph Scales asked whether the committee was satisfied that the negotiated contract had not cost anything in terms of quality in the building. Mr. Collette said that the only loss was in eliminating the partitions on the first floor. He added that the architect agreed with all changes that had been made.

Mr. Mitchell asked for all those in favor of the motion to stand. The vote was unanimous in favor of the motion.

4. Mr. Mitchell recognized Charlie Turner, who made the following motion on behalf of the Finance Committee and the Executive Board:

> "The Executive Board recommends the authorization to borrow up to $200,000 to complete construction and which will include such items as equipment, furnishings, landscaping, and any other costs which may arise."

The motion was seconded. Mr. Turner reported that as of July 31, 1987, the association had $212,359.66 in cash, plus $116,673.39 in pledges from churches and $1,950 in pledges from individuals. In addition, $3,973.48 is yet to be received from sale of land. By the end of next year, when pledges should be in, the association should have $334,956.53. The proposed loan would be used to cover expenses over that amount. Mr. Turner explained that the association presently has a construction loan with Southern National which provides authorization to borrow up to $250,000. The proposed loan would take the place of that loan. The proposed loan would be open-ended, with the association taking money as it needs and repaying when donations come in. The association would be required to pay only interest (prime plus ½ percent) until pay off on July 1, 1989.

Mark Corts asked about the anticipated costs of furnishings and landscaping. Mr. Collette said that no decision had been made in that regard and that the committee preferred to wait until the building was built before those decisions would be made. Mr. Turner added that the $200,000 would more than cover all such costs. Billy Moreland asked whether the present furniture and equipment would be moved to the new building. Mr. Turner acknowledged differences of opinion on that matter and said a decision would have to be made by the Properties Committee.

Gerald Hewitt asked about the authority for the $250,000 loan as well as the proposed $200,000 loan. Mr. Turner said that in September, 1986, the Executive Board had asked the Finance Committee to secure commitments from area banks. The figure of $250,000 had been arbitrarily chosen at the time. The loan was secured with Southern National and renewed in March, 1987. The committee now feels that $200,000 will be adequate.

Mark Corts asked whether the motion granted the Finance Committee permission to negotiate a permanent loan after July 1, 1989. Mr. Turner replied that it did not; the committee would come back to the Executive Board for further permission. Mr. Corts moved that the original motion be amended to read:

> "The Executive Board recommends the authorization to borrow up to $200,000 from Southern National Bank at prime rate plus ½ percent in the form of a construction loan due on or before July 1, 1989, to complete construction and which will include such items as equipment, furnishings, landscaping, and any other costs which may arise."

Paul Williams seconded the motion.

Gerald Hewitt asked whether a construction loan could be used for furnishings, landscaping, etc. Mr. Turner said that there was no problem using the loan in that manner.

The amendment passed unanimously.

Mr. Mitchell asked all persons who favored the amended motion to stand. The vote was unanimous in favor of the motion.

The messengers expressed with applause their appreciation to the various committees which had worked on the planning process.

J.L. Wilson asked about the beginning and ending dates of construction. Mr. Collette said that construction could begin within two weeks and that work would be completed within 10-12 months.

5. A motion was made that the special called meeting adjourn. The motion was seconded and approved.

6. Phil Mitchell led in the singing of "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus." Richard Hicks led in closing prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Richard Groves, Clerk

AFTERNOON SESSION

1. Carlton Mitchell, moderator, called the 102nd annual session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association to order. Philip Mitchell, music director, led the messengers in singing "Forward Through the Ages." Ginny Britt read from Isaiah 6, I Peter 4:8-11, and Matthew 20:25-28 and led in prayer.

2. Richard Groves, clerk, moved that all persons who were registered or who would be registered be seated as messengers to the 102nd annual session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The motion was seconded by Boyce Wilson and approved.

3. Richard Hicks, chairman of the Order of Business Committee, moved that the printed program be adopted as the official order of business. The motion was seconded by Boyce Wilson and approved.

4. Jack Noffsinger, pastor of the Knollwood Baptist Church, welcomed the messengers on behalf of the host church. He noted that Knollwood Baptist Church was begun by the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association in 1957 with the constitution service being held at First Baptist Church. He reflected briefly on his 30-year ministry at Knollwood and among the churches of the association.

5. Jim Hamblen, director of missions, recognized several special guests: those who were attending the Association Meeting for the first time; Mrs. Bertha Sneed, a member of Antioch Baptist Church, who was attending her 52nd consecutive association meeting; Calvin Knight and Gerald Hewitt, North Carolina Baptist Hospital; Jack Hoyle, Baptist Retirement Homes; Charles Storey, director of the Church Music Department of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention. Jim Hamblen also recognized Mack Goss and Sydney Goldfinch, each of whom has dedicated proceeds from their recently published books to the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center.

6. Philip Mitchell led the messengers in singing "The Solid Rock."

7. Carlton Mitchell recognized Helen Hutchins, who moved the approval of the treasurer's report (pg. 107). The motion was seconded by Ronnie Reynolds and approved. Helen Hutchins moved that the 1988 budget be approved. The motion was seconded and approved unanimously.

8. Wilson Harmon moved that the associational calendars for 1988-1990 (pg. 135) be approved. The motion was seconded by Richard Hicks and approved. Carlton Mitchell expressed his appreciation to the Coordinating Council for the work they had done on the calendars.

9. Calvin Knight, chairman of the Nominating Committee, added the following names to the Nominating Committee report (pg. 95): Bill Poole to Institutional Representatives; Jimmy Lancaster to the Recreation Council; Carol West and Bob Lattimore to the Nominating Committee. He moved the adoption of the report. Floyd Helms seconded the motion. The motion passed.

10. M.M. Goss, chairman of the Constitution Committee, noted the proposed changes in the constitution (pg. 89) as a matter of information to be acted on at a later date.

11. Boyce Wilson, chairman of the Long Range Planning Committee, moved that the association adopt the "Five Year Plan 1988-1992" and authorize and instruct the Coordinating Council to implement the plan. Bill Fryar seconded the motion. Boyce Wilson said that the association is one year into the five year plan adopted in October, 1986. He said that there had been some disappointments in the first year of implementation but that there had been successes in other areas, mentioning specifically the work of the Coordinating Council, the Evangelism Council, and several Ministries Councils. He said that in 1987-88 there will be a PROBE, which is an effort to discover the best sites for new work. The goal is that one mission will be constituted as a church by the fall of 1988. 1988-1989 will be the Year of the Laity with the Evangelism Council coordinating a Lay Evangelism Seminar, CWT and MasterLife. Boyce Wilson also underscored future work in Church Training, Sunday School, and WMU, and noted future personnel needs in the association. He read from Luke 14 and closed with an encouragement to messengers to volunteer time and energy to the work of the association.

Amis Daniel called attention to Goal 5 of the "Five Year Plan 1988-1992," which called for an "increased use of Camp Retreat by 5 additional congregations each year by 12/31/89." He said that the Executive Board had voted in September, 1987, that the association would cut off funds to Camp Retreat. There followed a general discussion of the history of the relationship between the association and Camp Retreat and the action of the Executive Board. Wilson Harmon said that the Executive Board had voted to discontinue funding Camp Retreat and moved that Goal 5 be deleted. The motion was seconded by Mack Goss. Richard Hicks said that the goal had been approved in 1986 and that he would not approve its deletion. Marion Rector, chairman of the Camp Retreat Committee, said that no funds had been provided for three years. Troy Hamrick said that the association had paid nearly $100 per month to a port-a-john supplier. Naomi Lewis said the association should use Camp Retreat or sell it. Jim Hamblen said that $5,120 had been spent on Camp Retreat (power bills, liability insurance, etc.), and that the Executive Board had said that the association would expend no more funds. The motion to delete Goal 5 from the "Five Year Plan 1988-1992" passed 66-61. The amended Long Range Planning Committee Report was approved unanimously.

Richard Hicks expressed concern for the future of Camp Retreat and moved that the Camp Retreat Committee make a study to determine how it might be used (whether to develop it or sell it) and report back to the association at the fall, 1988, meeting. Amis Daniel offered a substitute motion proposing that the officers of the association make the study rather than the Camp Retreat Committee, since the committee might be biased in favor of developing the Camp Retreat, whereas the officers would be more objective. Richard Hicks agreed to the substitute motion providing that the Camp Retreat Committee would have input into the study. Jim Hamblen said that in April, 1986, the Camp Retreat Committee had been asked to make such a study and report to the association in the fall of 1989. The current proposal would simply move that assignment up a year. The substitute motion was seconded and approved.

12. Marion Rector, chairman of the Brotherhood Council, called attention to the report on page 73 and announced that the annual North Carolina Baptist Men's convention would be held at the First Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, November 6-8.

13. Boyce Wilson reported on the progress of the Resource Center (pg. 107), noting that ground had been broken.

14. Egbert Davis noted that the Nominating Committee report indicated that there is no institutional representative on the local board of the ACTS Network. He said that Wake Forest will be the subject of 26 special programs this year, that programs are now being listed in the local newspaper, and that the network is being carried close-circuit in Baptist Hospital. He moved that the Administrative Committee of the association "study ways and means of cooperating with the local ACTS Board to spread the Gospel through the use of television" and to report at the spring, 1988 session. Boyce Wilson seconded the motion. The motion was approved.

15. Ronnie Reynolds, chairman of the New Work Committee, pointed out that 46 percent of the association area is unchurched. He used maps to show where new housing is under construction or planned. He announced the PROBE which is planned for November 4-5 to determine where new churches are needed.

16. Charles Storey sang, "I Need Thee Every Hour."

17. J.W. Angell, professor of religion at Wake Forest University, spoke on "Pilot Mountain Baptist Association: What I Have Seen and Experienced." He said that he had preached in 33 of the churches in the association, that his great-great-great grandfather was a pastor in North Carolina 200 years ago, that his great-uncle was also a pastor. He said, "I have seen God at work in this association in the revelation of His will in many works of love."

18. Ed Christman, chaplain at Wake Forest University, led in "A Call to Remembrance and Benediction."

The afternoon session adjourned at 5:20.

19. Handbells choirs from Ardmore, College Park, First Baptist of Clemmons, Knollwood, and Northwest played "O Worship the King"; "Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross"; and "A Mighty Fortress is Our God."

20. Philip Mitchell led the congregation in singing "Hark, the Voice of Jesus Calling."

21. Charles Tabor read selections from Luke 4, Psalm 23 and Matthew 6 and led in prayer.

22. Jim Hamblen recognized the new ministers and staff members in the association. He introduced Philip Mitchell, Ty Talton, and Mike Apple, who created the pageant, "People: Volunteers in Missions."

23. John Lawrence, chairman of the Credentials Committee, read from the constitution of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association the regulations regarding accepting a church under the watchcare of the association. On behalf of the Credentials Committee, he moved that the Cornerstone Baptist Church be received under the watchcare of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The motion was seconded. John Lawrence recounted how the committee had met with members of the church on numerous occasions during the year, discussing theological issues and matters of church polity. He introduced Charles Martin, pastor of the Cornerstone Baptist Church, who said that the church had been constituted in April, 1987 and that the current membership is 132. The church is located on High Point Road in the Union Cross community. The motion was approved enthusiastically.

24. Philip Mitchell led the messengers in singing "We Have Heard the Joyful Sound." John Lawrence led in prayer.

25. The pageant "People: Volunteers in Missions" was presented.

26. Carlton Mitchell led in closing prayer.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:30.

Brotherhood

Pilot Mountain Association's Brotherhood Council's purpose is to involve men and boys in missions. We are aware of a number of people and church groups in our association going to Togo, Caswell, Topsail Beach Mission, and Corner Stone Baptist Church in the Piedmont Association. We appreciate the commitment to missions these men and boys have shown in bringing men to God through Christ.

The Brotherhood Commission has produced new literature to strengthen the Brotherhood organization. Self-study guides are available in the Training Series publications. Leadership Diplomas are available for those engaged in self-study. We are available to help you gain the "know-how" resources.

On August 31, 1987, we held a Leadership Training Session at Oaklawn Baptist Church. Marion Rector conducted the Brotherhood, church staff, and pastors sessions. About fifty men attended this workshop sponsored by Brotherhood and WMU.

We have three new group organizations: High School Baptist Young Men, Baptist Young Men (ages 18-34) and Collegiate Baptist. Literature and resources are available.

Royal Ambassadors

PMBA RA's were busy the past year. Emphasis was placed on organizing at the associational level in order to give more support and strength to the RA chapters at the church level. We had three new RA Chapters formed during the year. This brought the total number of churches with RA chapters to 43 for the association.

The following events were organized in order to meet the goals of the association:

November 3, 1986 - Baptist Men and Royal Ambassadors Mission Rally was held at Calvary Baptist Church. A banquet format with entertainment, testimony by two Wake Forest University athletes, and a presentation by three former RA's on their mission trip to Togo, West Africa, highlighted the evening. Approximately 175 men and boys attended the rally.

March 7, 1987 - Our annual crusader car competition and mission fair exhibit was held at Becks Baptist. Approximately 85 boys entered cars and a mission exhibit which depicted how Southern Baptists are involved in missions at home and abroad.

May 22, 1987 - Hanging Rock State Park was the site of our associational camparama. Eighty boys and dads participated in an overnight campout, which also included campcraft demonstrations, getting to know other RA's from the association, competitive games, and campsite judging.

Our annual associational track meet was cancelled this past year due to no facilities available, but plans are to have it this year.

Chaplaincy Ministries Council

During this past year this Council has met four times with an in-depth look at the needs of chaplaincy ministry and how to meet those needs.

In our report last year we indicated a survey had been made of 29 institutions and agencies to determine the need for chaplains. It was obvious that all had volunteers from churches providing worship services and Sunday School, but few had the necessary chaplaincy ministry.

During this year our primary task has been to locate and train ministers and lay people willing to give a few hours each week to help meet this need. We sent a letter to more than 300 ministers and lay people asking them to indicate on a return card if they would be willing to participate. We had a very small number responding positive and even fewer attending the training session that was provided.

During the coming year it will be necessary for our Council to make a different approach to meet this need.

Christian Life Council

The Christian Life Council has had a joyful year with three workshops: drug abuse led by Larry Freeman, Parenting by Grace led by Bob Newton; and a Singles Ministry Workshop October 1 led by Joann Wright, Jim Ballard, and Charles Smith with 48 in attendance.

We have purchased four videos and they are available in the associational office for anyone who wants to check them out:

(1) The Layman Talks about Marriage and the Christian Home
(2) The Game America is Losing: Sports, Values, and Family
(3) Youth at Risk: Teenage Suicide
(4) Success in Marriage (a series in three parts) by Charles Petty

If you have a definite area of moral concern, please let the associational office or someone on the Christian Life Council know and we will try to gather information about that matter and make it available to the churches.

Please continue to pray for this Council.

Church and Community Ministries Council

The Church and Community Ministries Council continually looks for opportunities to involve the churches of Pilot Mountain Association in ministry. We are pleased to report the following Mission Projects that we engaged in last year:

- Multi-Family Housing Conference - This was a regional conference cosponsored by PMBA and Baptist State Convention. Fifty attended.
- Ministries Awareness Conference - There were representatives from 22 local agencies displaying ministry opportunities in our area.
- Multi-Family Housing Ministries Conference - This conference was for churches of Forsyth County. The program included representatives from Downtown Church Center, Crisis Control Ministry, Senior Services, Contact and PMBA. It was videotaped by ACTS.
- Backyard Bible Clubs - Our summer missionary was Debra McDowell. We had 12 clubs with 13 sponsoring churches. A total of 250 children were enrolled with 52 professions of faith.
- Tanglewood Ministry - Summer missionary was Sandy Brown. This program involved 250 campers in worship and other activities. Many churches shared in this ministry by providing programs and refreshments. A total of 150 Bibles were distributed through the Backyard Bible Clubs and Tanglewood Ministry.
- Self-Help Crafts - Crafts from Third-World countries were displayed at the Ministries Awareness Conference. Following this, four of our churches had their own Self-Help Crafts promotion. Union Grove, as part of their World Hunger Offering promotion raised $1,400 in crafts sales and also received an offering of $1,475, the largest in their history.
- Literacy - The Council has been actively involved in organizing a Forsyth County Literacy Council. A Conversational English Class was begun for internationals and refugees.
- Adult Mentally Handicapped Retreat - This one day retreat was the third one sponsored by our association. There were 93 present this year - 63 mentally handicapped persons and 30 workers.

Church Training

During the past year emphasis in Church Training was given to the Children's Bible Drills and publicity of the MasterLife Seminars at Caraway Conference Center. We had an increase in Children's Bible Drill participation, with special thanks to Mrs. Natalie Birdsong Johanson, who has served as children's specialist for Church Training for the past three years.

Mike Willard, pastor consultant for Church Training, encouraged attendance at the MasterLife Seminars. Several of our pastors and staff participated in this meaningful week of overview of materials, and sample sessions. Our association assisted pastors and staff with a $50.00 scholarship for the first ten requests.

We look forward to continued good work as Rev. Eddie Brackett comes to assume the role of Church Training Director. His capable leadership will bring great things to the Church Training organization of Pilot Mountain Association.

Cooperative Ministries Council

As one of the Missions Development Councils, the Cooperative Ministries Council is intended to encourage fraternal relationships between the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and the Rowan Baptist Association. The council seeks to determine needs and plan programs to enhance the relationships of participating churches.

Our immediate goal is to increase fellowship events and to facilitate relationships across barriers that separate us. Ministers of both Associations now meet in December and May for worship and fellowship. It is our hope to build growing relationships between individuals and churches in the coming months.

May the call of Christ, and not crisis, challenge us to growth in race relationships by the power of His Holy Spirit.

Evangelism Council

The Evangelism Council of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association exists for the purpose of assisting and encouraging churches of our association in their evangelism efforts. It is our belief that the Council is well prepared to lead and assist our churches in evangelism.

A major emphasis of the Southern Baptist Convention for the year 1988-89 will be THE YEAR OF THE LAITY. Baptists believe that all Christians, clergy and laypeople, are responsible for the propagation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The 1988-89 year will be one of special emphasis on the role of laypeople in the work of the Lord and His church. Therefore, much of the work of the Evangelism Council in 1988 will be in preparation for the YEAR OF THE LAITY, which will begin October 1, 1988.

Some of the Council's plans for 1988 include:

(1) Assisting in a MasterLife program right here in our Association.
(2) Hosting an Evangelism Practicum led by Southeastern Seminary.
(3) Planning the Annual Spring Session of our Association in which evangelism will be emphasized. Dr. Avery Willis will be our special guest for this session.
(4) Encouraging and assisting at least ten churches to begin Evangelism Committees.
(5) Planning a spiritual retreat for leaders/wives at Camp Caraway.

Your prayers are requested as the Evangelism Council becomes more and more involved in the work of evangelism in our association. If your church can use the advice or services of the Evangelism Council, we urge you to call on us.

Media Library

PMBA was well represented this year at Media Library Week at Ridgecrest. Five persons representing three churches and the association spent a week in intensive study of library work.

Our annual state meeting was held at Camp Caraway in April. Many of our media library people were able to take advantage of this opportunity to further develop their skills. Representatives of the Sunday School Board led these classes.

TACMO had one request for help in establishing a new library this year. Thus, another of our member churches is well on its way to having a vital, active media library to help in its ministries.

Music Council

The Music Council planned and implemented some fine events over the past year to strengthen the work of our churches. At the 1986 Fall Meeting of the association, several adult choir members from our churches combined to present 2000 A.D., a cantata about missions and evangelism around the world. Over 80 adults joined to proclaim a moving message through music, which undergirded the report of the Long Range Planning Committee.

In December, seventy-seven youth choir members from several churches rehearsed and presented Celebrate Life. Jim Hawkins, member of the Church Music Staff of the Baptist Sunday School Board, did a marvelous job as guest director. The cantata was presented at Brendle Recital Hall on the campus of Wake Forest University.

The highlight of the spring was the Part-time/Volunteer Music Director Workshop. This time of training was designed specifically to meet the needs of both the trained and the novice Minister of Music. Mr. Tommy Keown, Associational/Small Church Consultant in the Church Music Department of the Baptist Sunday School Board, was the leader. Enthusiasm was such that a similar workshop is being planned for the coming year.

In October of 1987 an Adult Choir Festival was conducted at Northwest Baptist Church. Along with the participation of the individual choirs, preparations were made for this year's Fall Meeting of the Association.

The Music Council of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association exists to plan, promote, and implement training events and corporate music experiences which strengthen the work of the Music Ministry in the local church. 1987-1988 looks to be an exciting and productive year as we seek to accomplish all that lies before us.

Sunday School

The Sunday School work of Pilot Mountain Association continues to grow in enthusiasm through our emphasis on growth through outreach and training. We truly believe that a church is as strong as its Sunday School! The Sunday School is a perfect network for involving its membership in reaching, teaching, and witnessing! We are "on mission" for reaching people, teaching the Bible, witnessing for Christ, ministering to needs, leading people to attend worship, and undergirding the church and denomination. These are the basic Sunday School tasks and are the major objective of your Sunday School Council and ASSISTeam.

Your Sunday School Council has met faithfully each month to undergird the plans and goals set in our annual retreat in May. We have worked closely with the Association's Long Range Planning Committee and have adopted specific goals for a five percent increase in enrollment, calling for each church to adopt a minimum goal of five percent increase in enrollment. Other goals include establishing outreach organizations in each Sunday School, outreach Bible study groups, the use of training modules in outreach, and evangelism, and a major emphasis in training through our spring and fall association training schools. In 1988 we will host a Growth Spiral Workshop and in 1989 a major Sunday School Growth campaign.

In March of 1987 our spring training school featured the Bible Teaching series for adults, youth, children and preschool leaders with additional courses offered in the Baptist Faith and Message, Outreach and Evangelism, the Church's Response to Drugs, and Directors of Church Training.

In June we conducted a "Sunday School Council Workshop" at Winston-Salem First. For our fall association training school on October 5 and 6, the Understanding series for adults, youth, children and preschool leaders was offered as well as conferences for Home Bound Departments, Cradle Roll, and Mentally Retarded. During "half-time," exhibits on resources and materials were on display.

Your Sunday School Council and ASSISTeam have achieved the Standard of Excellence for the second year in a row and are one of a small number of associations in our state to achieve this. This is due to a faithful and strong commitment, a gift of time and talent by your ASSISTeam, many of whom are state convention special age-group consultants and serve many times during the year in our state and other states. Several of us have had the privilege of serving as consultants to individual churches in the association this year to evaluate present and future development of Sunday School growth. We hope to receive more requests in the future. It is our dream that Pilot Mountain Association will soon be experiencing a great "Sunday School Revival"!

Woman's Missionary Union

"GIFTED To Serve - Called To Act" has been our theme this year. We have attempted to lead women, girls and preschoolers to discover their God-given gifts, and then become involved in their world.

Leadership Conference on September 8, 1986, was attended by 266 leaders from 46 churches.

In order for pastors, spouses and church staff to understand better WMU plans for the year, a dinner was held at College Park October 27, 1986. One hundred six WMU leaders, pastors, spouses and staff members from 27 churches attended this event, which was coordinated by Thelma Ragsdale.

March 26, 1987, was a "red letter day" for us. In cooperation with Wake Forest University and Wake Forest Baptist Church, we had the privilege of spending "An Evening with Carolyn Weatherford." One hundred seventy-two persons from 36 churches heard Dr. Weatherford review WMU history and challenge us to continue to be "Laborers Together with God." Martha Royal presided at this event, and Baptist Women Council coordinated a beautiful reception in the Fellowship Hall at Mineral Springs Baptist Church.

Rural Hall First Baptist hosted the annual meeting April 6, 1987. Individuals from 28 churches were recognized for their volunteer service to their community and world. Speakers Shirley Bryant and Jean Cooper shared their ways of responding to God's call.

Under the leadership of Beverly Hamblen, Christmas was made a lot brighter for residents in prisons, Friendship House, Hawley House, Battered Women's Shelter, Juvenile Detention Home and nursing homes as mini-health kits compiled by WMU members in our association were distributed. Another Mission Action event was a shower and open house at Hawley House on August 6, 1987. WMU members "showered" the House with linens and household items. As usual, the response was overwhelming.

The year 1987/1988 will be the 100th anniversary for WMU. This year, Lois Whitaker, Centennial Chairperson, has been laying the ground work for this celebration.

Baptist Women and Baptist Young Women's World Day of Prayer in November of 1986 was held in three churches with 204 ladies from 46 churches attending.

Baptist Women Spring Mission Action Project was bed caddies and lap robes distributed to nursing homes. Serving on the BW Council were Georgie Kitchen, director, Joyce Love, Enan Baldwin, Judy Foster and Vickie Ward.

Tammy McKinney, BYW Director, reports one new organization. On March 9, 1987, a fellowship dinner with theme "Gifts Are for Giving" was held at Knollwood Baptist Church. Twenty women from five churches talked about gifts and how BYW can give them away by using them.

Thirteen Mission Friends leaders from nine churches met at Old Town Baptist Church on November 10, 1986, for a workshop on "Helping Others." Connie Dickens and Tha Park helped the leaders discover ways to involve preschoolers in mission action.

Acteen and GA leaders met together on February 12, 1987, to learn how to use available materials better.

"Accentuate the Positive" event on May 13, 1987 for Acteens and leaders was held at Kernersville First Baptist Church. The highlight was on "Accentuating Love," as 75 pairs of socks and other items were collected and sent to Frank Belvin to be used in Indian work in Oklahoma. Acteens brought desserts made from recipes from around the world. Forty-seven attended from 10 churches. Frances McDaniel is Acteen Director.

Jerie Sams, GA Director, reports a good time was had by all at GA Fun Day May 23, 1987, at Oaklawn Baptist Church. Program consisted of games, singing, missionary speaker, food and fellowship.

We on the Associational WMU Council strongly believe that WMU can help a church be what God wants her to be, and we are available to help when asked. Contact has been made with every church in our Association, and, once again, we have achieved "Distinguished" on Achievement Guide.

Youth Ministries Council

The Youth Ministries Council has enjoyed a year that could be properly defined as a year of definition and transition.

Throughout the year we discussed, pondered and struggled with the idea of how the Youth Ministries Council might better serve the needs of Pilot Mountain Association. Out of our discussions we decided that as for programming events for our association, quality as opposed to quantity should be stressed. Our task should be one of training and support of Youth Ministers and volunteer Youth Workers in our association, preparing them so that they may minister more effectively to the youth in their local congregations. In order to meet this need, we scheduled and carried out for the second year our Annual Youth Ministers/Volunteer Workers Clinic on April 14. Representatives from a number of our churches attended. We hope in the coming years, however, that more will choose to take advantage of this time of training and support.

During the year we also looked into the possibility of expanding our intended purpose in order to include ministry to students as well. At the present time this is being considered.

This was also a year of transition. Eric Bjork, chairman of the Youth Ministries Council, resigned due to his departure from Oaklawn Baptist Church. Eric is now Minister of Youth and Children at Fernwood Baptist Church in Spartanburg, South Carolina. We appreciate Eric for his two years of dedicated service to the Youth Ministries Council.

To the Audit Committee
Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.
Winston-Salem, North Carolina

Gentlemen:

We have examined the statement of assets and liabilities - modified cash basis of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc., as of December 31, 1986, and the related statements of revenues, disbursements, and fund balances - modified cash basis for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in Note 1, to the financial statements, the Association's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements; consequently, certain revenues and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to in the first paragraph present fairly the assets and liabilities of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc. as of December 31, 1986, and its revenues, disbursements, and fund balances for the year then ended on the basis of accounting described in Note 1, which basis has been applied in a manner consistent with that of the preceding year.

Our examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The accompanying detail schedules of revenues and expenditures are presented for the purpose of additional analysis and are not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic statements taken as a whole.

Respectfully submitted,
Gray Callison & Co. P.A.

Notes to Financial Statements

PILOT MOUNTAIN BAPTIST ASSOCIATION
Winston-Salem, North Carolina

1. Significant Accounting Policies:
   a. The accompanying statements have been prepared using the modified cash basis method of accounting. Under the modified cash basis method, certain revenues and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Certain ''In-Kind'' transactions are recorded at their estimated current values. The cash method has been modified primarily by recording of fixed assets, depreciation and the related sales of these assets.
   b. Furniture and equipment have been recorded using management's estimates of values at January 1, 1986, for assets previously acquired, but not recorded. Donated land and building values have been recorded based upon property tax values at January 1, 1986. Assets purchased in 1986 are recorded at cost, while donated assets are recorded at their estimated fair market values at date of receipt. Depreciation has been determined by use of the straight-line method over the respective estimated lives of the assets.
   c. The accompanying statements do not reflect the value of donated services provided by volunteers. The value of these services is not readily determinable.
   d. The financial statements are presented in accordance with the principles of fund accounting, whereby resources and disbursements are classified into funds according to specified purposes of restrictions.

      The following is a description of the self-balancing funds used by Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc. in accounting for its financial activities:
      1. General Fund:
         The general fund accounts for all resources over which the governing board has discretionary control to use in carrying on the general operations of the association. Contributions for general purposes are all accounted for in this fund.
      2. Resource Center Fund:
         The resource center fund accounts for all resources which have been designated by the contributors or the governing board for use in the construction of the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center Building.
      3. Designated Fund:
         The designated fund accounts for all resources which have been designated by the contributors or the governing board for various uses.
      4. Plant Fund:
         The plant fund accounts for all capital resources which have been purchased or donated to the Association.
2. Organization:
   Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc. is a non-profit corporation organized for the purpose of assisting congregations enhance the fellowship of believers, share the gospel, develop believers, strengthen missions, and participate in determining the direction of the association.

3. Accounting Changes:
Prior to 1986, the Association did not capitalize costs incurred in connection with the acquisition of property and equipment, and has not reported donated capital assets. Standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants provide that modifications may be made to cash basis financial statements in order to reflect capital assets. Because the value of these assets have become significant, current reports have been changed to reflect fixed assets at their estimated fair market values at January 1, 1986. This change is important in order to better reflect the overall financial position of the organization. The cumulative effect of changes in fund balances at January 1, 1986, were as follows:

Resource Center Fund	$ 19,800
	$ 163,082

4. Notes Receivable were Represented as Follows:

Stephen P. Newsome, purchase money Note, payable in 24 consecutive monthly installments of $459.14 with interest at the rate of 9.5 percent, secured by deed of trust on land located on Romara Drive.	$ 6,875
James and Linda Combs, purchase money Note, payable in two yearly installments of 7,500 beginning July 10, 1986, with interest at the rate of 10.5 percent, secured by deed of trust on land located on Hastings Hill.	7,500

5. Income Taxes:
The Association is recognized as a charitable organization under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and has been granted exemption from Federal and State income taxes.

6. Leases:
The Association is currently leasing space on North Point Boulevard on an oral month-to-month agreement at $875 per month. Lease expense for the year ended December 31, 1986 amounted to $10,500.

7. Designated Fund:
The designated fund balance was represented as follows:

Camp retreat	$ 533
Long range planning	3,802
Basketball	2,287
New work	4,944

Credentials Committee

The Credentials Committee met three times during the past year to give consideration to the application of Cornerstone Baptist Church for a watchcare relationship with the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. At the three meetings we met with the pastor and some of the leadership of the Cornerstone Church. During these meetings serious questions were asked concerning church policy, theology, the support of the Cooperative Program, and other necessary questions.

We were well pleased with the response which we received from the group which met with us. We, therefore, recommend unanimously that Cornerstone Baptist Church be received in a watchcare relationship with this association.

Long Range Planning Committee

During the past year, the Long Range Planning Committee has concentrated on four primary agenda items:

- Evaluating the implementation of the Five Year Plan (1986-1991) approved by the Association in session at the fall meeting on October 21, 1986.
- Implementing the ''Action items of the Long Range Planning Committee which are included in the Five Year Plan.
- Evaluating the long range planning ''process'' and integrating it into the annual planning of the Coordinating Council.
- Reviewing and revising the goals and action items of the Five Year Plan to reflect the latest conditions and to extend its coverage for the next five years (1987-1992).

The Long Range Planning Committee provided each newly elected leader an approved copy of the Five Year Plan for implementation. Almost all chairpersons had participated in the planning process and had assisted in the compilation of the Plan. The Coordinating Council, under the leadership of Jim Hamblen, used the ''Action Items'' for 1987-88 as its guide for following the implementation of the Plan. As chairman of the Long Range Planning Committee and as a member of the Coordinating Council, I assisted in monitoring the implementation of the Plan. The implementation of the Plan went just about as predicted - ''average.''

A specific ''Action Item'' in the Five Year Plan for the Long Range Planning Committee was accomplished. The committee was assigned under Objective: Assist the congregation to IMPROVE THE ORGANIZATION; Goal: Assist congregations to Implement Church Councils; Action: Conduct Church Council Training Conference. The conference was conducted on April 11, 1987, at King First Baptist Church.

The Long Range Planning Committee met monthly during the year. At each meeting, the long range planning ''process'' was on the agenda to be evaluated in view of the changing and current conditions. With the assistance of the Coordinating Council, the long range planning process and the annual planning activities of the Council were integrated. Such intergration is not only normal but necessary in order to implement and to monitor the Plan and to ensure that the Plan is dynamic or open-ended.

The committee devoted a significant amount of its effort in reviewing and revising the Five Year Plan to reflect the benefits gained through one year of implementation experience. The Plan was revised to include additional ''Action Items'' and/or information received from the various councils and committees during the Annual Planning Retreat held at Caraway in June 1987.

All of the members have been very faithful in their attendance at meetings and to the task of the planning committee.

In retrospect, I consider this past year, 1986-87, to be ''soak time'' for the Plan and the ''process.'' It has been a good year - ''A TIME TO ACT'' - a time of hope and a time of great promise for the future. I am convinced that the long range planning is working and will continue to be effective as long as it is an open-ended process. I truly believe with all my heart - ''the best for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association is yet to come; our best years are yet to come.''

Personnel Committee

The implementation of the staff evaluation program which was initiated and begun last year has been successfully continued throughout this year. It is proving to be a valuable tool both for the associational staff and the Personnel Committee.

The Reverend Micheal Bradshaw has served almost a year as our Missions Ministries Director. Mr. Bradshaw is effectively tying in the social ministries of the association with our local churches.

The Personnel Committee recommended the following: (1) that the association participate in the Expanded Annuity Board Program for the associational staff; (2) that the association add the Martin Luther King, Jr. holiday to those already approved for the staff, with the understanding that this entails no additional days off. The New Year's Eve holiday will be deleted and the King holiday will take its place in order for the association to express its identification with our black Christian brothers and sisters; and (3) to meet the requirements of the Federal Tax Reform Act of 1986 that the travel expense for the executive staff be changed from a travel allowance to a monthly reimbursement.

I am deeply appreciative to the industrious and cooperative members of the Personnel Committee. Also, I am grateful for a dedicated and efficient associational staff.

Fellowship Conferences

Fellowship Council

This year marks the first effort we have made to develop a Fellowship Council in the associational organization. When the moderator retires from his year of service, he becomes chairman of this council.

It has been my privilege to serve on this council in this past associational year. In addition to having a meeting with those individuals who serve in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Ministers Fellowship, Ministers' Wives Fellowship and Music Ministers Fellowship, I have also been meeting in fellowship meetings with our Missions Director and with pastors in Forsyth and Stokes County.

We didn't get first mentioned meeting properly organized. I trust my successor will be able to do this. The last two items mentioned have provided a time of fellowship which is appreciated by all.

It seems to me to be significant for the moderator to serve in this capacity following his active term of service.

Church Secretaries Conference

The purpose of the Church Secretaries Conference is to encourage individual growth and professional excellence; to provide support and fellowship for its members; to develop a better understanding of the church secretary's duties and responsibilities and to offer continuing education opportunities pertaining to her specific work. We strive, most of all, to encourage, assist and support one another in our unique field.

This conference meets bimonthly. Some of the programs we had this year were: "The Role of the Secretary in the Pastoral Ministry of the Church." Our guests for this panel were Rev. Richard Hicks, Dr. J. L. Wilson and Rev. Bill Yates. For National Secretaries Week in April, our program was presented by Brenda Hutchins with the theme, "Being the best we can be." Our May meeting was a picnic and "A Look at a One-girl Office" by Helen Johnson. Our July meeting was a "Brainstorming Session" led by the program committee. "Salaries and Benefits of Church Secretaries" was the program in September.

The following officers were elected to serve through May 1988:

President - Brenda Hicks, Northwest
Vice President - Clara Johnston, Konnoak
Secretary/Treasurer - Bonnie Kiger, Calvary
Program Committee - Helen Johnson, chairperson, Pfafftown; Chris Royal, Calvary; Sherri Thomasson, Calvary; Dot Bone, Northwest
Publicity Committee - Peggy Hall, chairperson, PMBA Office; Peggy Clawson, Winston-Salem First; Mary Ann Page, Old Town

Ministers' Conference

The PMBA Ministers' Conference is composed of pastors and staff members of churches of our association. One of the major purposes of this conference is that of fellowship. Many pastors and staff members look forward to their monthly meeting because it gives them opportunity to fellowship and share with their fellow ministers. Monthly programs which encourage or enhance the ministry of the church are presented.

Personally, I think the programs presented throughout the past year were outstanding. Ty Talton, vice president of the conference; Maurice Briggs and Enoch Booth, program leaders; and Cecil Cave, music leader, are to be commended for planning so many outstanding programs throughout the year. I thank God for my fellow ministers. The fellowship we experience here in the PMBA means so much to us. I am personally grateful for the way I have been accepted and encouraged by my fellow pastors here in our association. Your pastors and staff members need your prayers and support. They want to be good ministers of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; therefore, they need your prayers so much.

Ministers' Mates

As a group of Christian Ministers' Mates, we strive to promote fellowship, to share in the good and the bad experiences of life, to be especially conscious of the new families who come to our association and enlist them in our fellowship. Each meeting starts with a devotional. This year Etta Stokes, Miriam Mitchell and Beth May have made each one interesting and challenging.

Except for December, and including our Valentine Banquet, we meet once a month, September through May. We meet at varied times to accommodate those who work and cannot attend day meetings. We have programs that are helpful, interesting and fun. The theme for 1986-87 was "Kaleidoscope." Wanda Smith and Mary Knight stirred our curiosity and interest each month with color topics dealing with nature, travel, creativity and freedom, causing each one to have greater appreciation for many things we sometimes take for granted.

Our most efficient secretary/treasurer and historian, Johnsie Liner, prepared a sketch of the history of the Ministers' Mates to be placed in the Baptist Historical collection at Wake Forest University. Also a copy is filed in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association office. Johnsie's very able assistant is Ruth Lawrence.

We appreciate our fellowship with the ministers of the association, who sponsor our Valentine Banquet in February each year. We look forward to this meeting together and to the interesting program they provide. Our thanks go to Sara Stevens and Beverly Hamblen for the attractive and interesting decorations they provided for our last banquet.

Our very special thanks to Peggy Hall for her untiring interest and help. Each year she makes our yearbook (directory) listing each member with address, telephone number and the church to which they belong. Included in the yearbook are names of each officer, the date for monthly meetings and the program topic for each month. Before each monthly meeting, she sends attractive cards to all members giving details about the meeting. What a great help this is! Thanks, Peggy and PMBA staff.

Youth Ministers Conference

The Youth Ministers Conference met at several different associational churches this past year and the programs were designed to allow the participating youth ministers to share both their joys and frustrations. In the coming year our conferences will address many areas of youth ministry, as well as provide support for all of those who minister to our youth.

Other Reports

Executive Director

Last October we adopted the PMBA Five Year Plan: 1987-1991. This October we will have the opportunity to adopt the first revision of our long range plan, PMBA Five Year Plan: 1988-1992. We have experienced the first year of working toward the goals which move us toward the objectives of:

Enhancing our Fellowship;
Reaching People;
Developing Believers;
Strengthening Missions; and Improving our Organization

We did not accomplish all that we intended in some areas, but we realized our hopes and dreams in many more.

In the area of Fellowship, we saw the establishment of the Stokes Ministers Fellowship which meets monthly in different churches in Stokes County. Through several meetings I have seen the mutual concerns and support shared among those gathered from month to month. Other Fellowship Conferences have provided specific help and assistance to those specialized groups that meet monthly.

The Coordinating Council continues to monitor the calendaring process of the many programs of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. And this past year the program leaders assumed an additional responsibility of establishing the financial priorities of the PMBA by entering the negotiating process of budget preparation with the Finance Committee. The Finance Committee will be presenting the largest "faith" budget for 1988 as a result of this growth experience. Some of the most significant accomplishments were realized in the area of Missions Development Councils. You will find the training conferences, mission projects, ministries, etc., listed in the reports of Chaplaincy Ministries Council, Christian Life Council, and Church and Community Ministries Council.

Among the Administrative Services Committees, the Communications Committee and the Credentials Committee have entered some new areas of activities, along with several other ongoing and well-functioning committees.

Regarding our plans and work toward the construction of the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center, we have been frustrated on many occasions, but the most thrilling events related to this twenty-year old dream came in the unanimous approval of the Construction Committee's recommendations by the Executive Board and the Association's Special Session. While we all may be impatient for the completion of this building, there has been a growing sense of "ownership" and pride throughout the association - which may be one of the greatest benefits of this project.

As we reflect on the accomplishments and achievements of the past year, no one should overlook the work of the competent staff serving our association. With the addition of Mike Bradshaw, Missions Ministries Director, we have seen an awakening among several of the ministries councils. His additional assistance in some of the administrative responsibilities has made my job much easier. Peggy Hall, Administrative Assistant, continues to give clear direction to the work flow within the office. Sheree Jones, Educational Coordinator, has assisted several congregations in consultations and enlisted additional volunteers to help in the office, along with her other responsibilities. Sandra Hall, Financial Secretary, has been most helpful in the new auditing procedures and computerized accounting process. The Personnel Committee has been helpful in evaluating our staff. It would be thoughtful to say a very special "Thank you" to these dedicated staff members as you have opportunity.

Speaking expressions of special gratitude, may I take this opportunity to express our deep appreciation for those volunteers who have enabled the office staff to produce the quality results as requested by the officers, councils and committees of PMBA. Let me introduce you to our Volunteer Office Staff:

Mary Ella Barefoot, Fellowship Baptist Church
Kitty Bullin, Crestwood Baptist Church
Sadie Hendrix, Old Town Baptist Church
Helen Hylton, Wake Forest Baptist Church
Joyce Love, Clemmons First Baptist Church
Sue Tesh, Clemmons First Baptist Church
Marjorie Turner, Bethania Baptist Church
Lois Whitaker, Winston-Salem First Baptist Church

Ladies, we all thank you very much!

Finally, each year I reflect on the many blessings that have come to me and my family since coming to serve with you almost four years ago. The opportunity to work with so many gifted and talented leaders is a real joy. I am reminded that "to whom much is given...much shall be required!" Can we recommit ourselves and all our resources to serve the Father, Our Lord, and His churches more faithfully throughout the coming years?

In His Service,
Jim Hamblen, Executive Director

Construction Committee
Resource Center Building Committee

On July 30, 1987 the association in a special called meeting approved a contract with D. J. Redding Co., Inc. of Rural Hall to build the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association Lewis Ludlum Resource Center at a contract price of $435,045.

The contract was signed by the associational officers and D. J. Redding, Jr. on August 12, 1987. Immediately after this date, the wheels started rolling to get the necessary permits to start construction. At this point we ran into problems meeting the requirements of the Environmental Department. After several changes in drawings, the permit to build was finally received during the first week of October.

Trees have been cleared and grading was started on Monday, October 12, and by the time of the Annual Meeting one should see the foundation walls coming out of the ground. Unless we have severe weather, causing long delays, our functional and beautiful Resource Center should be completed and occupied before the next Annual Meeting.

Vice Moderator/Executive Board

The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association Executive Board met four times as recommended by the Constitution. All of these meetings have been open for reports from all committees, councils, and organizations. With most of these taking advantage of this opportunity, there is evidence that much outstanding work is being done throughout the association. The spirit of the association is characterized by this excitement. A detailed report can be found in the minutes of the four Executive Board meetings. The following is a summary.

December 15, 1986

- Barry Burge of Wood, Burge, and Miller was approved as legal counsel for the association.
- A separate account was established to handle designated gifts.
- Housing Allowance was approved for Director of Missions and Missions Ministries Director.

March 31, 1987

- Approved the recommendation from the Administrative Committee to set a common meeting time of 7:00 p.m. for all associational meetings unless otherwise specified.
- Peggy Hall was approved to sign checks.

Five Year Plan: 1988-1992

"There is a right time for everything" Ecclesiastes 3:1 (TLB)

A Time to Dream...A TIME TO ACT...A Time to Rejoice

Reach People
Develop Believers
Strengthen Missions
Improve the Organization
Enhance the Fellowship

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE:

"The purpose of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association is to glorify God by assisting congregations to be in fellowship and to fulfill their mission, individually and together."

PLEASE NOTE: All items with asterisk (*) are revisions to the Five Year Plan.

Introduction

We are one year along the five year "spiritual trail" we had previously mapped out together. While hiking the trail, we have had many opportunities to learn a great deal more about ourselves. The more we learn about ourselves and our relationship to God and to each other, the stronger we become and the struggle to stay on the trail becomes easier.

We learned that the backpack we filled for the "five year" hike was inadvertently "over stuffed" for some of the seasons and for some of the terrain and "under stuffed" for others. We also learned that the planned pace of the journey has been at times too fast and, at other times, too slow. As we hiked the trail, we too realized that the distance between "rest stops" and "camp sites" was often longer than we had thought necessary on our journey together. We become aware of the many internal and external resources for replenishing and refreshing the "body" and the "soul" for continuing and finishing the long hike. As a result of actual hiking for a year on the trail, our legs (the planning of all the councils and committees and the planning process) have become stronger and stronger. We are now better prepared to keep on walking with more intensity, more energy, more hope, and more promise than ever before of reaching our desired and planned destination; i.e., "to glorify God by assisting congregations to be in fellowship and to fulfill their mission, individually and together" - the Promised Land.

The members of the Long Range Planning Committee have been on the trail with all of the other hikers (council and committee leaders and members and staff) and have sought to make the journey smoother and more rewarding and more satisfying for everyone. Whenever the need arose, the planning committee made mid-course adjustments to keep all of us pressing on toward the mark. The "new" Five Year Plan (1987-1992) reflects our one year of hiking experience on the implementation segment of the trail,, the latest planning information from the councils and committees and staff, and an additional year of planning to extend the coverage through 1991-92.

For the Long Range Planning Committee and, hopefully, you too, it is truly "A TIME TO REJOICE" because we are very confident that we - yes, all of us: the Holy Spirit, leaders, staff, fellow Christians, and sojourners - are on the right spiritual trail - TOGETHER!

Let us, therefore, accept the challenge during the coming and future years to "answer with our feet" and "hike the trail" and not just "talk the talk" about fulfilling our Kingdom responsibilities right here in our own Jerusalem - the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Together, we can do it!

Boyce R. Wilson, Chairman
Long Range Planning Committee
October 20, 1987

CLYDE ALBERT BRISTOW, SR.

Clyde A. Bristow was a man dedicated to words, especially those written in the Bible, and works—often expressed in words. After years in the Marines and as a truck driver, he came "home" to the church and its service, joining Southside Baptist Church. He wanted to repay God for taking care of him; this was his way of acknowledging thanks.

He was a dedicated, dependable Christian, holding nearly every position and office within his own congregation from church treasurer to chairman of the Board of Deacons to Sunday School director. He became the church's unofficial reporter, writing stories for the local newspaper as well as the Biblical Recorder and other Baptist publications.

His effectiveness as a devoted Christian caused the Rev. Lewis A. Ludlum, director of missions for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, early on to tap his leadership. Together With T.W. Harrell, they set about starting new congregations across the Piedmont. Once underway, Mr. Bristow shared his love and knowledge of the Bible. To underscore his teaching, he earned a Southern Baptist Master Diploma—over 300 hours—pertaining to the development of Sunday School work.

Mr. Bristow's Christian life began at home with his wife, Lydia, and their three children. They were Biblical tithers. As a family they studied the Bible together before bedtime. They supported and attended church and associational events.

He kept up an endless correspondence: college students, servicemen, and people who left Southside—preachers, secretaries, newly ordained—giving them Christian love and hope. He did his "talking" and "visitation" through letters and cards, bearing his thoughts in almost audible words.

He was an "endless" Christian: Those he touched continue even now to emulate his calling.

LEWIS E. LUDLUM

1908-1988

I do not find it easy to write a proper tribute for my friend, Lewis Ludlum. There were so many facets to his creative life. Then, too, I had such a good time on our journey together that I never bothered trying to figure out what made him run.

First of all, he was a man for whom family was very important. He never got far away from his family roots in eastern North Carolina. His younger sister, Cathy, said that even as they were growing up she thought of him as a "special person" who was always interested in others, especially children.

He and Charlotte have two fine children of their own, Douglas and Rebecca. Douglas is organist and music director at St. Matthews Lutheran Church in Charleston, South Carolina. Rebecca, a Junior High teacher, is married to John Speas. They and their three children live in New Hampshire.

Educationally, he stayed with it until he had a good academic background for the ministry. He always remained a reader and a thinker. He was a good listener, so he learned from everyone he knew. He could laugh at you and some of your ideas without a bit of maliciousness. He told me I was the only man he knew that could "make poverty seem almost attractive." He knew I was not defending poverty but trying to help people appreciate those who were poor. He spent a lot of time working with the poor himself.

On the level of his life's work, we will remember him best for his long service as Director of Missions with the Pilot Mountain Association. We have honored him and ourselves by naming the new associational office building the Lewis E. Ludlum Resource Center. He has been a real denominational servant. He has helped our churches—both old and new—to be better. He has been a good friend to ministers and lay people alike. He has unselfishly served others as he has served his Lord.

I asked Rev. Ginny Britt, who worked with him for some time in the associational office, what she considered one of his best characteristics. Her reply was, "I think the thing that stands out in my mind about Lewis Ludlum was his willingness to take risks—not just new and innovative and perhaps dangerous (for him) programs—but with people. In a real way he introduced me to ministry to people. I think it is amazing in retrospect that he was willing to take such a chance with me. He never missed an opportunity to encourage me in my ministry. He simply never forgot I needed him in the beginning, and all the way through. I shall miss him greatly."

I am sure this will speak for scores of young men and women with whom he has worked over the years.

Lewis seemed to know intuitively the importance of relationships. He was one of those who "think of success in terms of friendship and empathy, not money or status." He worked on interracial cooperation long before it was popular to do so. He was at home with young and old, rich and poor. I am astonished at the many strands of his relatedness. He had a rich capacity for enjoying little things and he laughed a lot at life's funny ways.

He was an avid gardener—not always too neat about it—but loving to share with friends, Crisis Ministry, a refugee family. He had a great respect for the produce of God's good earth.

He was a loyal member of Winston-Salem First Baptist Church, always ready with words of encouragement for his pastor and fellow members. He had good words of advice and admonition also.

After he retired, I was never surprised to see Lewis anywhere. He served on various boards, but he gave attention to a lot of other things, offering advice and encouragement. As Charlotte said to me, "He was present wherever people were working with those who were hurting."

It is given to few men to live such a useful life. In the words of a well-known poem, "He looked for the best in others and gave the best he had."

As Paul said to the Philippians, we will "thank God upon every remembrance" of Lewis Ludlum.

LOIS R. WHITAKER

As an active member of the Girl's Auxiliary at Ardmore Baptist Church, my first memory of Lois Whitaker is when we had such Associational GA events as "slumber parties." She was always demure, always encouraging, and always loving to those of us who participated.

Our paths crossed years later when I married into First Baptist Church, where Lois was a member along with her family. Once again, she emerges during these years in my memories as a faithful church-person, a dedicated, hardworking member of the Woman's Missionary Union, and a support to me in my work at Crisis Control Ministry.

In 1986, Lois and her husband, Henry, came to work as volunteers at Crisis Control. Immediately Lois' spirit of love won her the admiration and respect of other volunteers and staff. No task was too small, nor too great for her to undertake. She was unafraid of the unknown, and agreed to train for the new position as "clerk" when the Ministry opened a pharmacy in March 1987. Her patience was saintly! As we struggled with forms and with clients, Lois never complained or criticized. She simply ministered as she served in her quiet, sensitive way.

Were I given just one phrase to summarize this great Christian woman, I would say she saw a great deal of her ministry as one of encouragement. I never received complaints but only constructive suggestions and praise. As I watched her, I wanted to be more like her—kind, loving and patient.

It is perhaps the greatest test of a person to ask if their life made any difference. In the case of Lois Whitaker, I can truly say I, and many others, are different and better people because she shared herself with us and our paths crossed. I might wish that I could attain the faith which radiated from her, and live as she obviously did, with that Peace that comes only from knowing the Father intimately.

We miss her.

Crisis Control Ministry

Proceedings

1988 Spring Session

of the

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH
Winston-Salem, North Carolina
APRIL 24, 1988

1. Pilot Mountain Baptist Association's Spring Meeting, held at Calvary Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, began with displays and fellowship at 5:30 P.M. Sunday, April 24, 1988.

2. At 6:30 P.M. Phil Mitchell, music director, led in the singing of "To God Be the Glory" as the call to worship. Neil Maxey, assistant music director, was pianist for the meeting and Bryan Kirby, Ardmore, was organist. Evangelism Council Director Jim Baldwin gave the invocation.

3. Wilson Harmon, moderator, called the session to order at 6:30. Peggy Hall, clerk, moved that messengers already registered and those to be registered be seated. Eddie Brackett, King First, seconded the motion and it carried. (There were a total of 835 people present from 42 churches; 107 of these registered as messengers.) Charles Hutchens, Order of Busines Committee chairman, expressed appreciation for the committee's hard work and moved for the approval of the tentative program as printed. Charlie Martin, Cornerstone, seconded and the motion carried.

4. Gary Chapman, associate pastor, gave the welcome from the host church. Calvary's 95-voice Junior and Senior High choirs presented special music, "Isn't It Amazing." Larry McFadden directed and Mrs. McFadden was pianist.

5. Mike Willard, pastor of Griffith, gave a personal testimony on "What personal growth and development have meant to me and the congregation I serve." He expressed appreciation for faithful Christian parents and leaders of Waughtown Baptist Church, where he attended while growing up and where he accepted Christ in 1959. His faith was tested while attending college but the church he attended at this time (Calvary) answered many of his questions. It was during this time God began calling him to full-time ministry. During his last three years of college, Southside offered him the opportunity to test his wings of faith as youth director. Out of 20 young people in that group, six went on to full-time Christian service. At seminary Mike served the Long Run Baptist Church in Vive, Indiana. While there he continued to grow as he discovered the message of sanctification in his life and ministry. Mike thanked God for the privilege of now serving the congregation at Griffith. His present challenge in personal growth and development is becoming a deep person and leading his congregation to deep commitment. He shared two areas in his life in which he is tested every week: Decisions or Disciples and Programs or People. Attending MasterLife training at Caraway was the "best revival he ever had in his life." Jesus keeps teaching him that there are no short cuts in ministry and no substitute for spending time at the feet of Jesus.

6. Harry Harkey, Winston-Salem First, made an announcement as representative of ACTS (American Christian Television System) of Forsyth. On April 22 at Southwestern Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas, the annual awards were announced by the Radio and Television Commission at a gathering of all ACTS affiliates. Our local ACTS network received the following awards:

a. Best special: "McAdoo: A Basketball Odyssey" by David Soloman
b. Best musical program: "The Light Brigade" by Becks' young people under the direction of Ben Vogler
c. "The Light Brigade" was awarded the best program of the year out of 350 affiliates submitting programs.

Mr. Harkey said those involved are excited about what God is doing through ACTS, another powerful tool God has put in the hands of churches to make His name known.

7. Moderator Wilson Harmon announced for Eddie Brackett, Church Training director, the availability of free materials in the lobby and urged those attending to pick these up for their congregations.

8. Jimmy Underwood, Nominating Committee member, called attention to the Nominee Recommendation Sheets available and told how this helps the committee in their assigned task. He referred to the blue sheet in the Book of Reports listing the names of all nominees for officers, institution representatives, Council directors and committee chairpersons to serve beginning October 26, 1988. He asked that the name of Charles Stevens, Kernersville First, be added as chairman of the Order of Business Committee. Mr. Underwood moved that these leaders be elected. Troy Hamrick, Ardmore, seconded the motion. The motion carried.

9. Eugene Sherrill, chairman of the Constitution Committee, referred those present to the proposed Constitution and Bylaws changes in the Book of Reports. He moved that these be accepted as printed. Charles Edwards, College Park, seconded the motion. The moderator explained that these recommendations had gone through all the proper procedures of distribution, presentation and discussion. The motion was approved.

10. Ed Collette, chairman, reported for the Resource Center Construction Committee. On August 12 the association signed a contract with D.J. Redding Construction Company to build the Resource Center. After several delays, one long one caused by the Environmental Protection Agency, final approval was given for a building permit and work began in October. Mr. Collette called attention to the $10,000 contingency fund voted on by the association at a called meeting in July. There is no provision in the original contract for a burglar/fire alarm system. The committee feels this is necessary and have ordered one at a cost of $2,615.80 plus tax. This has been charged to the $10,000 contingency fund. Mr. Collette said we are still having surprises as construction progresses. The Streets Department has advised us we must have a wider entrance into the property. We cannot get an occupancy permit without adding an acceleration and deceleration lanes. This will cost over $3,000 and will come out of the contingency fund. Unless there is a hold up on the sewer line, he hopes there will be no more "surprises." The building should be completed by the end of August.

Mr. Collette has been asked to give a brief report for Don Speight, chairman of the Properties Committee. The Properties Committee is very active. They have purchased a telephone system from Business Communication and wiring for the system has been done. The committee will deal with needs for various pieces of furniture. The first of May they will meet to select colors for inside painting as well as carpet and tile.

11. Jim Saul, representing the Communications Committee, told how the developing of a logo for Pilot Mountain Association has been on the agenda for two years or more. They have brought this task to completion. Mr. Saul showed the new logo in a slide presentation. The logo is supported by the words Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. "People" join hands as they share the gospel of Jesus Christ. In the center is a "knob" with a cross on it to show our central focus is on Christ and the cross. The logo depicts the people of PMBA as they come together for ministry, worship and service. Mr. Saul named those who are serving or have served on the committee to help develop the logo. He expressed the hope that as we use this logo it will grow in meaning and be a witness as it travels to many parts of our world.

12. Phil Mitchell led in the singing of "Great Is Thy Faithfulness." The moderator explained the purpose of the offering. It will go to the Resource Center. D.J. Redding, general contractor for our Resource Center and deacon at First Baptist Church, Rural Hall, led the offertory prayer. Neil Maxey, pianist, played a piano solo for the offertory. (A total of $786.14 was received.)

13. Jim Hamblen, in introducing the speaker, said the Evangelism Council had been praying for this Spring Meeting for many months. He appealed for counselors to move to the front to be available during the invitation. Dr. Avery Willis was a fellow student with Mr. Hamblen at Oklahoma Baptist University. He served as a pastor and missionary to Indonesia. He is the author of MasterLife and presently the Supervisor, Leadership Development Section of the Church Training Department, Baptist Sunday School Board, in Nashville.

14. The Junior and Senior High School Choirs of Calvary sang "There Is No Doubt."

15. Dr. Willis brought the Spring Meeting Message. Taking as his text Matthew 28: 18-20, Dr. Willis pinpointed the magnitude of Bold Mission Thrust. If we reached 3,000 new people a day with the gospel, it would take 5,479 years to reach the projected population of the world (6-8 billion) by 2000 A.D. We must reach one million people every day to get the gospel to everyone by the year 2000. Jesus is, in effect, saying, "I am giving you one more chance, America—I am giving you one more chance, Southern Baptists. If you won't do the job, I have others in other places willing to pay the price to get it done."

Dr. Willis said it is not the reorganization of our Boards, but things like the National Prayer Plan where the membership and not just the leadership gets involved, that will win our world for Christ. Three basic commitments must take place if we are going to see God at work in this country, this association: Commitment to the Lordship of Jesus Christ; Commitment to Discipleship; and Commitment to Partnership.

a. Commitment to the Lordship of Jesus Christ ("All authority is given to me in heaven and on earth"--verse 18):

   The twelve disciples with all their differences had one thing in common—they were obedient to the Lord. They didn't do the logical thing; they did the thing commanded.

b. Commitment to Discipleship: The command in Matthew 28 is to make disciples, not go. Discipleship is the flipside of Lordship. Once the first commitment is made, it leads to the second. Citing a personal experience in witnessing, Dr. Willis said he discovered the Holy Spirit wants to fill us. When He fills us, He will teach us how to make disciples. The job of reaching our world for Christ will not be done the way we are presently trying to do it—not by all the Southern Baptist ordained ministers—not by all of our Southern Baptist missionaries. In this Year of the Laity, it will take everybody. The United States is fifth in the world in number of lost people (170 million). Only China, India, Russia and Indonesia have more lost people than the United States. The only way to fulfill the command to make disciples is by one reaching one, that one reaching another, and keep doubling until the world is reached.

c. Partnership: "Lo, I am with you always." The God who made this whole universe has invited each of us to be a full partner with Him. Over 2½ billion people have never heard the gospel. In this association there are thousands who have never clearly heard how to be saved. Dr. Willis said nine countries in Africa are now using MasterLife. He told of one church which was disbanded by the government and the church building used for a communist orientation center. Eight men who did not want the church to die, went to a Southern Baptist missionary who took them and began to disciple them. These eight then began eight groups of one leader and four disciples. Since the government forbade the gathering of more than five people at any one place, these different discipling groups met in different homes at different times. Nine hundred people are in groups right now. One man has been sentenced to life imprisonment for having a service in his home. Dr. Willis asked the searching question, "What would it take to stop you from making disciples?"

16. An invitation was given for those wanting to trust Christ as Savior, to make a commitment to discipleship, and to go as a witness to the world. The hymn of commitment was "O Master, Let Me Walk With Thee." Gary Chapman led in the dedication prayer.

17. The Spring Session was adjourned at 8:31 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,
Peggy Hall, Clerk

October 25, 1988

THEME: "We. . . One Body in Christ" (Romans 12:5)

AFTERNOON SESSION

1. The 103rd Annual Session of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was held at Oaklawn Baptist Church in Winston-Salem Tuesday, October 25, 1988.

1. Pre-session music was presented by Neil Maxey of Walnut Cove First, pianist, and Ed Locke, Southside, organist.

3. Moderator J. Wilson Harmon convened the session at 3:00 P.M. Phil Mitchell, music director, led in singing "Onward, Christian Soldiers."

4. Mike Gilmore, host pastor, welcomed those attending. Following requests for special prayer on behalf of Billy Moreland, pastor of Peter's Creek, and L.L. McGee, director of Clinical Pastoral Education at Baptist Hospital, who are hospitalized, Mr. Gilmore led in prayer.

5. Peggy Hall, clerk, moved that those already registered and those yet to register be seated as messengers. Ray Hamilton seconded the motion and it was approved. Charles Hutchens, chairman of the Order of Business Committee, moved the adoption of the tentative order of business and worship as printed. Troy Hamrick, Ardmore, seconded the motion and it was approved.

6. Moderator Wilson Harmon recognized special guest Dennis Blackman, director of missions in Piedmont Association. Jim Hamblen, executive director, introduced Freda Satterwhite, religion editor of the Winston-Salem Journal. Mrs. Bertha Sneed, Antioch, was commended for being present for her 53rd consecutive annual meeting.

7. Rich Lowder, Pfafftown, sang "Let Us Praise the Almighty" and "No More Night," accompanied by Neil Maxey.

8. J.L. Wilson, pastor of Ardmore, led in a time of remembrance for all those who have died since last annual session. He read passages from Revelation and Hebrews 11. Dr. Wilson called attention to the following leaders in our association and churches who are now with the Lord: T.W. Harrell, Lewisville, deacon and PMBA representative to the Baptist Retirement Homes; Clyde Bristow, Sr., Southside, associational Sunday School director and deacon and Sunday School director in his church; Lois Whitaker, Winston-Salem First, associational WMU director; Rev. George Hankins, Lewisville; Walter Matthews and John Roy Bullington, deacons at Pilot Mountain First; Walter Pack, deacon at Center Grove; Walter Van Hoy, deacon at Red Bank; and Frankie Lee White, deacon and Sunday School director at Willow Oak. Dr. Wilson expressed gratitude for the contribution these have made to our churches and association and challenged those present to grasp the opportunity to do what the Lord has called us to do. He then led in prayer.

9. Bill Stillerman, president of the NC Baptist Retirement Homes, brought greetings from Roy Smith, general secretary-treasurer, and the Baptist State Convention staff, and from leaders of the agencies and institutions throughout North Carolina. He pledged that our institutions and agencies will remain true to their mission—to represent Jesus Christ in our world and to bring healing and wholeness to a dark world.

10. Phil Mitchell led in singing "Since Jesus Came into my Heart." Moderator Harmon instructed messengers and visitors about registering.

11. David Ward, treasurer, called attention to the eight months' financial report in the Book of Reports. He shared current information concerning the general fund. Mr. Wade made a motion to accept the financial report and Paul Williams, Westview, seconded. The motion was approved unanimously.

12. J.L. Wilson presented the proposed 1989 budget as printed in the Book of Reports. The proposed budget totals $235,528, with $47,292 in a challenge budget. Dr. Wilson moved that the budget as printed be accepted. Bill Fryar, Macedonia, seconded the motion. There was no discussion. The 1989 budget was approved unanimously.

13. Peggy Neal, vice moderator, on behalf of the Coordinating Council, moved that the 1988-89 calendar as printed in the Book of Reports be adopted. Following a second by Chuck Hutchens, Rural Hall First, the motion was approved unanimously.

14. Calvin Knight, chairman of the Nominating Committee, referred to the proposed slate of officers and leaders printed in the Book of Reports. He asked that Tom Austin, Knollwood, be added to the Cooperative Ministries Council to succeed Gerald Hewitt, who resigned to become director of Seminary Extension. The following names are to be added to the Nominating Committee, 1991 terms: Roger Aycock, Union Grove; Edith Hauser, Union Hill; Herman Kitchen, West Side; and Kathleen Sullivan, Calvary. Mr. Knight moved the adoption of the Nominating Committee report with the additions. Boyce Wilson, Knollwood, seconded the motion. There were no other nominations from the floor. The motion was approved unanimously.

15. Eugene Sherrill, chairman of the Constitution Committee, called attention to the committee's report in the Book of Reports. This report included proposed changes to the Bylaws section and the first addition to the Policies Section relating to finances. Mr. Sherrill moved that the committee's recommendations be accepted. David Coburn, Colfax, seconded the motion. There was no discussion and the motion was approved unanimously.

16. Paul Williams, chairman of the Long-Range Planning Committee, referred to the Five Year Plan distributed to all messengers and to the committee report in the Book of Reports. He moved that the Five Year Plan be accepted as the working program of the association. David Coburn seconded. Following a brief explanation concerning format, the motion was approved unanimously.

17. Phil Mitchell directed the singing of the hymn, "He Lives."

18. Carlton Mitchell, past moderator, reviewed the assignment given officers of the association at the 102nd annual session. The officers, consulting with Camp Retreat committee members, were to study and evaluate Camp Retreat and come back this year with a recommendation. Members of the Administrative Committee were also asked to join in this evaluation. The group met June 20 at Ardmore Baptist Church. They looked at the history of the camp, the cost of insurance coverage, the usage, and how other associations who operate camps feel about theirs. Those present came to the conclusion that the wisest thing for the association to do is to sell the property. Carlton Mitchell made a motion that the association proceed with the sale of the property which is now called Camp Retreat. Georgie Kitchen, West Side, seconded the motion.

In the discussion Amis Daniel, Union Cross, asked whose responsibility it is to decide what to do with money received from the sale or who is responsible for designating someone to decide. Dr. Mitchell responded that the trustees (PMBA officers) would probably be responsible since this group deals with property. Frank D. Williams, South Fork, asked if the appreciation of the property would be greater than any interest earned until the proper group decides what to do with the money. Dr. Mitchell replied that there has been relatively little appreciation of property in Stokes County over the past several years. He also pointed out that as long as the association holds this property, we are liable for any accident that might occur there.

Troy Hamrick, Ardmore, moved that the original motion to sell the Camp Retreat property be amended to include that proceeds from the sale be designated to the Resource Center. Richard Hicks, Edgewood, seconded the motion.

Ronnie Reynolds, New Work Council director, spoke against the amendment. He said our first priority as an association is people. Referring to the "challenge" part of the 1988 budget just adopted, Mr. Reynolds pointed out that there are ministries needing to be done for which funds are not projected next year. He personally would like money received from the sale of Camp Retreat be designated to those items in the challenge budget.

Egbert Davis, Winston-Salem First, agreed that we need more money for people ministries but we also need to get out from under the indebtedness for the Resource Center. He felt we should apply money from a fixed asset to a fixed asset. Paying off the indebtedness would free up other funds to go toward ministries listed in the challenge budget.

Bill Yates, Pfafftown, said it is premature to decide where funds be designated from the sale of the property. The matter should be referred to the Finance Committee for study. This committee would then bring a recommendation to the Executive Board.

Messengers voted on the amendment to designate funds from the sale of Camp Retreat to the Resource Center. The amendment failed. Hilda Warfford, Ardmore, said she felt Camp Retreat had served its purpose and day; its purpose was worthwhile in the past but she is now willing for it to be sold. The original motion to sell Camp Retreat property passed by majority vote.

19. Peggy Conrad, director of the Church and Community Ministries Council, referred messengers to their report in the Book of Reports. Over 1,600 toys given by PMBA church groups and individuals were distributed to needy families at the Baptist Toy Store last year, along with 200 Bibles. Mrs. Conrad told of how touched she was by this ministry and how much dignity there is in allowing parents to choose toys for their own children. The council is expecting 25 percent more applicants this year. In addition to toys, volunteers are needed to serve as receptionists, store clerks, and counselors. Mrs. Conrad urged everyone to see the display in Oaklawn's fellowship hall of Third World crafts made by artists from Third World countries.

20. Mitzi Moore said being associational Sunday School director is one of the most exciting things God has given her to do. There are 18 members on the ASSISTeam. She called attention to the report in the Book of Reports, especially concerning the long awaited Sunday School Growth Campaign scheduled for 1989. She encouraged every church to commit to participate. She also encouraged congregations to embrace Challenge 10-90, a campaign to enroll ten million people in Sunday School by 1990. She read Deuteronomy 31:12, this year's Sunday School theme. Mrs. Moore highlighted three of the six tasks assigned to the Sunday School. (1) Reaching people. The goal is a five percent increase in enrollment in every church in the association. (2) Teaching. For three years the associational Sunday School has offered two training schools each year to train teachers and workers. Fifty-three churches have participated. (3) Witnessing.

We need to enroll the unchurched and unsaved in Sunday School classes where they can hear the Bible taught. The module, "Training in Evangelism" is available for use in the local church.

21. Jim Baldwin, chairman of the Evangelism Council, referred to the report in the Book of Reports for activities of the past year. He emphasized our association's partnership with the Pinheiros Association in Sao Paulo, Brazil, and the plans to send two teams to Brazil in the next five years. Mr. Baldwin introduced Dennis Blackman, director of missions in Piedmont Association and former missionary to Sao Paulo.

Mr. Blackman compared Matthew 9:35, which tells of Jesus looking on the multitudes and being moved with compassion, to the multitudes in Sao Paulo. The area our association is responsible for in Brazil is growing at the rate of 60,000 people a year. There are 12 Baptist churches with 1,200 members. Their goal in the next five years is to establish one Baptist church for every 15,000 people, which means 88 additional churches. Mr. Blackman challenged our association to have these churches and people on our hearts and to pray for the churches that God will enable them to multiply.

22. Ray Hamilton, a member of the Evangelism Council, reported on the Here's Hope nationwide simultaneous revivals scheduled for 1990. The suggested dates for our area are in April; the exact dates will be decided later. Mr. Hamilton, on behalf of the Evangelism Council, made the motion that Pilot Mountain Association participate in the Here's Hope simultaneous revivals in 1990. Jim Baldwin seconded the motion. There was no discussion and the motion was approved unanimously.

23. Ed Collette, chairman of the Resource Center Construction Committee, stated the association began this month to realize a project started ten years ago. On July 30, 1987, the association in a called session voted to approve a contract to build the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center at a cost of approximately $435,000 plus extra costs for two items if needed. The extra footing ($11,097) and reinforcing the front wall ($6,300) were needed, bringing the total contract to $452,000. The association also approved a $10,000 contingency fund and work was started in late fall with D.J. Redding Company as the contractor. A burglar/fire alarm system costing $2,747 was added as well as extra paving required by the city to the driveway entrance and costing about $4,000. When action was taken to approve the contract, it was understood that a separate committee would handle furnishings, equipment, and landscaping. A number of problems were encountered with sewer outlet but these were finally resolved. Mr. Collette expressed his pleasure at working with everyone in constructing the Resource Center, particularly with Troy Hamrick and with Herschel Redding and Foreman Tom Green of the D.J. Redding Construction Company.

Jim Hamblen called attention to the auction scheduled October 27 at 5:00 P.M. at the former office site with Bobby Cheek, member of Union Cross, conducting the auction. Dedication of the new building and laying of the cornerstone is scheduled January 15, 1989, with January 22 as bad weather date.

24. Joyce Love, WMU Director, reported that 1988 was a significant year as Woman's Missionary Union celebrated their 100th birthday. She emphasized that the associational WMU Council is trained, ready and willing to help WMUs in the local churches. She announced World Day of Prayer November 7 with meetings at the Resource Center at 10:00 A.M. and 7:00 P.M. The theme is "Perfected in Unity." She urged everyone to see the Centennial Quilt made by ladies in our churches. This quilt is a permanent fixture in the new building. She ended her report by reading Isaiah 48:6, this year's WMU watchword.

25. Bill Yates, chairman of the Personnel Committee, recognized Peggy Hall for 15 years of service in the associational office. He introduced W.R. Grigg, who has known Peggy for many years as pastor, boss, and friend. He read an innovative tribute to her. All those present expressed appreciation for her years of work by standing and applauding. Peggy responded with the joy it had been to her to work with the office staff, associational leaders, and all the congregations. Bill Yates then presented a check to Peggy from the association.

26. Mr. Harmon announced a Media Library Workshop on Saturday, October 28, at Winston-Salem First with Janet Freeman, head librarian at Meredith College, as leader.

27. Jim Hamblen announced that some meal tickets were still available for the fellowship in the Swaim Building upon conclusion of the afternoon session.

28. Ronnie Reynolds, New Work Council director, referred to the council's report in the Book of Reports and to the Five Year Plan. He briefly told of the PROBE last November which revealed the need for 37 new church start sites and 41 mission ministries needs. He encouraged church members to look at ways in which their church can expand the Kingdom of God. On behalf of the New Work Council, Ronnie Reynolds moved that the following form the new priority list for new church-type mission starts in our association:

1. Salem Woods Area
2. Bethania Ridge Area
3. West King Area
4. Old Hollow Road Area
5. Sedge Garden Area
6. Kernersville-West Area
7. Vance Road Area
8. Peter's Creek/Miller Street Area
9. Friedburg Road/Ebert Street Area
10. N. Peace Haven Road Area
11. Stokes County Area
12. Black Community Church Area

David Coburn seconded the motion. In the discussion that followed Joe Coltrane, Lewisville, asked if adopting a priority list for new church starts is a new procedure. Mr. Reynolds replied that this is the first opportunity the council has had to present the priority list to the association in session. The list was presented to the Executive Board in December 1987. The list today is a revision in light of the fact that some work is already in process in several areas listed in December. Following a vote the recommendation to accept the revised priority list was approved.

29. Judi Hamblen, Communications Committee chairperson, reported that the committee had developed a slide presentation in conjunction with Associational Emphasis Week. The presentation is available for congregations to borrow from the Resource Center as an educational tool to promote associational work. Miss Hamblen introduced Jim Saul to show the slide presentation, "Missionary at Heart."

30. Wilson Harmon expressed pride in being a member of Pilot Mountain Association, in being a part of an organization that is "going and doing." Charlie Barnard, associate pastor of Oaklawn, gave meal and other instructions and led in the benediction. The afternoon session adjourned at 5:10.

EVENING SESSION

31. Following an instrumental prelude, "To God Be the Glory," by Neil Maxey, pianist, and Gloria Lawrence, Griffith, organist, Wilson Harmon convened the evening session at 7:00 P.M.

32. Amis Daniel, Union Cross, made a motion that we express appreciation to Oaklawn for being good hosts; that the moderator with the help of the clerk express appreciation to Mr. Glenn Swaim, Winston-Salem First, for the furnishings he donated to the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center; and that we express appreciation to Mr. Bobby Cheek, Union Cross, for conducting the auction October 27. Jimmie Underwood, Quaker Gap, seconded the motion and it was approved unanimously.

33. Phil Mitchell led in singing the hymn, "Serve the Lord with Gladness."

34. Moon Gil Cho, Korean Mission, read Romans 12:5, our theme for this Annual Meeting, and led in prayer in the Korean language.

35. Ben Daniels, pastor of Union, shared "What I Have Seen and Experienced in Pilot Mountain Association." In 1965 he began serving as a Southern Baptist missionary. Exciting activities at that time included dialogue groups, joint Vacation Bible Schools, and congregations worshipping together. The Pilot Mountain Association, Baptist Ministers Conferences, and Rowan Association dealt with problems and sought solutions. In the mid-seventies, he recalled, something strange happened. Each group began to think they were self-sufficient in themselves and interracial dialogue practically ceased. Union Baptist Church joined Pilot Mountain Association several years ago and has enjoyed a special relationship with Union Grove in an exchange of worship services. In three Vacation Bible Schools jointly carried out by Union and the association, over 97 children have given their hearts to the Lord. He said his heart is saddened that Union is the only active black church in this association. He has no solutions to the problems that separate races. For many years he was the only black person serving in a leadership role in the association but now several serve on committees and councils. He believes Christians will make a difference in this world no matter what their color. Mr. Daniels cited his relationships over the years with Dr. W.R. Grigg and Corbin Cooper. All of them worked together to bring North Carolina to realize that, "if we are going to make it, we are going to make it together, not separately."

36. Jim Hamblen read the names of new pastors who have come into our association since last Annual Meeting. Those present were Tom Austin, Knollwood; Robert Blackburn, Temple; and Gary Threatt, Southside. Mr. Hamblen then recognized the following new staff members present: Charles Barnard, Oaklawn; Sally Hicks, PMBA office; Sheree Jones, Griffith; Jimmy Lancaster, Oaklawn; and Sandy Stiles, Main Street. John Thomas, retired missionary who served 51 years in Colombia, SA, was also recognized.

37. Personnel Committee Chairman Bill Yates shared that God had provided him many opportunities in this association to "taste of the Lord and see that He is good." He introduced Paul Wonders, pastor of Becks, who was a member of the Search Committee that recommended Jim Hamblen as director of missions. This is the fifth anniversary of Mr. Hamblen's call to lead our association. Mr. Wonders reviewed the major events and happenings in the association in those five years—the Centennial celebration, formulating the Five Year Plan, restructuring the organization, new councils and fellowship groups organized and functioning, beginning new work starts and mission ministries, and building the Resource Center. Mr. Wonders praised Mr. Hamblen for letting the people in the association do the tasks God and the association have given them. He said Mr. Hamblen has been a wonderful unifying force to us all. He spoke of Mr. Hamblen's knowledge of the work, his vision and optimism, his being first and foremost a people person who loves people, listens to people, learns from people, trains people, grows and develops people, and uses people in God's work. He praised Mr. Hamblen for having enough of a servant attitude to listen to the average person yet also being one who has confidence and ability to deal effectively with national denominational leaders. Mr. Wonders read Philippians 4:8 NIV and said, "Jim, you've given us all a lot to think about these past five years."

Following a standing ovation, Bill Yates presented a gift of money on behalf of the association expressing love and appreciation for Jim Hamblen, his wife, Beverly, and for their daughter, Judi. Mr. Hamblen responded with remembering the call given him five years ago during Annual Meeting at College Park, and the covenant he made at that time with the association. Some of the highlights of the covenant were to walk by faith instructed by God's Word and empowered by His Spirit; to grow and mature as a person; to be open to correction, to be accountable, to remove barriers between us; to risk a loving relationship; to be responsible for successes and failures; to resist the temptation of false modesty and personal pride and to serve as a "servant-leader." He renewed the covenant of hope, of dreaming, of working toward a better future and told of his longing for all our people to... "ask the way to Zion and turn their faces toward it. They will come and bind themselves to the Lord in an everlasting covenant that will not be forgotten." (Jeremiah 50:5 NIV)

38. John Lawrence, chairman of the Credentials Committee, reviewed the work of the committee and moved that the following recommendation be accepted: Following a year of watchcare and after careful deliberation, the Credentials Committee brings to you unanimously and enthusiastically that Cornerstone Baptist Church be admitted to full fellowship with this association. Richard Hicks, Edgewood, seconded the motion and the recommendation was approved unanimously.

The moderator and director of missions extended the right hand of Christian fellowship to the pastor, Charlie Martin; minister of music, Daryl Carter; and oldest member, Thomas R. Sneed on behalf of all those present. Mr. Lawrence led in a prayer of mutual commitment.

39. Members of the Hispanic congregation under the direction of Carlos Cascantes sang the hymn, "For All My Sin," in Spanish.

40. David Coburn, Language Ministries director, shared what the association is doing in the area of language ministries. He expressed gratitude from the two Hispanic congregations for the health kits provided by WMU groups. He asked for prayer support in the search for a pastor by the Korean and Vietnamese congregations. Seventy-five Hispanics attended the special homecoming service at Oak Grove on September 7 and 25 made professions of faith. The congregation at Union Grove is searching for a building in which to meet. Mr. Coburn also shared that the Baptist State Convention is planning a new congregation in the Triad area for deaf people and their families. They will meet in the Main Street Baptist Church, Kernersville, facilities. Mr. Coburn asked for prayer for all these language ministries and their specific current needs.

41. Phil Mitchell led in singing the offertory, "My Faith Has Found a Resting Place." Following a prayer by Richard Hicks, Edgewood, an offering was received for the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center. Special music was played by Gloria Griffin and Neil Maxey, instrumentalists.

42. Charles Stevens, pastor of First Baptist, Kernersville, introduced the keynote speaker, Dr. Charles Allard, a longtime friend and college roommate. Dr. and Mrs. Allard have served as missionaries to Brazil and he presently is pastor of First Baptist, Morehead City. Dr. Allard is on the committee that organized and is promoting the North Carolina/Brazil Partnership Project. He was involved in an automobile accident on the way to Winston-Salem today but was not injured, although the front end of his car was demolished.

43. Oaklawn Church Choir, under the direction of Charles Kennedy, presented special music. They sang "When We All Get to Heaven" and "God and God Alone."

44. Charles Allard read Ephesians 4:11-16 and announced his text: "What in the world is the church supposed to be doing?" He then led in prayer. Highlights of his message included the following:

WHAT IS THE CHURCH?

a. The Body of Christ. As that body we share in some marvelous things—the power of the resurrection and gifts of the Spirit. The church's responsibility is to share the body of Christ with the whole world. In Christ there are no colonels, no lieutenants, no captains. There is one Lord; the rest of us are servants.

b. A life saving station. Mr. Allard cited an example of a small life saving crew on the coast who loved their work of rescuing people in peril. As time passed, some members of the crew grew restless and decided to fix up the station and eventually ended up hiring others to go out so they could enjoy comforts of the renovated station. The life saving crew split into several groups who could not agree on the purpose of a life saving station and, as a result, a series of exclusive clubs developed all along the coast. The church is in danger of becoming too comfortable, of believing people should "get cleaned up" before they can become members, of becoming exclusive clubs. The church is a hospital for sinners, not a museum for saints.

c. The family of God. For many, the church family is the only family they have. A Christian can go into almost any country in the world and find he is welcome and accepted. This is not always true with military personnel and business people.

WHY IS THE CHURCH IN THE WORLD?

a. To build on the foundation laid by Jesus Christ - I Cor. 3:11. Dr. Allard compared this foundation to Stone Mountain in Georgia, which is so vast that it is estimated that if every person who has ever lived went there and took one-fourth a pound of rock away, 98 percent that which is above ground would still be there. To say it is inexhaustible is an understatement. Christ as the foundation of the church is like that.

b. To be ministers of reconciliation - II Cor. 5:18-20. God is the reconciler of men to God and men to men. He has appointed each of us as ministers of reconciliation. Division, anger, suspicions, and hatred are counter-productive to the ministry of reconciliation.

c. To proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ. Those who go to Sao Paulo, Brazil will be thrilled at the opportunity to witness for Christ. They will learn a great deal about evangelism for the Brazilian people. Mr. Allard told of the young people's boldness and courage in personal witnessing in Peru recently. He wondered if we in America have not "missed the boat" by evangelizing the evangelized. The mission of the church is to let those who know tell those who do not know.

d. To equip the saints for service. Every church ought to be a training center.

e. To build up the body of Christ. The church's task is to bring spiritual babes to maturity. The two things Mr. Allard said that keep him continuing in the ministry are God's call upon his life and the joy of seeing people growing in the Lord.

WHO IS THE CHURCH?

Whoever believes is the church; those who do the will of God are the church, not just call Him "Lord, Lord"; people standing up for Jesus Christ are the church.

Dr. Allard closed with an incident in the life of Robert Ingersol ("Madalyn O'Hair of the 1800s"). Mr. Ingersol was a great debator who once went to Harvard, Connecticut, to discredit the life and ministry of Moses and to deny the virgin birth and resurrection of Jesus. After Mr. Ingersol had sought to destroy many biblical truths in the minds of the people, he gave an opportunity for anyone in the audience to refute or debate anything he had said. Not one in that group of preachers, teachers, lawyers, or businessmen, had the courage to stand against the atheist. After a long time, an eight-year old girl grabbed the hand of her little sister, came and stood by Ingersol and began to sing, "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus." One by one others stood with her until finally all those who believed the word of God were standing. Who is the church in the world today? Those who will stand up for Jesus.

Mr. Allard closed with prayer.

45. Phil Mitchell directed in the singing of "One in the Bond of Love." Moderator Peggy Neal and Vice Moderator Gene Sherrill were asked to represent all the newly elected leaders in a time of dedication and commitment. This closing prayer was led by Mary Berridge, pastor of Bethania.

46. The 103rd annual session was adjourned at 9:00 P.M. Three hundred thirty-nine people from 63 churches registered (246 messengers, officers and leaders; and 93 visitors).

Respectfully submitted,
Peggy Hall, Clerk

Chaplaincy Ministries Council

The Chaplaincy Council met four times in the last year. Two significant programs were instituted during this period of time. First, we were able to set up a model chaplaincy program at the Living Center West Nursing Home in Kernersville. Steve Pegram, pastor of Goodwill Baptist Church, with the excellent help of the superintendent and staff, is conducting this ministry.

Also, with the financial assistance of the Baptist State Convention we were able to have a summer worker for 10 weeks. Her name is Lora Moseley. She has worked with three nursing homes and two or three churches nearest these homes recruiting and setting up a team of lay visitors for each of the three homes. A training session for these volunteers was held in September.

Christian Life Council

The Christian Life Council supported two workshops this past year. (1) Covenant Marriage with Al and Florence Carpenter as leaders. Two associations participated and 15 people attended this workshop at Knollwood January 23, 1988. (2) The Singles Ministry got a big boost with a potato bar supper and three specialized conferences at Ardmore October 1, 1987. This event provided fun and fellowship as well as learning.

Videos and brochures on different subjects relating to moral issues are still available at the associational office. Individuals are invited to go by the Resource Center and browse through the materials to see what would be helpful to them or to their church.

During 1989 the Council is planning emphases in large and small churches on how to start support groups for families of AIDS victims and for step parents.

If you have a particular subject or concern about ethics on which you would like more information, please contact any member of the Christian Life Council. We stand ready to help you!

Church and Community Ministries Council

The main objective of the Church and Community Ministries Council is to share needs and ministry opportunities with the churches in the Pilot Mountain Association so that they can know the joy of helping others. Listed below are some of the ministries we were involved in this year.

BAPTIST TOY STORE: This ministry provided toys for needy families in our association at Christmas. It was coordinated with the Department of Social Services. Crisis Control and King Outreach Ministry. In addition to providing toys, a Christian witness was shared by a counselor with each family after shopping. YOU provided 1,600 toys which were given out to 347 children representing 97 families. Some families asked that their names be given to a local church in their neighborhood for follow-up. Thanks to the 45 volunteers who made this possible.

THIRD WORLD CRAFTS: This ministry is a non-profit marketing program which sells handmade items made by needy people in developing nations. Six of our churches participated in this ministry by conducting a craft sale in their church. The Council is presently looking for a location within our association to sell the Self-Help crafts.

LITERACY: The Forsyth Literacy Council organized this past year and began a fellowship for trained tutors.

ADULT MENTALLY HANDICAPPED RETREAT: This one day retreat was the fourth one sponsored by our association. It was held at Becks Baptist Church gym. There were 57 present. Activities included recreation, crafts, lunch, a talent show and lots of hugs.

BACKYARD BIBLE CLUBS: Our summer missionary was James Garrison. We conducted 11 clubs with 11 sponsoring churches. Fifteen children made professions of faith during the summer.

TANGLEWOOD MINISTRY: Worship services were conducted during the summer months. Eight churches participated in mission outreach projects on Saturday nights, providing musical programs, other entertainment, and refreshments.

SENIOR ADULT LUNCHEON: We held our first annual luncheon at Knollwood Baptist Church in May with over 200 attending. The musical, "Sugar Sticks for Senior Saints," was presented by four of our churchs. A Senior Adult Council is presently being organized as a result of this event.

Church Training Council

The Church Training Council worked in conjunction with the Sunday School Council this year in providing instruction at the March 14-15 meeting at Calvary Baptist Church. The module entitled "Training Sunday Workers in Evangelism" was taught.

The associational Spring Meeting, held at Calvary Baptist Church on Sunday evening, April 24, featured Dr. Avery Willis, heart and soul of MasterLife. A display of all Church Training materials including LIFE courses were also available. Mike Willard, pastor of Griffith Baptist Church and a member of the Church Training Council, shared his testimony about the value of training in his Christian pilgrimage.

Old Town Baptist Church hosted the Children's Bible Drill on Saturday, May 7. Children from Old Town, Becks, and Germanton participated.

The Church Training Department of the Southern Baptist Convention in conjunction with the Church Training Department of the Baptist State Convention and the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association held a MasterLife Workshop at First Baptist Church in King on September 8-10 and September 15-17.

Cooperative Ministries Council

The Cooperative Ministries Council seeks to encourage interracial relationships between persons in the Pilot Mountain Association and the Rowan Baptist Association.

Our goals are to encourage one on one relationships between pastors and churches of the two associations, to host joint fellowship and worship experiences and to heighten mutual awareness of issues and needs among the representative groups.

In the past year the Pilot Mountain Ministers Conference hosted members of the Baptist Ministers Conference. Members of the Council were guests at the Martin Luther King, Jr. service sponsored by the Ministers' Conference of Winston-Salem and Vicinity in which Executive Director James V. Hamblen participated. Several luncheon meetings were held with leadership in the Rowan Association to discuss mutual interests.

We continue our ministry with the conviction that in Christ all are one and He has called us to a ministry of reconciliation.

Evangelism Council

The Constitution and Bylaws of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association state the purpose of the Evangelism Council in these words: The primary function is to lead the association to emphasize evangelism.

Working toward that end, the Evangelism Council has been very active during this past year.

PROMOTION - The Evangelism Council helped promote local, state, and national events focusing on evangelism. These included Witness Commitment Day in January, the statewide Evangelism Conference in February, and the Regional Evangelism Conference held in October. We also were deeply involved in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association Annual Spring Meeting, and hosted Avery Willis as the guest speaker.

PREPARATION for the Year of the Laity - In preparation for this nationwide emphasis, the Evangelism Council sponsored a Spiritual Preparation Retreat for all church leaders and staff. Meeting at Caraway in March, this retreat helped interpret what lay renewal could mean to the local church. A Lay Evangelism School training event for pastors was held in August to further prepare churches for lay witness emphasis.

PROJECTS - Three special projects proved to be very helpful and exciting for the Evangelism Council this year. We became involved in the NC/Brazil Partnership and sent a representative to Sao Paulo to begin planning for teams from our association to work in this area. The first teams will be going to Sao Paulo July 6-17, 1989. In May we helped coordinate a Practicum in Urban Evangelism here in Winston-Salem. Dr. Delos Miles and 24 students from Southeastern Seminary spent a week in Winston-Salem studying evangelism through local church and social ministry agencies. Throughout the year the Evangelism Council has been studying books on evangelism. These books were recommended by Dr. Delos Miles and were funded by the Home Mission Board. They will remain in the Resource Center for use by churches and individuals.

We anticipate the Year of the Laity being a great year of mobilizing laypersons through Lay Renewal Journeys and Lay Evangelism Schools. Lay people actively involved in witness and ministry will set the stage for a great harvest during the simultaneous revivals, April 1-8, 1990—Here's Hope, Jesus Cares for You.

Let's pray and work that people will come to know Jesus.

Language Ministries Council

Your Language Ministries Council, completing its first year of existence, inherited a well-laid foundation from the New Work Council. We began with a core of committed individuals representing ministries among three language groups. Remembering that all Americans are either immigrants or the descendants of immigrants, our objective has been to facilitate the spreading of the Good News among those people—in our area—whose primary language is not English.

We have assisted the language congregations financially; in fact, PMBA funds its ethnic work better than any other association in North Carolina. We have provided counsel for both the Korean and Vietnamese congregations as each has searched for pastoral leadership. We are initiating new work among migrant Hispanics while endeavoring to assist the Hispanic congregation meeting at Union Grove (largely permanent residents) in its search for a larger meeting place. We provided speakers for at least six congregations on and around Language Missions Day, August 14.

We ask for your continued support—with prayers and with dollars—as we continue to define and fulfill our role in the total ministry of the churches who are PMBA.

Media Library

The Media Library Council sponsored a workshop at Ardmore on January 16, 1988, with 22 persons present. Two people from our association attended the state TACMO meeting at Caraway April 22-23 and three people participated in Media Library Week at Ridgecrest June 25-July 1.

We are planning a Media Library Workshop Saturday, October 29. Miss Janet Freeman, head librarian at Meredith College, will teach the book, How to Classify and Catalog Media. This course will qualify for diploma credit. An alternate class designed especially for new Media Library staff will cover the basics of How to Administer a Media Library and How to Process Media.

Music Ministers Fellowship

The Music Council has met regularly and planned a variety of training and participating events for churches in the PMBA. Last Christmas the children (grades 3-6) sang in the Christmas season by presenting "God Touched the Earth" at Brendle Recital Hall on the Wake Forest campus. This December 5 presentation was sung by over 100 children from a dozen churches in our association.

February 20 was the date for our Accompanists Workshop at Pfafftown Baptist Church. This event was led by Mr. Larry Keesler, minister of music at First Baptist Church, Mt. Airy. Many participants commented on how helpful this day was.

A Part-time/Volunteer Music Directors Workshop was held at First Baptist Church of Rural Hall March 12. Jim Reich was the leader for this conference and led a most resourceful and interesting day. Judy Ritchie and the membership of Rural Hall Church were marvelous hosts.

New Work Council

In November 1987 with the cooperation and assistance of the Home Mission Board and the Church Extension Department of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, an associational-wide PROBE survey was conducted (REACH PEOPLE, GOAL 2, Action 1). The total association was divided into 10 zones with a team of consultants and local church pastors and leaders. Fifty-nine people participated. From the survey, 39 areas were identified as potential new church-type mission start areas, and 41 location or opportunities for extended or expanded ministries from existing local churches were also identified. From the list of 39 new church-type mission areas, 12 were classified as first priority. These were: 1) Hispanic Mission (Union Grove Baptist Church sponsorship); 2) Westinghouse Area (Becks Baptist Church sponsorship); 3) Kerner Road Community Fellowship (six churches form a Task Force of sponsorship); 4) Peace Haven Road/Lewisville-Clemmons Road Area; 5) Salem Woods-Jonestown Road; 6) Bethania Ridge Area; 7) West King Area; 8) Clemmons-West Area; 9) Old Hollow Road Area; 10) Sedge Garden Area; 11) Kernersville-West; 12) Vance Road Area.

The results for this year:

1. Hispanic Mission - Organized and functioning; responsibility passed to the Language Ministries Council.
2. Westinghouse Area - Becks Baptist Church in June 1988 started a mission, meeting in the elementary school at Rural Hall. Average attendance is about 60 per Sunday.
3. Kerner Road Community Fellowship - In January 1988 a Task Force of six area churches (Colfax, Edgewood, Kernersville First, Goodwill, Main Street and Union Grove) was organized to coordinate the new mission start. Two PRAXIS teams, sponsored in partnership with PMBA, the BSC of NC, and the Home Mission Board, were used in survey work, Backyard Bible Clubs, home Bible study, etc. Currently, there is an ongoing home Bible study which is averaging 12 persons per meeting in the area. (PRAXIS Teams: Reach People, Goal 2; Action 4).
4. Peace Haven Road/Lewisville-Clemmons Road and the Clemmons West areas were combined as the West Forsyth Mission. A Partnership Church Start venture was initiated with the Church Extension Department, BSC/NC, the PMBA, and the First Baptist Church of Winston-Salem. The first service was held September 18, 1988, at the Southwest Elementary School on Lewisville-Clemmons Road with 183 people present. (Reach People, Goal 2; Action 5 & 6).

The New Work Council recommends that the following form the new priority list for new church-type mission starts:

1. Salem Woods Area
2. Bethania Ridge Area
3. West King Area
4. Old Hollow Road Area
5. Sedge Garden Area
6. Kernersville-West Area
7. Vance Road Area
8. Peter's Creek/Miller Street Area
9. Friedburg Road/Ebert Street Area
10. N. Peace Haven Road Area
11. Stokes County Area
12. Black Community Church Area

(Reach People, Goal 2; Actions 7-8-9)

The New Work Council has recommended to the Missions Development Council that it be responsible for distributing information concerning the 41 ministry opportunities to the churches and promoting their implementation. We also recommended that the Missions Development Council develop resources for churches seeking assistance, guidance, etc. with church growth projects.

A Values and Lifestyles Conference was held at Edgewood Baptist Church in February 1988 with over 30 local church pastors and leaders attending. The Conference was jointly funded by the PMBA and the Church Extension Department, BSC/NC. The Conference was led by Rev. Joe Jones. (Reach People, Goal 2; Action 15).

Action 3 related to the Mission Strategist/Church Growth Specialist has not been completed due to lack of funds.

Action 14 related to Supervised Ministry with students of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary could not be completed due to lack of funds.

Our 1988 year has been active, full and exciting. We appreciate the support and cooperation of the churches in moving ahead with the Great Commission of Christ in our association. We urge you to pray for and assist us as we try to lead you in this vital area of ministry.

Single Adult Ministries Council

The vision for ministry with single adults in our association began almost two years ago. The Christian Life Council helped to put legs on this dream by sponsoring a workshop in October of 1987. Out of that workshop a group of concerned leaders met to discuss ways our association could better minister in this area. The forming of a council to plan and facilitate the ministry was the consensus and those interested in serving met together on April 26, 1988.

This council has been involved in planning activities for leaders and single adults. Our main goal is to have a training event for persons who minister with single adults in the fall of each year and a fellowship event for all singles (and leaders) in the spring. The council also coordinated a trip to the Single Challenge Convention, May 27-30, in Nashville. Eight single adults representing five churches attended.

Each of us on the council has a strong commitment to ministry with single adults. We cannot ignore the fact that 67 million adults in America are single. As Southern Baptists we should be bold and reach out to include all people in the family of God.

Stewardship Council

Because of the critical need for increased participation on the part of congregations to give to missions through the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, the Stewardship Council has been primarily concerned with encouraging leaders to spread the word of this need to their congregations. The Five-Year Plan first adopted in 1986 set as our goal all congregations giving at least three percent to missions through the PMBA by 12/31/87, and increasing by increments of one-half percent a year to five percent by 12/31/91. The councils and committees of the association planned their work with this amount of financial participation in mind. The work has proceeded, but the money has not come. A financial crisis is the result of these increases in ministry without corresponding increases in missions giving.

We have but two choices - go forward or go backward. To stay where we are is fiscally impossible. We can go back to where we were, or forward to where we should be—a people on mission - together.

Sunday School

"Touch Lives - Change People" has been the Challenge 10/90 goal for this past year. This challenge is at the very heart of what Challenge 10/90 is all about. More than 100,000,000 people in our country do not study God's Word on a regular basis. If God's Word is to change people, then each of us must touch the lives of people in such a way that they may come closer to Him. It is inspiring to know that through our teaching, training, and ministry to Sunday School leaders and teachers in our association, we are a vital part of touching lives and changing people through the Sunday School!

Our Sunday School Council and ASSISTeam have a strong team spirit, bonded together to train ourselves in every way to serve our churches to the very best of our abilities. We have added five new members to our Team and now have a total of 18 ASSISTeam members. Of this group, four are general officers and 14 are age-group consultants who can divide into four age-group teams. We are very pleased to have received the Standard of Excellence again for the third year!

We have held two Associational Sunday School Training Schools this past year. We have registered over 400 study course credit requests with people enrolled in the Diploma Plan from 49 churches. We have also trained 154 workers in our two Vacation Bible School training clinics. It has been our privilege to visit and speak to churches as they have requested. We are available to assist and consult with churches on their individual needs upon request. The high point of our year was serving as host to the State Growth Spiral Conference on March 24 led by Andy Anderson, national growth specialist, and his team from the Sunday School Board. A large group attended and were greatly challenged to schedule, plan, and set goals for growth.

For over three years we have eagerly anticipated the fulfillment of our goal to hold a Sunday School Growth Campaign in our association on October 7-13, 1989. We have been busy the entire year planning all the details and beginning the promotion of this event. On January 10, 1989, we will host a Growth Campaign Presentation Banquet at which time churches will make their commitment to participate. It is our deep prayer and dream that many churches will make a commitment to participate in this tremendous potential for growth.

We thank God with all our hearts for the glorious opportunity to serve each church in our association. May we join together with great enthusiasm for Sunday School growth that we might "Touch Lives - Change People!"

Woman's Missionary Union

This was a significant year in the history of Woman's Missionary Union with a year long celebration and many sweet memories to cherish. They said it wouldn't last. It has led and continues to lead women, girls and preschoolers in quality missions education and involvement through their church, association, and state.

Leadership Conference was August 31, 1987, with 185 leaders attending from 36 churches.

Through the leadership of our Centennial Chairman, Lois Whitaker, we started our year with a Centennial Prayer Retreat on October 9, 1987, at Griffith with 125 attending. A teaching institute was held at South Fork for Baptist Women, Acteens, and GA leaders for helps on teaching the History of WMU.

The highlight of the Annual Meeting held at Knollwood on April 11, 1988, was the Centennial Quilt presentation to the association. This beautiful quilt will be hung in the new Resource Center in memory of Lois Whitaker. Nancy Hope Willis was guest speaker to the 156 attending from 32 churches. Quilts and other Centennial displays were brought from the various churches. Seven churches were recognized for Distinguished and three for Standard on Achievement Guide Recognitions.

Mission Action and Personal Witnessing Director, Beverly Hamblen, reported that the WMU collected from the churches more than 400 mini-health kits, given to the Forsyth and Stokes Prison Units, Friendship House, Hawley House, Battered Women and Crisis Control. Included in the kits were scripture portions and the name of the association.

Baptist Women and Baptist Young Women World Day of Prayer in November was held in three churches with 200 attending.

Baptist Women Fellowship, "Wherever He Leads I'll Go," featured three speakers with 285 attending on March 22, 1988, at Winston-Salem First. Members of the Baptist Women Council are Judy Foster, ENan Baldwin, Georgie Kitchen, Vicki Ward and Bet Matthews.

Baptist Young Women Director, Ellen Tabor, challenged these young women to form partnerships with other churches. Beverly Hamblen spoke to this group at Kernersville First on their mission involvement.

A bus trip to Richmond, Virginia, for the Centennial Celebration was organized by Thelma Ragsdale, Enlistment/Enlargement Director, with 46 passengers.

GAs had their celebration as part of WMU on May 14 at Kernersville First with 86 girls attending and hearing missionary Ted York. Charlene McDaniel, GA director, planned a night to honor the girls for their hard work during the year. This was held at Ardmore in August.

Frances McDaniel, Acteens director, reports two excellent meetings planned during the year: "Through the Looking Glass" event on April 21, 1988, at Griffith with 35 attending and "Finding My Role in Missions" event on August 16, 1988, at Rural Hall First.

Missions Friends Director, Tha Park, and assistant, Sue Miller, had two conferences for leaders—"Be Part of the Vision" held at Bethania and Walnut Cove.

WMU had a "Century to Celebrate" and we have "A Future to Fulfill." Missions is the heart of Woman's Missionary Union. Your WMU Council has contacted every church in this association and in the future would dream of every church having a WMU.

Youth Ministries Council

In 1988 the Youth Ministries Council continued its effort to assist local congregations in performing youth ministry. Hopefully, the churches in our association are beginning to see us as a resource, offering encouragement always and assistance when it is at all possible. We hope the churches of the PMBA will feel free to contact any of the members of this council with questions and concerns pertaining to youth ministry.

This past year we once again sponsored our associational Youth Workers Clinic on February 29 and March 1. We feel the effort was a success with a number of churches participating.

In April we purchased the video, "How to Get Along with Your Parents." We have been pleased with the response to this video thus far. Hopefully, others will take advantage of this resource as well.

Two members were added to the Council during the year. Hal Hiatt from King First and Steve Foster from College Park are our new additions. We appreciate the knowledge and expertise they bring to our council.

Be in prayer for us as we seek to meet the youth needs of our congregations in 1989.

To the Audit Committee
Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.
Winston-Salem, North Carolina

Gentlemen:

We have examined the statement of assets and liabilities - modified cash basis of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc., (a non-profit corporation) as of December 31, 1987, and the related statements of revenues, expenses, and fund balances - modified cash basis for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in Note 1, to the financial statements, the Association's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements; consequently, certain revenues and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to in the first paragraph present fairly the assets and liabilities of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc. as of December 31, 1987, and its revenues, expenses, and fund balances for the year then ended on the basis of accounting described in Note 1, which basis has been applied in a manner consistent with that of the preceding year.

Our examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The accompanying detailed schedules of church revenues and expenses are presented for the purpose of additional analysis and are not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic statements taken as a whole.

Respectively submitted,
Gray, Callison & Co., P.A.

Notes to Financial Statements

PILOT MOUNTAIN BAPTIST ASSOCIATION, INC.
December 31, 1987

1. Significant Accounting Policies:
   a. The accompanying statements have been prepared using the modified cash basis method of accounting. Under the modified cash basis method, certain revenues and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Certain "In-Kind" transactions are recorded at their estimated current values. The cash method has been modified primarily by recording fixed assets, depreciation, and the related sales of these assets.
   b. Furniture and equipment have been recorded using management's estimates of values at January 1, 1986, for assets previously acquired, but not recorded. Donated land and building values have been recorded based upon property tax values at January 1, 1986. Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.
8005 North Point Boulevard
Winston-Salem, North Carolina 27106

Gentlemen:

We have examined the financial statements of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc. for the year ended December 31, 1987, and have issued our report thereon dated May 27, 1988. As part of our examination we made a study and evaluation of the company's system of internal accounting control to the extent we considered necessary solely to determine the nature, timing, and extent of our auditing procedures. Our study and evaluation was more limited than would be necessary to express an opinion on the system of internal accounting control taken as a whole, and we do not express such an opinion.

However, during our examination we became aware of several matters that, while not involving material weaknesses in internal accounting control, are opportunities for strengthening internal controls and operating efficiency. The memorandum that accompanies this letter summarizes our comments and suggestions regarding those matters. This letter does not affect our report dated May 27, 1988, on the financial statements of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.

We will review the status of these comments during our next audit engagement. We have already discussed many of these comments and suggestions with various association personnel, and we will be pleased to discuss them in further detail at your convenience, to perform any additional study of these matters, or to assist you in implementing the recommendations.

Very truly yours,
GRAY, CALLISON & CO., P.A.
Timothy L. Jefferies

Management Letter Memorandum

1. Restricted Funds.

   During the audit, we noted that restricted funds were not reconciled during the year.

   We recommend that the restricted fund be reconciled to the checking account each month and be incorporated into the monthly financial reports.
2. General Journal Entries:

   We noted that general journal entries were not approved by management.

   We recommend that Mike or Jim approve all journal entries by initialing each journal entry page. This will strengthen internal controls in your EDP system.
3. Classification Errors:

   Due to errors during 1987, funds designated by churches for the Resource Center were incorrectly recorded and deposited into the General Fund. These errors amounted to $1,087.82, which needs to be transferred to the Resource Center Fund from the General Fund.

   We recommend that closer investigation be made on all receipts to ensure proper classification.
4. Interest on Restricted Fund.

   We noted that interest on restricted funds had not been designated for a selected sub-fund. The finance committee subsequently advised us that interest should be classified under missions development.

   Generally interest on restricted fund is not required to remain in the restricted fund and we recommend that the minutes of the Association reflect the decision of the finance committee.
5. Travel Allowance.

   As we recommended last year, the Association reimbursed travel at the federal rate for mileage incurred by the association ministers. However, the travel allowance unused at December 31, 1987, was then paid as additional compensation.

   We recommend that in the future, the salary packages of the ministers exclude the travel allowance, and travel expense should reflect only travel reimbursement.

Communications Committee

The Communications Committee of 1987-1988 achieved two of our goals for the year:

1. Approval of an association logo
2. Developing an association slide presentation.

We hired an artist to design a logo which represents the goals and ideals of PMBA... of Christians who make up the community of 78 Southern Baptist congregations. In the center of the logo, as in the heart of the association, is the cross. This is our symbol as believers, that we will continue serving Jesus Christ through gifts of time and financial resources.

To promote the stewardship needs of our association, our second project was writing and developing a slide show in conjunction with Associational Emphasis Week using the theme, "Missionary at Heart." This slide presentation can be further used to help educate church members on associational programs.

Our goals for the coming year include:

- * Developing written materials (brochures) to explain what membership in the association does for the individual congregations
- * Planning the communications for the dedication ceremony for the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center.
- * Redesigning the PMBA newsletter to enhance communication with each member of the association.
- * Redesigning a more standardized way to collect reports for the Book of Reports.

Credentials Committee

During the past associational year the Credentials Committee has met on three occasions to give close consideration to the credentials of Cornerstone Baptist Church to become a full, participating part of the Pilot Mountain Association. Following a year of watchcare and after careful deliberation, the Credentials Committee recommends unanimously that Cornerstone Baptist Church be admitted into full fellowship with this association.

Long-Range Planning Committee

I thank the members of the Long-Range Planning Committee for their faithfulness in the planning process.

The second year on our "spiritual journey" has come and gone. The adoption of the Five-Year Plan in 1986 was a turning point for our association. We are learning every day more of what it is to be good stewards of God's time and resources. I dare say hardly a week goes by that some agency of the association is not involved in carrying out an event that was projected one or two years ago. The funds have been appropriated and resources are being located and moved to the right place of action. Fewer surprises are springing up and we are able to move about in a manner which enhances spiritual growth as well as church growth.

To say we have learned more about ourselves this year would do this experience an injustice. We are constantly learning about ourselves and adjusting to needs when they arise. We are becoming more of a unit and our direction is coming more into focus.

This year we, PMBA along with Knollwood Baptist Church, hosted a regional Church Long-Range Planning Seminar. Many PMBA churches were in attendance. This seminar was co-sponsored by the Baptist State Convention/NC and the Southern Baptist Convention. We hope to continue to bring quality seminars to this region more often in the future.

The annual Planning Retreat was so well attended this year that we were unable to complete all that was planned. We had to turn to another meeting later on to finish our task. This is stated to show that more PMBA agencies are responding to the Five-Year Plan and can see the value of planning. We are making attempts to refine the process of planning. We are in territory that our association has not traveled before. Now, as never before, we must rely on each agency to coordinate its needs not only with the PMBA staff but also with other connected agencies within our association.

Many things can be said about long-range planning; but in PMBA we are dreaming, we are acting, and we are rejoicing. The Kingdom of God is seriously on our minds and hearts and there is no looking back. We have put our hands to the plow, the rows are being laid off, we are planting for the future, and we are looking for a bumper crop!

Thanks to all of my co-workers for planning, acting, and rejoicing. May God give us another prosperous year.

Personnel Committee

The process of staff evaluation continues to play a major role in the functioning and supervision of our associational staff by the Personnel Committee. This process enables each employee to give an account of her/his work as well as to receive feedback from associational leadership as to the quality of that work. In addition to staff evaluations this year, our director of missions, Jim Hamblen, submitted personal goals for his ministry in 1988. These goals were reviewed quarterly, enabling the committee to give affirmation and direction to his ministry.

In March we received the resignation of Sheree Jones as Educational Coordinator. At our next Executive Board meeting during the devotional, a Litany of Affirmation and Appreciation was shared as a rite of passage in Sheree's leaving. Sally Hicks was employed in a new position of Communications Secretary/Receptionist.

Other responsibilities of the Personnel Committee were fulfilled with diligence, love, and expertise. I am indebted to all the committee for their commitment.

In closing, I speak for the Personnel Committee and the entire Pilot Mountain Baptist Association in saying we feel we minister with the finest associational staff in our state.

Fellowship Conferences

Church Secretaries Conference

During the past 12 months the Church Secretaries Conference has served to meet the needs of our secretaries professionally, personally and spiritually. As a group we strive to encourage, assist and support one another.

In March our conference sponsored a Professional Church Secretary Seminar. This seminar challenged us all to give our best to our job and to strive to maintain a real joy in performing it. We are proud of our organizations and we feel that it encourages us to make a positive difference in the life of the church that employs us.

This conference meets bimonthly at 12:00 Noon. The membership is open to secretaries and other office staff members of Baptist churches, agencies and institutions in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and other religious organizations. This includes full-time, part-time and volunteer persons.

The following officers were elected to serve through May 1989:

President	Clara Johnston, Konnoak
Vice President	Marlene Bruno, Calvary
Secretary/Treasurer	Bonnie Kiger, Calvary
Program Committee	Mary Ella Barefoot, Fellowship Sandra Hall, PMBA Office Janie Hooker, Chairman, Forest Hill Joyce Love, West Side
Publicity Committee	Helen Johnson, Pfafftown

Ministers' Mates

The MINISTERS' MATES is made up of ministers' wives and widows. Our purpose is to provide fun and fellowship, as well as spiritual support and inspiration, for our members. Also, when new ministers come to our association, we try to enlist their wives into our fellowship.

During the past year, we have had two breakfast meetings on Saturday mornings, one covered dish dinner, one covered dish luncheon, three morning meetings, and we participated with the Ministers Conference in the Valentine Banquet. This varied schedule is designated to accommodate those who cannot come to morning meetings.

Each of our meetings begins with a short devotional. This year our theme has been "Getting to Know You." Our program committee, consisting of Miriam Mitchell, Sara Stevens and ENan Baldwin, has provided us with "Acquainting Games," as well as other informative programs.

Officers for the 1988-89 year:

President	Etta Stokes, Wake Forest Church
Vice President	Wanda Smith, Knollwood
Secretary/Treasurer/Historian	Johnsie Liner, Knollwood Ruth Lawrence, Ardmore
Devotions	Virginia Cook, Kernersville First

Programs	Martha Carr, Wake Forest Church Carolyn Wonders, Becks
Decorations	Bess Hollingsworth, Wake Forest Church Martha Carr, Wake Forest Church Etta Stokes, Wake Forest Church

Meetings for the coming year will be at varied times and we hope that these times can be fitted into the schedule of all our ministers' mates.

Other Reports

Executive Director

The report of the Executive Director should be more than a summation of my activities during the past year, in my opinion. It should reflect the overall health of our association and it should project the future direction for the coming years.

Five years ago you "called" me to serve as the leader of this association and we began a ministry together which has proven to be the happiest period in my spiritual journey. Please allow me to recall a few items which should encourage us as we enter a year of transitions.

1. We celebrated our centennial as the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.
2. We completed a long-range planning process in cooperation with the Mega Focus Cities Project sponsored by the Home Mission Board. The PMBA Five Year Plan is now in place and working better each year.
3. We completed the planning phase and entered into the construction phase of the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center which will house the offices, resources and some of the activities of our association.
4. We revised our constitution and bylaws. The expanded organizational structures have created many new ministries and several new missions.
5. We have increased the involvement of many leaders and congregations. Many have called attention to the improved fellowship on many levels of associational life.

The listing of major spiritual victories could go on and on. However, let us turn our attention to the immediate past, present and future. In my opinion this past year and next year will be a time of transitions. We will be adjusting to new facilities. We will be balancing mission and ministry needs with our limited financial resources. We will involve many new volunteer leaders. We will find new ways to address the challenges and opportunities without losing our appreciation of the past which gives us our sense of heritage. We will maintain our historic Baptist principles in the midst of some of the difficulties within the Southern Baptist Convention.

To further illustrate the "spirit" that exists throughout the PMBA, allow me to quote Bill Yates, pastor of Pfafftown Baptist Church, from his Letter to the Editor which was published in the Winston-Salem Journal (June 29, 1988):

> ". . . . This explanation is necessary to inform you of the relationship that Southern Baptists share in the Pilot Mountain Association. . . . In > this association, we have some of the same theological differences that are in the forefront nationally. However, locally we are very cooperative and accepting in spite of our differences. We share friendships and mutual ministries with those who are of different theological persuasions. The spirit of acceptance and participatory ministry is true to our Southern Baptist Convention."

He said it well. I trust he said it for us all. As we move through the year of transitions, may we pray and work toward an even brighter future in the Father's work throughout our association and our world.

In His service,
Jim Hamblen, Executive Director

Resource Center - Construction Committee

As of this date (September 13) the Resource Center is about completed. Mr. Redding has assured us that the building will be completed in time for the associational staff to move in the first week of October.

We have a well-constructed building that we all can be proud of. Thanks to Mr. Redding, his staff, and builders for a most cooperative attitude and a willingness to make any suggested changes.

Vice Moderator/Executive Board

The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association Executive Board has met four times as recommended by the Constitution. All of these meetings have been open for reports from all committees, councils, and organizations. With most of these taking advantage of this opportunity, there is evidence that much outstanding work is being done throughout the association.

December 15, 1987

Ronnie Reynolds shared results of the November 4-5 PROBE in our association and identified 12 areas the New Work Council has selected as top priorities for beginning new church type missions. Empowered the New Work Council and Language Ministries Council to study ways to financially assist the Spanish Mission in the purchase of land and a building and to bring to the Finance Committee the specific requests and then this brought back to the Executive Board. Approved the Association's participation in the NC/Brazil Partnership; elected Bill Guthrie as coordinator and Ken Boaz as assistant; approved that the Evangelism Council underwrite the $1,200 cost of an initial trip to Brazil for Bill Guthrie out of the Council's budget. Heard a report from the Church and Community Ministries Council concerning the Baptist Toy Store and an expression of appreciation to all who participated. Approved the Executive Board's authorizing a stewardship survey among the churches to ascertain the amount congregations will be giving to associational missions next year. Approved the following sentence be added to PMBA's Expense Reimbursement Policy: "The remaining balance from the Travel Allowance Fund shall be paid as salary." Approved the request that a Personnel Emergency Fund be referred to the Finance Committee for action.

March 29, 1988

Bill Yates, chairman of the Personnel Committee, presented a Litany of Affirmation for Sheree Jones, who had resigned from the association office to take a position with Griffith Baptist Church. Heard a report from Bill Guthrie on his recent visit to Sao Paulo as PMBA's representative in the NC/Brazil Partnership. Our association is coupled with Pinheiros Association which has 1½ million people, 12 Baptist churches and 2,200 members. Estimated cost for those serving on an evangelistic team will be $1,200-$1,300 per person. Approved the correction of a mathematical error in the 1988 budget for the salary package of PMBA's Missions Ministries Director from $28,800.36 to $30,518.36. Approved corrections to the Five Year Plan as presented at October's Annual Meeting. Approved a recommendation from the Personnel Committee that a Communications Secretary/Receptionist be hired. Reported that the State Convention has money available only for rent for the Spanish Mission. The congregation needs 75-100 people attending regularly before entering into a building program. The Korean Mission is currently without a pastor and a Vietnamese work has begun at Ardmore.

June 28, 1988

Reminder was given to the Board that the Constitution and Bylaws changes approved at the Spring Meeting now allow, in addition to the pastor, two lay people from each church as representatives to the Executive Board. Announced a Camp Retreat Evaluation meeting for Thursday, June 20. Approved the offer of $5,500 for the Chestnut Trails property be accepted, and that the proceeds go to the Resource Center. Shared plans of the Communications Committee for a slide presentation on the work of the association to be presented on August 9 during Church Key Leadership Conference. Approved to raise the limit of the amount we have been authorized to borrow from Southern National Bank from $200,000 to $250,000. Approved that Jim Hamblen serve as chairman and select a committee to be responsible for the Dedication of the Resource Center. The Baptist State Convention is joining with PMBA and Winston-Salem First in a pilot project to begin a church in the West Forsyth area. Southwest Elementary School has been rented for the services. Ronnie Reynolds will be the mission pastor to work with the association, Baptist State Convention, and Winston-Salem First. October 7-13, 1989 has been set for a major Sunday School Growth Campaign. Cost to participating churches will be to provide room, board, and local transportation for guest consultant. The Baptist State Convention will pay honorariums.

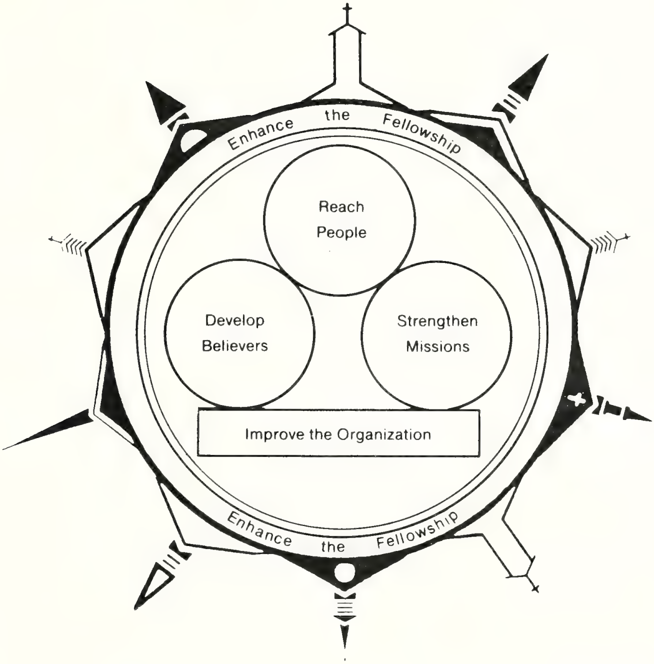
Pilot Mountain Baptist Association

Five Year Plan: 1989-1993

"There is a right time for everything" Ecclesiastes 3:1 (TLB)

A Time to Dream...A TIME TO ACT...A Time to Rejoice



Enhance the Fellowship
Reach People
Develop Believers
Strengthen Missions
Improve the Organization
Enhance the Fellowship

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE:

"The purpose of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association is to glorify God by assisting congregations to be in fellowship and to fulfill their mission, individually and together."

PLEASE NOTE: All items with asterisk (*) are revisions to the Five Year Plan.

Introduction

When writing an introduction, one needs to be convinced of the need for, or contribution of, the material being introduced. To be sure, I am convinced that Pilot Mountain Baptist Association is heading in the direction through our Five Year Plan of the Kingdom Dream as is so richly revealed to us through the Scriptures.

We have completed our second year in the Five Year Plan and each year we are discovering the richness our efforts have brought us in these areas:

1. REACHING PEOPLE is happening in existing churches but, more than that, we are starting new work. What a privilege to see our plans coming to fruition.
2. DEVELOPING BELIEVERS - Never in the history of PMBA have so many opportunities for discipleship been offered through Sunday School, Church Training, MasterLife, and a variety of other programs.
3. STRENGTHEN MISSIONS - There is a great increase in awareness of mission action both at home and abroad due to the efforts of those carrying out the Five Year Plan.
4. IMPROVE THE ORGANIZATION - Our organization is streamlined, lean, and efficient. We have devoted workers who are carrying out the plan. Both our PMBA leaders and churches are able to draw on each other's strengths to improve both areas of work.
5. ENHANCE THE FELLOWSHIP - It is my personal belief that our fellowship has never been better—and this next year points toward more of the same as we travel the path we have mapped out.

We, the Long-Range Planning Committee, are happy people rejoicing in the way PMBA is traveling.

Our direction has been shown us by YOU and the Spirit of the Living God. How can we do anything less? We must “shoe up” in preparation for the trip and begin living our dream—for, truly, it is a

MARIAN HAZEL PHILLIPS
1928-1989

Marian Phillips was born on December 19, 1928 and was a graduate of Mars Hill College, UNC-Greensboro, and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. After serving on a church staff in Santa Ana, California, for three years, she taught school in North and South Carolina until the time of her appointment in 1961 by the Foreign Mission Board to serve as a missionary in Nigeria.

Miss Phillips served faithfully in Nigeria until illness forced her retirement in 1974. She was actively involved in Clemmons First Baptist Church, the cancer support group at Baptist Hospital, and other volunteer activities. She was a member of the association's Ordination Council.

The memories of Marian Phillips go back before she was a "real live" missionary. Marian was counsellor and chaperon for our church youth group at Caswell and Camp Retreat. As a young person and adult she continued to make an impact on my life. Marian had hope, faith, trust, love, confidence and could even rejoice in her suffering. One of my last memories of Marian was teacher of our Prayer Life group. A verse she especially liked and a song we sang described her life:

"Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace" (II Thessalonians 2:16).

"I'll praise your name, Lord, and sing your song;
I'll praise your name, Lord, my whole life long.
I'll praise your name until I'm home;
I'll praise your name, Lord, and sing your song."

WILLIAM AUGUSTUS POOLE

The image of Bill Poole will remain with me. It is a good image, an image of a man of grace who loved people and blessed those whose lives he touched.

It is an image of a caring pastor as he nurtured his flock in the Baptist Retirement Homes as president over a ministry of 24 years. His first love was the personal contact as he spoke to each person by name. The image of his great frame bending over to caress the hand of a resident in a wheelchair will be his legacy to the Homes.

Bill has also left us an image of an encourager of others, whether singing in his church choir at College Park, teaching a Sunday School lesson, writing a letter to his pastor, or nurturing a young man in the ministry. Always sensitive to persons, he spread grace wherever he went.

Even in his retirement he wanted to stay close to people. He volunteered as a chaplain at Forsyth Memorial Hospital. He re-entered the world of weekly sermon preparation and visitation as he assumed interim pastorates. The new relationship energized him even while he blessed others by his gentleness and kindness. The need for physical self care led him to the YMCA, where the natural inclination for many is the anonymity of self preoccupation. Not for Bill, however. He quickly learned names and became an unofficial pastor to a whole new flock.

You see, Bill had an image, also. He had an image of a loving God who seeks to save his people. He lived that image and we have been blessed by the reflection of that loving God in the life of Bill Poole.

Charles Edwards, Pastor

1989 Spring Session

of the

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association

CLEMMONS FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
Clemmons, North Carolina
APRIL 30, 1989

1. The Spring session of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was held at Clemmons First Baptist Church, Clemmons, NC on Sunday afternoon, April 30th, with 105 messengers and 79 visitors registered from 41 churches.

2. Call to worship at 3:00 PM was the singing of ''We Have Heard the Joyful Sound'' led by Les Davis, minister of music of the host church. Accompanists were Frances Cartner, organist, and Diane Kirby, pianist. Rev. Robert Cantwell, pastor of Clemmons First, welcomed those present. He led in a responsive reading of Acts 1:6-11 and gave the invocation.

3. Peggy Neal, moderator, also welcomed those attending and called the session to order. She recognized Peggy Hall, clerk, who made a motion that everyone already registered and those to be registered be seated for the Spring Meeting of the association. Eddie Brackett, King First, seconded the motion and it carried.

4. Charles Stevens, on behalf of the Order of Business Committee, moved that the program as printed be the order of business unless otherwise altered by the body. Troy Hamrick, Ardmore, seconded the motion and it was approved.

5. The Moderator announced that Gene Sherrill, PMBA vice moderator and chairman of the Constitution Committee, would serve as parliamentarian for this session.

6. Bob Wendt, Nominating Committee chairman, called attention to the list in the Book of Reports of nominees for leadership positions to begin serving following the Fall Meeting. He moved that these leaders be elected. M. M. Goss, Ardmore, seconded the motion. There were no nominations from the floor. The motion was approved unanimously.

7. Eddie Brackett, chairman, brought greetings from the Church Training Council and recognized those serving with him. As Church Training Director, he expressed concern that churches are failing in the task commanded by Jesus to ''make disciples.'' This is reflected in the Church Training reports on the Uniform Church Letter and poor attendance at Church Training sponsored events. He appealed to churches to share audio visual materials (video tapes, equipping centers, filmstrips, etc.) with all PMBA congregations, with a master list maintained at the Resource Center.

Mr. Brackett said the best thing that has happened to him as Church Training Director happened April 29th at the associational Children's Bible Drill. Last year 10 children from three churches participated. This year there were 22 children from six churches in the Drill. He was amazed at the honesty and skill portrayed by those who took part. Mr. Brackett announced that, beginning in 1990, the associational Children's Bible Drill will be held the last Saturday in April. He also announced the Equipping Center Showcase scheduled October 28, 1989, when 30 of the 45 Equipping Centers available will be taught in our association.

8. Charles and Juanita Meares, members of Rankin Lake Baptist Church in Dallas, NC, shared their experiences as volunteers to Sao Paulo, Brazil in November of last year when they were part of the team going from Gaston Association. The Home Bible studies, one-on-one visitation and witnessing, and revival services each night resulted in 942 professions of faith. The Meares worked with the 73-year-old pastor of Vita Nova Baptist Church for eight days and nights. Eighty-one people came to know Jesus Christ as Saviour. Seventy people attended a Home Bible Study in a lady's yard and eleven adults accepted Christ. Mr. Meares, a layman, told of having to rely on God's promise to Moses to "be his mouth" when he was called on to preach at all the revival services. He closed with a challenge to PMBA folks to be willing to go if God so leads or to give financially to help someone else go.

9. A men's ensemble (Cyrus Bush, Becks; Les Davis, Clemmons First; Ed Locke, Southside; and Rich Lowder, Pfafftown) presented special music, "Ye Shall Be Witnesses" by Jerry Kirk.

10. Executive Director Jim Hamblen spoke on "The Witness of Lewis Ludlum Here and Beyond." He said that remembering Lewis Ludlum, even through our emotions, enables that indomitable spirit to live on, to remain with us. Though Mr. Ludlum enjoyed widespread influence in this association and other parts of North Carolina, few are aware of the impact he had throughout the Southern Baptist Convention, especially in associational organization. Mr. Hamblen shared that as recently as this past week a director of missions said it was Lewis Ludlum who brought him into associational work. His whole life was spent showing how individual churches could become a family of churches working together.

Mr. Hamblen told how Lewis crossed racial barriers, economic barriers, and age barriers. He always had more ideas than anyone could hope to accomplish. Mr. Hamblen quoted a writer: "Some men see things as they are and ask why. Others see things that never were and ask why not"—that was Lewis Ludlum, a dreamer, a visionary.

Mr. Hamblen asked Ron Rice, Winston-Salem First, to receive a copy of the Book of Remembrances on behalf of Charlotte Ludlum, who was out of town. Mr. Hamblen said the large number of letters in this book reflects the number of friends Mr. Ludlum had. The letters came from in state, out of state; some are handwritten and some are typed. The original Book of Remembrances will remain in the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center. After reading his Introduction, Jim Hamblen presented the book to Mr. Rice to deliver to Charlotte Ludlum.

11. Following the singing of "Let Others See Jesus in You," Mrs. Velma McGee led in an offertory prayer. An offering of $553.41 was received to be applied to the indebtedness on the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center.

12. Jim Baldwin, Evangelism Council director, introduced the keynote speaker, Mr. Wilmer D. "Vinegar Bend" Mizell. Mr. Mizell grew up in Vinegar Bend, Alabama; pitched for the St. Louis Cardinals and the Pittsburgh Pirates; was fifth district representative in Congress from this area; teaches Sunday School; and is presently assistant secretary for Governmental and Public Affairs, US Department of Agriculture. Mr. Baldwin concluded by saying, "I don't know how Mr. Mizell wants to be remembered, but I believe as a man of God who loves the Lord."

13. Under the direction of Les Davis, the Clemmons First Baptist Chancel Choir presented "That All May Hear" by Dennis Allen.

14. Mr. Mizell told of his debut into professional baseball, of the two years he spent in Winston-Salem with the Carolina League, and that it was in this area he met his wife, Nancy. They have been married 36 years. From serving on a professional team, he went to Washington, DC to serve on a political team. However, he said the greatest day of his life was when he became a member of another team—when he accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Saviour. Mr. Mizell quoted John 3:16, Romans 3:23, Romans 6:23, and Romans 10:9-10 and shared how he became a Christian. He expressed appreciation for the people in his little community who were faithful in maintaining a witness so he could find Christ, because he probably would not have had the atmosphere in his professional life to get to know Him.

Mr. Mizell said we are not only saved but also commissioned and he cited the example of Joshua. Joshua's challenge still stands: "Choose you this day whom you will serve, but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." He contrasted the eagerness of the Brazilians to hear and respond to the gospel as shared earlier by the Meares to Washington, DC, which is the murder capital of the world. Mr. Mizell said God's people can make a difference today if we are willing to follow Him.

He referred to two passages of Scripture that talk of building: Jesus' parable of the two builders who built upon sand and rock and Paul's message in I Corinthians 3:10. Mr. Mizell challenged Christians to build out of permanent material. To do so we must be obedient and available so God can use us to do that which He has commissioned us to do. To Mr. Mizell, one of the "gold" building blocks is personal witness. All of us must reach out so others might know about Jesus and receive salvation and assurance.

Mr. Mizell said he had never seen a building made out of pure gold or silver but that it would be a beautiful specter—the kind of edifice God would have us to build out of material that is full of light, of kindness, thoughtfulness and compassion. Congress is struggling to write laws on ethics, when they have already been written in the Bible. We already have the blueprint on how people should live in a free society, a Christian society. Mr. Mizell said the day is coming when our lives are going to be tested and that which we have built will be tried by fire. Those things made of precious metals will glow brighter when tested by fire; those things made of hay, wood and stubble will be consumed. Mr. Mizell concluded with the thought of how tragic it will be to come to the day of judgment and have nothing of eternal value to present to the Lord Jesus Christ, who loved us so much that he suffered, died, was buried, and then raised to live forever. He closed with a prayer.

15. Bill Guthrie, a member of the Evangelism Council and Sao Paulo Partnership Coordinator, gave a call to commitment. He invited those to whom the Lord had spoken in a special way—whether to witness to a neighbor, to serve in a special capacity in a local church, or go to Brazil—to make this known. He asked Jim Baldwin to receive any who came. The hymn of commitment was "Open My Eyes that I May See." Mr. Guthrie then led in a prayer of dedication.

16. Moderator Peggy Neal expressed appreciation to all participants and announced that the Fall Session would be held October 24 at Griffith Baptist Church. Charles Stevens, Kernersville First, made a motion that the session be declared adjourned. Paul Williams, Westview, seconded the motion. The Spring Session was adjourned at 4:48 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

October 24, 1989

AFTERNOON SESSION

1. Presentation of "Missionary at Heart," a video about Pilot Mountain Association; and a musical concert by Gloria Lawrence, organist, and Janice Ward, pianist, preceded the afternoon session.

2. Moderator Peggy Neal welcomed attendees to the 104th Annual Session on October 24, 1989 at Griffith Baptist Church. She convened the afternoon session at 3:00 PM.

3. In his welcome from the host church, Pastor Mike Willard expressed appreciation to the association and to Lewis Ludlum, particularly, for their vision and help in beginning Griffith Baptist Church, which was chartered in October of 1956. Rev. Mr. Willard led in prayer.

4. Peggy Hall, clerk, moved that those messengers already registered and those to be registered constitute the body of the 104th annual session. Charles Stevens, Kernersville First, seconded the motion and it was approved.

5. Charles Stevens, Order of Business Committee chairman, moved that the tentative program be adopted with the addition of a Brotherhood report in the evening session unless otherwise changed by the body. Boyce Wilson, Knollwood, seconded the motion and it was approved.

6. In miscellaneous reports, M. M. Goss, Ardmore, announced a meeting of the North Carolina Baptist Historical Society November 2nd at Wake Forest University. Of special interest on the agenda is a presentation by Warren Carr on Lewis Ludlum.

Carlton Mitchell, Wake Forest University professor, introduced Robert Spinks, Divinity School Development officer, who shared three things concerning the proposed Divinity School at WFU. (1.) The university did not initiate the proposal but responded when approached. The president appointed a Blue Ribbon Committee to study the matter. After two years the committee reported that a Divinity School at WFU was feasible in every respect. (2.) Though Southern Baptists do not historically have divinity schools at a university, the challenge has been accepted by WFU. (3.) Help of PMBA churches is needed in promoting the school.

Paul Williams, chairman of the Pastoral Ministries Council, read a letter of affirmation from a group of PMBA ministers to Mineral Springs Baptist Church commending them for their support of their minister of education, Keith White, in his recent ordeal. Others who wish to include their signature may do so by contacting Mr. Williams. (See attachment one to original minutes.)

The moderator gave instructions concerning registration and Jim Hamblen asked that churches who have not picked up their 1988 Minutes do so.

7. Bill Fryar, Stewardship director and pastor of Macedonia, interpreted the theme for the program—the association's five objectives. Reading I Peter 4:10, he expounded on gifts. He said that is what Pilot Mountain Baptist Association is all about—helping each other to express their God-given gifts. The Coordinating Council will be presenting the Budget for 1990 at today's meeting. Budget dollars represent planned ministries and numbers represent precious souls that our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ died to redeem. ''Watch,'' he said, ''as we unwrap the gifts. Listen as each leader gives a vignette of past victories, present opportunities and future challenges in their respective areas of giftedness.''

8. Amis Daniel, Finance Committee chairman and pastor of Union Cross, gave his testimony on how he came to be a steward of what God had entrusted to him. He told of becoming a Christian and teaching a Sunday School class. His giving was a mere token. He shared how he had come to the conviction that, though Jesus' blood makes one safe, the sureness of that salvation does not come until one has become obedient, especially in the giving of money. He had come to know the joy of giving and to see some of the results of that joy as a missionary, as a pastor, in the State Convention and in our Association. He said that once a person gets right with God about money, he will know the joy of salvation and will give—first to the local church, then to support the association, then the state conventions, and finally to SBC boards and agencies.

9. Bill Fryar, introducing the objective ''To Improve the Organization,'' said: ''This objective expresses our desire to be efficient stewards in the use of our resources. It involves being good employers in dealing with associational staff. It means reducing as much as possible the waste of time, energy and resources so that red tape doesn't keep us from centering in on ministry.''

Cecil Cave, vice moderator-elect and pastor of Mineral Springs, read Isaiah 54:2-3. Rick Tucker, music director and minister of music at Union Grove, led in the singing of ''The Church's One Foundation.''

10. Jim Hamblen referred messengers to the calendars in the Book of Reports. These have been compiled by leaders incorporating associational, State Convention, and Southern Baptist Convention dates and emphases. Charles Stevens made a motion that the tentative calendars for 1989-90, 1991 and 1992 be adopted. Warren Steen, Ardmore, seconded the motion and it was approved.

11. Bob Wendt, Nominating Committee chairman, called attention to the list of nominees for 1989-1990 leaders in the Book of Reports. He asked that two names be added to the Church and Community Ministries Council—Jimmy Underwood, Quaker Gap, and Deborah Nichols, Becks. Joyce Love, WMU director, asked that the assistant Mission Friends director be changed to Carol Sumner, Calvary. Bob Wendt moved the election of officers, institution representatives, councils and committees as presented with the two additions and one change. Charles Stevens seconded the motion and it was approved.

12. David Ward, treasurer, referred messengers to the January-September Financial Report in the Book of Reports. He expressed appreciation to the Finance Committee, to Amis Daniel as chairman, the paid staff of PMBA—especially Sandra Hall, financial secretary—for their work. Time was given for questions; there were none. Mr. Ward made a motion that the financial report be accepted as printed. Charles Stevens seconded the motion and it was approved.

13. Bill Yates, Personnel Committee chairman, thanked leaders for the opportunity to serve in PMBA, saying it has been very fulfilling for him. The openness and commitment of the committee and staff has taken many forms, but he has especially observed it in Jim Hamblen's evaluation of each staff member. Mr. Hamblen discusses with each one his/her ministry, growing edges, and focuses on strengths and affirmations. This same concept has been brought to the Personnel Committee as they work with Mr. Hamblen.

The committee, knowing the association has a staff of high capabilities and great competence, felt keenly the lack of a forum for sharing these with the associational family. Mr. Yates referred messengers to the biographical information and job descriptions in their packets which tell about each staff member. He read a list of affirmations that came from the Executive Director and which the Personnel Committee also affirms for Sally Hicks, communications secretary/receptionist; Sandra Hall, financial secretary/bookkeeper; Peggy Hall, administrative assistant; and Mike Bradshaw, missions ministries director. Quoting Mark Twain who said he could live two months on a good, honest compliment, Mr. Yates said he hopes the staff can go for two years on what has been said of them today.

Mr. Yates contacted fifteen people including staff members, ministers, and lay people in the association for strengths of Jim Hamblen, executive director, and compiled these in two categories—professional and personal. He read these affirmations. To show their appreciation, those present stood and applauded the staff. (For affirmations of all the staff, see attachment two to original minutes.)

14. Ivan Price, chairman of the Audit Committee, called attention in the Book of Reports to the report of Gray, Callison and Company, a CPA firm in Winston-Salem. He encouraged messengers to look at the report in its entirety. Mr. Price made a motion that the Audit report be accepted and that the association continue to have an outside audit made annually. Boyce Wilson, Knollwood, seconded the motion and it was approved.

15. Bill Fryar introduced the objective ''To Enhance the Fellowship.'' He said that as we help congregations relate to each other in a growing and mutually supportive fellowship, we too will be better stewards of the talents and gifts God has given us by His grace and show ourselves to be God's family.

Cecil Cave, referring to Acts 2:42, gave a personal word from the Mineral Springs congregation which had just endured the trial of a staff member. He thanked individuals and churches for their strong moral support manifested in many ways over the past eleven months. Pastor Cave said that of his nearly thirty years in the ministry, the last eleven months had been the hardest and that last week had been the most difficult time of his life. He and the church knew the allegations against the staff member were untrue but they knew many would not know this. Mr. Cave ended by saying, ''When a brother or sister is in need, you have been there in fellowship, with your arms draped around us. That is enhancing the fellowship!''

Rick Tucker led in singing ''Blest Be the Tie that Binds.'' Moderator Peggy Neal commented that this hymn said more to us today than it perhaps had in the past, that we sometimes forget how much our hymns say to us.

16. Peggy Neal recognized special guests. Bertha Sneed, a member of Antioch, is attending her 54th consecutive annual meeting of the association—this year in a wheel chair as she recovers from a broken hip. Mrs. Sneed expressed appreciation for the many cards she had received since her accident, especially for the one from the PMBA staff. Others recognized were Rev. Reuban Gilliam, vice moderator of the Rowan Baptist Association; J. Ray Butler, moderator of Rowan Association and pastor of Shiloh Baptist Church; H. L. Moore, Mt. Carmel Baptist Church and president of the Baptist Ministers Conference; Harry Sherwood, Wingate College; and Warren Steen, a member of Ardmore and Director of Development, Baptist Children's Homes. Mr. Steen encouraged people to attend the State Convention in November when a vote will be taken to return the special offerings to the individual institutions in the state.

17. Peggy Neal introduced Jim Reich, PMBA's care giver from the State Convention. Mr. Reich, a native of Winston-Salem, product of Forest Hill Church, and graduate of Wake Forest University, is presently associate director of Church Music, Baptist State Convention. He brought greetings from the State Convention explaining that a ''CARE giver'' is like a personal banker. These BSC staff personnel offer themselves to their assigned association in a personal way to listen to needs, dreams, and feelings as they relate to the local church and the larger Baptist family. Mr. Reich emphasized the sevenfold program of Church Music. He commended PMBA for being one of the strongest associations in the state.

18. Betty Talbert, Chaplaincy Ministries director, told of the council's dream and two years of work to establish a one-on-one ministry in the 45 Nursing Homes located within the association. The organization is in place; training has been provided; and churches are being encouraged to become a part of this one-on-one ministry. The report concluded with the showing of an original slide presentation concerning this new ministry entitled, ''Redeeming the Time,'' written by Judy Arnold, summer missionary, and produced by Mike Apple, Minister of Media, Winston-Salem First.

19. Chris Norman, Youth Ministries director, told of the Apostoloi Team's being in ten churches in our association this past summer. Paul Kennedy, pastor of Forest Hill, shared how this team of college students made an impact on the young people in his church.

20. Charles Edwards, pastor of College Park, read from Hebrews 12. He said he had a wrong concept of the ''cloud of witnesses'' until he remembered that chapter 12 follows chapter 11, the catalog of great men and women of faith. He then realized these witnesses were people who had completed their race, persevered in the faith, and are now in the stands, as it were, cheering others on and encouraging them. Included in that cloud of witnesses are those from our congregations who have died during the past year. Mr. Edwards asked that these be remembered in a spirit of joy and thanksgiving as we find encouragement from them for our own lives as we run the Christian race. He then led in a prayer of remembrance.

21. Jim Reich, at the piano, presented special music, '''Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus'' and ''I Stand Amazed in the Presence.''

22. Jim Hamblen recognized the following new ministers present today who have come into our association since last Annual Meeting: Lanny Atkins, Advance; Carl Childs, Brown Mountain; Paul Kennedy, Forest Hill; Ed Stines, West Side; Yates Wilkinson, Mount Olive; Cyrus Bush, Becks; Judi Chandler-Crouse, Lewisville; Joe McWethy, Edgewood; Mitzi Moore, Friends; Debby Murrell, Winston-Salem First; and Robert Nichols, Becks.

23. Host Pastor Mike Willard shared the financial struggle Griffith encountered for a number of years as they made the fundamental mistake of paying bills first and giving to missions out of the leftovers. A few years ago the congregation decided to make missions the first priority. Their two-fold commitment was to give to missions first and to increase missions involvement at least one percent every year. The church is now giving over 20 percent to missions and was able to be a part of the Brazil partnership this past summer, sending three members to Sao Paulo. The congregation, as an expression of gratitude for God's blessings, decided to provide a free meal at this annual meeting but asked that those eating give a love offering to the PMBA Resource Center. The prayer of the congregation has been that the evening meal be a time to deepen fellowship and love for each other.

While Gloria Lawrence played the offertory, ushers received a love offering. (Clerk's note: $1,233 was received for the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center.)

Mike Willard gave instructions for the meal and expressed appreciation to Sheree Jones, minister of education and activities, for coordinating Griffith's part in the Annual Session; and to Evelyn Osborne, who coordinated the preparation and serving of the meal. He called attention to the displays and then led in a blessing for the meal.

EVENING SESSION

The video, "Missionary at Heart," was shown and Griffith's Adult Choir presented a musical pre-session concert. Under the direction of Gloria Lawrence, they sang "When We All Get to Heaven," "A Perfect Heart," "There Is Peace and Contentment," and "My House Is Full but My Fields Are Empty."

24. Moderator Peggy Neal convened the evening session at 7:00 PM. She welcomed those who had been unable to attend the afternoon session and gave instructions concerning registration.

25. Bill Fryar reviewed the program content of the afternoon session and introduced the objective To Reach People. He recalled the maximum efforts of people seeking to reach those trapped in the collapse of Highway 880 in the recent San Francisco/Oakland earthquake. He compared the joy of seeing one man saved after being trapped for four days to the greater joy of seeing someone saved from the weight of sin. Mr. Fryar concluded by saying, "If there is anything that we can do as an association to accelerate the efforts of the congregations to share the gospel and to develop New Testament churches, we should do it."

Cecil Cave read Luke 14:15-24.

26. Lois Horton, a member of Griffith and interpreter for the hearing-impaired at North Davidson Junior High School, sang and signed "Jesus, Lord to Me."

27. Jim Baldwin, Quaker Gap pastor, expressed his joy in serving as evangelism director and introduced Ken Boaz, Evangelism Council member, who coordinated the team from our association going to Sao Paulo, Brazil, August 3-15. Using slides, Mr. Boaz reported on this trip. With a population of over 16 million, Sao Paulo is rated as the world's third largest metropolis. It is estimated that only four percent of the population are evangelical Christians. In 1982, committed Baptists of Sao Paulo resolved there was a tremendous need for more churches and launched a program to begin 1,000 new church starts in ten years. They are doing this through such proven New Testament methods as mission churches, preaching points in neighborhoods without churches, street evangelism and home Bible studies. For the last five years of this effort (1988-1992), NC Baptists have been invited to share as partners. After a year of planning, fifteen PMBA folk last August joined hundreds of other NC Baptists who traveled to Sao Paulo during the year. Their duties were to aid the churches of our sister Pinheiros Association in revival. The team continues to rejoice in the warm friendships formed and the enthusiastic response to their witness for the Lord.

Mr. Boaz told of plans to send at least five teams to Sao Paulo during 1990 in the areas of evangelism, training, construction, health care and athletics.

Ray Hamilton, Evangelism Council member, reported on the nationwide simultaneous revivals to be held in the spring of 1990. To date, fifty-one PMBA churches have said they will participate in the Here's Hope—Jesus Cares for You revival effort. The council hopes 60 or more churches will commit to be a part of this effort.

Mr. Baldwin cited an incident recorded in Mark 14. He compared the young man in the Scripture to those who feel totally unprepared when opportunities come. Many are curious about what is going on and are eager to hear of mission trips and what God is doing in other places but are frightened when it comes to personal involvement. He challenged those present to respond to the opportunities to share in Brazil and right here at home in the simultaneous revivals. Mr. Baldwin then led in prayer.

28. The Sunday School report was presented as a news break during "regularly scheduled programs" by ASSIST members Ty Talton and Tripp May. Over 25 churches participated in the Sunday School Growth Campaign October 7-15, which was led by Gene Skelton of the Baptist Sunday School Board and 25 guest directors. Those present from churches that participated were asked to stand and spontaneously share experiences. Brim's Grove found 304 prospects in less than three hours. King First discovered 77 prospects in one and one-half hours. Colfax began two new teaching units in one week and had the highest attendance in Sunday School in over six years. Southside reported that about 40 people participated in People Search on a Sunday afternoon.

Ty Talton "interviewed" Mitzi Moore, Sunday School director. She said over 5,000 prospects were discovered by the 25 churches; 25 new units were started with 116 projected for a total of 141 new Sunday School units. Stanleyville First and Ardmore reported successes. Mrs. Moore said this Growth Campaign was the "most thrilling experience she had ever had." A goal of five percent increase in Sunday School enrollment was reached by PMBA congregations. Over 300 people attended the five simultaneous training schools held October 12.

29. Ronnie Reynolds, New Work director, referred messengers to the Five Year Plan and showed slides to illustrate how this plan "becomes flesh" in the area of new church starts. A PROBE was held in the association in 1987 to determine if new churches were needed and, if so, where. Thirty-seven sites were identified plus 41 areas where existing churches could initiate new ministries. Twelve areas were chosen as priorities. The work in the Greystone area of Kernersville became known as the Kerner Road Community Fellowship and is an on-going Bible study group. Utilizing the telemarketing approach, Becks initiated an on-going church type mission, Northridge Baptist Fellowship, in June of 1988. A church building is presently under construction with occupancy scheduled for early 1990. Becks has borne all financial responsibility for this work. The Baptist State Convention, Winston-Salem First Baptist, and Pilot Mountain Association joined in partnership to launch Friends Baptist Church in the west Clemmons area in September of 1988. This was a test project also using telemarketing. Primary funding has come from the State Convention with Winston-Salem First providing manpower and the association acting as a channel for State Convention funds and serving as advisor.

Christian Faith Baptist Church in the Belews Creek area, under the leadership of Pastor Rickey Hughes, has grown from about eight in attendance to an average of 65 per Sunday. This work has developed without the sponsorship of any church. The goal of a new church start in a predominantly black community has not yet been realized but negotiations are under way. Mr. Reynolds said statistics show that 50 percent of the people in the associational geographical area are unsaved or unchurched.

In order to help churches that are not growing, the New Work Council is sponsoring a regional Church Growth Seminar November 4th with nationally known consultant Norman Whan as leader. Pastors and lay leaders interested in reversing this non-growth trend are invited.

30. John Lawrence, chairman of the Credentials Committee, reported that it had been a wonderful privilege to interview two new fellowships this past year. Leaders of Christian Faith Baptist Church have been interviewed by the committee regarding doctrine, relationship with the Southern Baptist Convention, and concern for the Cooperative Program. On behalf of the Credentials Committee, Mr. Lawrence moved that Christian Faith Baptist Church be brought under the watchcare of the association. Eddie Brackett, King First, seconded the motion and it carried unanimously. Mr. Lawrence recognized the members of this congregation that were present and asked that the pastor, Sunday School director, and chairman of deacons come to the front and that Jim Hamblen and Peggy Neal give them the right hand of Christian fellowship to symbolize the entire body's welcoming them into the "very unique relationship of watchcare."

Mr. Lawrence said that just as children born of the same parents are different, so are churches. Friends Baptist Church came into being using telemarketing, one of the most modern methods of reaching people. Ronnie Reynolds is the pastor. The church has grown rapidly and the leaders were questioned as intensely as Christian Faith by the Credentials Committee. Though the two churches are different, they are both solidly Southern Baptist churches. Mr. Lawrence moved that Friends Baptist Church be accepted in a watchcare relationship for the next year. Cecil Cave, Mineral Springs, seconded the motion and it was approved unanimously. Those present from Friends were asked to stand. The pastor, chairman of deacons and Sunday School director came to the front so the moderator and director of missions could give them the right hand of Christian fellowship.

Mr. Lawrence closed with the statement, "It is a wonderful thing that, in one year, two such congregations have come into existence. This is a sign of God's blessing upon the association."

31. Bill Fryar introduced the objective To Develop Believers. He said that just as he, an amateur gardener, takes little pleasure in plants that remain too small to produce desired fruit, neither did Jesus find pleasure in fig trees without figs in due season. When we as an association emphasize the biblical imperative to equip the saints in the areas of prayer, discipleship, and stewardship, God's vineyard will be more prepared to bring forth much fruit.

Cecil Cave read Colossians 1:28-29. Rick Tucker led in singing the hymn, "Take My Life and Let It Be."

32. Church Training Director Eddie Brackett read Matthew 28:19-20 and reported that Southern Baptists at the June Convention voted to change the name of Church Training to Discipleship Training. He said the Council has endeavored to begin to do again what the Convention and associations used to do. Participants in this year's Children's Bible Drill doubled both in children and number of churches. Goal for 1990 is to double this again. In January a Bible Drills/Speakers Tournament Rally and training are planned. The Council desires to provide scholarships for persons to receive training in MasterLife.

Mr. Brackett said PMBA is one of the few associations the Sunday School Board has allowed to conduct an Equipping Center Showcase. This is scheduled for October 28 at Old Town Baptist Church. Saying he believes this to be the premiere program offered by PMBA in all his eleven years in the association, Mr. Brackett expressed concern at the poor response to date. Thirty leaders have been enlisted to overview 30 modules, which will then be donated to the Resource Center for use by our churches. He challenged those present to consider seriously being a part of this event.

33. Glendora Epperson, Christian Life director, recognized the members of the Council. She reported on past workshops and announced that Dr. Thomas E. Henderson, a local psychologist, will conduct a workshop on Blended Families (Step-parenting) October 30 from 6:00-9:30 PM. She told of plans for a workshop on Compulsive Behavior in 1990 and read a list of video tapes the council has made available through the Resource Center. She closed by reading Matthew 6:5-14.

34. Jim Hamblen, executive director, reported for the Coordinating Council. He recognized Janie Hooker as new minister of music at Goodwill Baptist Church and Cornelia Simmons, retired missionary to Yemen now living in Winston-Salem and a member of Ardmore. He said Ms. Simmons symbolizes the reason we all get together as Baptists—to do missions—and welcomed her as representing the entire missionary family.

Mr. Hamblen said the Five Year Plan is a road map, a guide book for the association. The Plan was initiated in 1986 under the leadership of Boyce Wilson, chairman of the Long Range Planning Committee. Paul Williams next served as chairman and Ken Boaz is the present chairman. The Coordinating Council uses this dynamic document to negotiate calendar dates, set priorities, and formulate budgets. The Council is the unit that tries to bring together programs and activities that help churches do what God wants them to do in order to be faithful to His will.

Six years ago Mr. Hamblen was called to this association and assumed his responsibilities as director in November of 1983. He recalled his commitment to organize the association in order to turn it over to the people, to let local congregations determine priorities. Local folks believing what God wants them to do and joining together to get the job done is what this association is all about.

Mr. Hamblen recognized Laurel Link, a member of Ardmore, who felt an interest in, and a need for, further study in the area of the occult. Following a series of training experiences, Ms. Link has become an associate in the field of Interfaith Witnessing. Mr. Hamblen presented her with a certificate officially designating her as such. She is available to speak in churches or to lead conferences. Mr. Hamblen encouraged others to follow Ms. Link's example in study and personal growth.

35. Bill Fryar introduced the objective To Strengthen Missions. He said the tie that binds God's people together is missions. Missions is not so much what we do as it is who we are. We are commissioned by our Lord to go and tell. Pilot Mountain Association seeks to help congregations fulfill this biblical mandate by assisting them to strengthen their missions education, enlarge their missions involvement, and increase their missions giving.

Cecil Cave read Acts 16:9-10. Rick Tucker led in the singing of ''Hark, the Voice of Jesus Calling.''

36. Harry Harkey, Brotherhood director, told of the need for an RA director and an assistant. They would also like to expand the Brotherhood Council to include a director and associate for High School Baptist Young Men. He announced a project to collect good men and women's suits for the clothes closet at Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute. These may be brought to the Resource Center before January 31, 1990. A Rally will be held December 9th for Baptist Men and their families at the Lawrence Joel Coliseum. This will be a time of inspiration and fellowship as well as seeing the basketball game between Wake Forest and Campbell Universities.

37. Joyce Love, WMU director, introduced Vicki Ward, Baptist Women director; Frances McDaniel, Acteens director; and Beverly Hatcher, Mission Action/Personal Witnessing Director. These leaders presented WMU emphases for the coming year by means of a "game show on television station U-WMU." Mrs. Love gave an answer and participants responded with the question. Information gleaned from the game included:

1. Friend to Friend Banquet for Baptist Women, Baptist Young Women, and Acteens May 10, 1990
2. Baptist Women's World Day of Prayer November 6 at College Park
3. Personal Witnessing Training Retreat January 20, 1990 at Becks
4. Foreign Mission study 1989 on Japan
5. Theme for the Home Mission study 1990 is "So the lost may hear."

Vicki Ward sang the WMU hymn of the year, "In His Name...Reach, Teach, Touch."

38. Peggy Conrad said that serving as director of the Church and Community Ministries Council has been the greatest blessing of her life. She recognized members of this working council and expressed appreciation for their support. Last year during the Baptist Toy Store, 1,761 toys were given to 467 children representing 176 families. Seventy people worked as volunteers and nine professions of faith were made during the counseling sessions. Mrs. Conrad asked for donations of toys and volunteers for this year's Toy Store. She reported that a ministry with blind people was begun this summer and 25 attended a homemade ice cream fellowship. There are over 800 blind persons in our communities.

For five years the Council has held a Spring Celebration for mentally handicapped persons. Seventy attended this one day retreat at Becks last spring. Mrs. Conrad introduced four people from the Bethabara Hills Family Care Home: Tracy Lee Jones, Susie Lloyd (group home "mother"), Kelly Tomlinson, and Tracy Verdinek. The girls sang the chorus, "Sing Alleluia." Tracey Lee Jones shared what the mentally handicapped retreat at Becks has meant to her in making new friends and helping "turn her life around." She said she was baptized April 30 at Calvary. Tracy Verdinek sang and signed "Oh, How I Love Jesus." Kelly Tomlinson sang "Jesus Loves Me." Peggy Conrad closed her report with one word..."Inasmuch..."

39. Amis Daniel, Finance Committee chairman, made a motion that the proposed budget for 1990 as printed in the Book of Reports be adopted. Bill Fryar, Macedonia, seconded the motion. Total basic budget is $316,681, less PMBA designated funds of $15,000 and BSC/NC designated funds of $55,700, leaving $245,981 to be received from our congregations.

Mr. Daniel recognized members of the Finance Committee and summarized the struggle of the Committee and Coordinating Council as they worked together to find ways to finance the ministries leaders wanted to do. Projected income for 1990 caused these volunteer leaders to have to "cut out their own hearts." The final proposed figure was $49,000 less than they needed. Mr. Daniel appealed to everyone present to return to their congregations and work to raise the level of associational giving. There were no questions concerning the proposed budget and it was approved unanimously.

Mr. Daniel announced that Camp Retreat is up for sale and the Finance Committee is working hard to complete the sale. He also reported that today a $185,000 note at 9.75 percent interest was signed with Wachovia Bank and Trust Company to pay off construction/furnishings cost of the Resource Center. Mr. Daniel said it is his dream to pay this note off in two years. He called attention to how many times Lewis Ludlum's name had been mentioned today and said a good way to honor Mr. Ludlum is to make a gift to the Resource Center that bears his name.

40. Peggy Neal expressed gratitude for the opportunity to serve these two years as vice moderator and moderator. She recognized Eugene Sherrill, pastor of Forsyth Park, the new moderator. Mr. Sherrill led in a closing prayer.

41. The 104th annual session was adjourned at 9:01 PM. Three hundred forty-one people from 66 churches registered (235 messengers/PMBA leaders and 106 visitors/guests).

Respectfully submitted,
PEGGY HALL, Clerk

Goals and objectives of the Athletic Council are the same for 1990 as for 1989: to operate basketball leagues for young people from ages 9 through 18 and to operate a coed youth softball league in spring and summer for high school age kids. Objective of all leagues is to foster Christian fellowship and good sportsmanship.

Pray that Pilot Mountain Baptist Association recreation will grow stronger in developing youth for Christ first; as well as teaching our youth how to play, compete, win, and—most of all—love in doing so.

Chaplaincy Ministries Council

Goal for the Chaplaincy Ministries Council this year was to establish a new nursing home ministry in the community. We have made significant progress toward reaching this goal. The council, in concert with the PMBA and Baptist State Convention, hired a Nursing Home Coordinator for the summer, Judith Arnold. Judith helped us to implement a plan for working with churches in the association who want to do one-to-one lay ministry with nursing home patients. She made contacts with 17 churches and was able to establish coordinators in several churches. In addition, she implemented the model organization which the Chaplaincy Council believes will be productive in getting this new nursing home ministry firmly established in the community.

The Council will work to name a volunteer coordinator of nursing home ministries in PMBA immediately. Our next goal in the nursing home ministry will be to extend the number of churches who are participating in this work. We hope this year to investigate beginning a new crisis support ministry.

We have the Nursing Home ministry in motion with some momentum and a solid beginning organization. The council feels encouraged about the project. Mike Bradshaw should be applauded for his ideas about how to organize this ministry and Judith Arnold for her careful and solid ground work this summer in getting the project off the ground.

Christian Life Council

On May 23 the Christian Life Council sponsored a workshop, Family Ministry in Small Churches, led by Bob Newton, director of Family Life who is associated with the Christian Life Council of the Baptist State Convention. Nine different churches were represented.

The Council seeks to minister to singles, married couples, senior adults, youth, children/youth who have been abused, adults, and Aids victims and their families.

On October 30 from 6:00-9:30 PM, the Council will sponsor a snack supper and a workshop on The Present Day Blended Family, led by Dr. Tom Herndon of the Family Center.

Our goal for next year is to conduct two workshops in the area of family ministry.

Church and Community Ministries Council

The Church and Community Ministries Council had six goals this past year. Below is a brief summary of how we met those goals.

1. Spin off Senior Adult Ministries to form a separate council
   The Senior Adults established their own council in June with Marshall Price as chairman.
2. Continue Backyard Bible Club ministry
   Six Backyard Bible Clubs were held with 130 children attending.
3. Continue Baptist Toy Store Ministry
   The Baptist Toy Store received 1,761 toys which were distributed to 467 children representing 176 families. There were nine professions of faith from this ministry.
4. Conduct Literacy Workshops and begin Tutor Fellowship Group
   Twenty-seven people representing 14 churches attended the Literacy Workshop. Three tutor fellowships have been held.
5. Continue Mentally Handicapped Ministry
   A chaplain was employed to work with the blind and mentally handicapped during the summer. Seventy attended the Mentally Handicapped Spring Celebration and thirty attended the Carnival Fellowship.
6. Begin Ministry to Blind
   Two events were held for the blind: Twenty-five attended the homemade ice cream fellowship at the Resource Center and forty attended the Beep Ball/Hot Dog event.

During 1989-90 we plan to continue the Toy Store Ministry, expand ministries to the blind and mentally handicapped, continue literacy work, employ a summer worker to do Backyard Bible Clubs in a black community, and to provide a visible market for the sale of crafts from underdeveloped nations by having a Self-Help Craft Sale at the Resource Center promoted through churches and the community.

Cooperative Ministries Council

The goal of the Cooperative Ministries Council is to encourage fraternal relationships between the Pilot Mountain Association and the Rowan Association. We seek to encourage personal relationships and joint ministries between pastors and churches of the two associations.

This year the council hosted a joint worship and fellowship meal for ministers at College Park in December. We participated in the special service sponsored by the Ministers Conference of Winston-Salem on the Martin Luther King holiday.

Creative Ministries Council

Our goals this past year have been to form a Creative Ministries Council; to assist local congregations using creative/dramatic ministries; and to work with other associational committees/councils who need help with drama, puppetry, clowning, mime, storytelling, etc.

The Council has been formed. Several churches and individuals have been assisted. This year we worked with the Wake Forest University Pastors' School in developing lectures/performances on church drama for pastors. We set a date for the 1990 Festival.

In the coming year we plan to contact each church to request a Creative Ministries representative and will meet with those representatives. Another goal is to form a dramatic repertory group. We are in the process of planning for the Creative Ministries Festival on March 3, 1990.

Evangelism Council

In keeping with the focus of the Year of the Laity, our Council's goal for this year has been to involve laypersons in evangelism and personal witnessing. We have conducted Lay Evangelism Schools for local churches to equip laypersons. We have also sent a team of volunteers to Sao Paulo, Brazil, to do evangelistic work.

We were able to see a number of laypersons actively engaged in evangelism throughout 1989. Several churches conducted Lay Renewal Weekends that challenged laypersons to become witnesses. Fifteen people from our association (including eleven laypersons) did some "hands on" evangelism in Sao Paulo August 3-16.

Next year we hope to see more people receive Christ as Lord and be baptized into a local church. Our major emphasis will be encouraging and assisting churches to participate in the "Here's Hope" simultaneous revivals April 1-8, 1990.

The Media Library Council held a workshop on March 4th that focused on visual, oral, and written promotion of media libraries in our churches. Peggy Thompson and Hazel Duncan, both state approved Media Library workers, taught this workshop. Four people attended the state Media Library Conference at Caraway and one person attended the Media Library Conference at Ridgecrest.

The Council will continue to strive to meet its goals of having two training workshops each year, encouraging attendance at the State conference and Media Library Week at Ridgecrest, and encouraging more churches to establish a Media Library. Next year we also plan to have a fellowship meeting of all directors in our association.

New Work Council

The New Work Council's goals/actions for this year under the objective of Reaching People included:

1. Utilize Praxis Team: Because the Home Mission Board did not have anyone for PMBA this year, the goal was not reached.
2. Assist congregations to initiate three new church-type missions: Friends Mission was established. Kerner Road Fellowship was divided into a Home Bible Study and a mission start known as the Kynwood area.
3. Utilize Church Planter Apprentices: No funds were approved. This item was placed in PMBA's Challenge Budget.
4. Secure persons involved in Supervised Ministry at Southeastern Seminary for work in the area of new work: SEBTS temporarily suspended this program.
5. Identify a sponsoring church for initiating a Black SBC Church-type mission: This action is in process.

No funds were provided for two other actions the New Work Council wanted to accomplish: to purchase a double-wide modular unit to be used in new church-type mission starts and to conduct feasibility study for providing funds for loan to new congregations and/or purchase of land for new work.

The Council's plans for the coming year include: Cooperate with Evangelism Council for New Work emphasis at the Spring Meeting; Assist ten congregations to consider using the Simultaneous Revival emphasis for initiating a new church-type mission by 3/31/90; and Assist three congregations to utilize Backyard Bible Clubs to test areas for potential new church-type mission starts. We also hope to conduct a Values and Lifestyles Workshop Update.

On November 4, 1989 the New Work Council is sponsoring a Church Growth Seminar for existing congregations. Norman Whan, nationally known specialist in this area, will lead the seminar, which will be regional. The event will be held at the Resource Center from 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM.

Pastoral Ministries Council

The Pastoral Ministries Council is taking on a shape now and can be counted on in the future to give leadership and assistance to the congregations of our association.

There has been a complete revamping of the council. The chairperson of each individual council constitutes the Pastoral Ministries Council. At present we have the following members:

a. Deacon Council Director
b. Ordination Council Director
c. Church-Minister Relations Council Director
d. Youth Ministers Conference President
e. Church Secretaries Conference President

As you can see, we have been busy this year learning more about how we can better assist the congregations of PMBA.

In addition to the above, we are presently forming policy and procedure guidelines for each council. Learning the process and having it in writing will facilitate the congregations when questions and/or needs arise. It will also allow for the transition of new members to the council and easing the frustration level of all involved.

We are still learning what we are able to do in assisting churches and, as we grow in maturity, so will the churches reap from this journey. Pray for us as we seek God's wisdom in our new direction.

Single Adult Ministries Council

One of the Single Adult Ministries Council's goals for this year has been informing churches of our presence and willingness to assist them in their ministry to and with single adults. The ways we have carried that out are through training workshops, fellowship events and The Pilot.

This past year we had our annual training event in October with ten churches represented. Our spring fellowship event was a success as singles from eleven churches gathered for food, games and entertainment.

During the next year we will continue our same emphasis by making training available for leaders and single adults themselves. We will also provide times for fellowship. One added goal is to provide an opportunity for single adults to work together on a mission project.

Sunday School Council

The Sunday School Council's goals for the current year included a five percent increase in Sunday School enrollment (this goal was met); motivate and train Sunday Schools for growth; conduct Associational Growth Campaign; train Sunday School workers through an Associational Training School; encourage churches to have strong outreach organizations; encourage churches to begin weekly workers meetings; and train churches in ''People Search'' to prepare for the 1990 Simultaneous Revivals.

The Council planned and carried out the following events to reach our goals:
Presentation Banquet for Growth Campaign - January 10 at Ardmore
Preparation I for Growth Campaign - March 14 at Winston-Salem First Preparation II for Growth Campaign - August 15 at Northwest
People Search Training - August 22 at PMBA Resource Center
Sunday School Growth Campaign - October 7-12
Association Training Extravaganza - October 12 at 5 locations.

In 1990 the Council will work hard to have a five percent increase in Sunday School enrollment in our churches. We are available to do follow-up assistance to the Sunday School Growth Campaign. We plan to assist in the promotion of, and "People Search" follow-up for, the Simultaneous Revivals. We will be promoting the "Final Four" emphasis for '85-'90 climax to Bold Missions Sunday School goals.

Youth Ministries Council

The Council's goals/objectives for 1989 were to assist the smaller church's lay leaders in the area of youth. We did not exclude the larger churches but we wanted to focus on those churches which did not have paid youth ministers.

The Council held a training event for paid youth ministers and one for volunteer lay leaders. We asked Hal Melton of the Baptist State Convention to lead both sessions. The session for lay leaders was well attended.

The Youth Ministries Council's goals/objectives for 1990 will also be to assist the smaller churches in training of youth leaders. We also plan to reach out to the youth in our association to give them a few quality training events as well as times of fellowship.

The 1988 Pilot Mountain Baptist Association Audit Report by Gray, Callison and Co., P.A., Certified Public Accountants was presented to the Audit Committee by Tim Jefferies, CPA, on September 18, 1989. The Audit Committee was responsible for securing this outside audit for the association and feels that we received a favorable report and commend the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association staff for their performance.

Following are two letters received from the accountants along with their Management Letter Memorandum. The full and formal audit is on file at the associational office and is available for anyone who would like to see it.

The committee recommends that an outside audit be made annually.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Audit Committee
Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.
Winston-Salem, North Carolina

Gentlemen:

We have audited the statements of assets, liabilities, and fund balances - modified cash basis of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc. (a non-profit organization) as of December 31, 1988 and 1987, and the related statements of revenues, expenses and fund balances - modified cash basis for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the organization's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note 1, these financial statements were prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting and are not intended to be presented in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities, and fund balances of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc. as of December 31, 1988 and 1987, and its revenues, expenses, and changes in its fund balances for the years then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1.

Our examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements. The information contained in the accompanying schedules is presented for purposes of additional information and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the basic financial statements, and in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Respectfully submitted,
Gray, Callison & Co., P.A.

Gentlemen:

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc. for the year ended December 31, 1988, we considered the Company's internal control structure to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

However, during our audit we became aware of several matters that are opportunities for strengthening internal controls and operating efficiency. The memorandum that accompanies this letter summarizes our comments and suggestions regarding those matters. This letter does not affect our report dated June 14, 1989, on the financial statements of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.

We will review the status of these comments during our next audit engagement. We have already discussed many of these comments and suggestions with various staff personnel, and we will be pleased to discuss them in further detail at your convenience, to perform any additional study of these matters, or to assist you in implementing the recommendations.

Very truly yours,
Gray, Callison & Co., P.A.
Timothy L. Jefferies

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.
Management Letter Memorandum

1. SEPARATION OF DUTIES - CASH RECEIPTS:

Although the small size of the organization's staff limits the extent of separation of duties, we believe certain steps could be taken to separate incompatible duties. The basic premise is that no one employee should have access to both physical assets and the related accounting records or to all phases of a transaction.

One of the most critical areas of seaparation in cash, where we noted that the financial secretary handles incoming checks, prepares the deposit slip, posts receipts to accounts, and receives and reconciles the monthly bank statement. The result is the danger that intentional or unintentional errors could be made and not be detected.

We recommend that a staff person other than the financial secretary open the mail, prepare a list of the cash received, and prepare the deposit slip. The treasurer or executive director should receive and review the bank statements and canceled checks before turning them over to the financial secretary to prepare the bank reconciliations. These simple steps would not require the addition of any new employees or add significant time to other personnel.

2. CONFIRMATIONS:

As part of our audit, we confirmed church contributions to the organization, and several confirmation requests were returned with differences. These differences resulted because of the timing of contributions by churches who sent the December contribution near the end of the month, and were not received and posted until January 1989. The organization uses the cash method of accounting, and therefore records income when received, rather than when earned. The confirmations which had exceptions were tested, and the records were corrected as needed.

3. DESIGNATED FUND:

During 1988, a clerical error was made in the designated fund accounts of Mega-Focus and New Work. The error resulted in an adjustment of $3,441.22, which increased New Work to $4,987.66 and decreased Mega-Focus to $4,837.44. The organization's financial records have been corrected to reflect this adjustment.

4. GENERAL FUND:

We noted that the General Fund is developing a trend of operating with a deficit, and as of December 31, 1988, the deficit had reached $10,142, which is a negative change of $23,009, since December 31, 1986. The Plant Fund also has a note payable in the amount of $188,000 to Southern National Bank, which matures on October 20, 1989. The note will most likely be renegotiated with terms which will add a greater burden on the General Fund.

We recommend that emphasis be made on reversing the trend of operating with a deficit while being aware of the additional financial strain of repaying the loan.

Communications Committee

Goals of the Communications Committee are to promote Associational Emphasis Week and develop a promotional/publicity brochure for the association. We have met several times this past year to carry out our responsibilities. During the coming year we will begin plans for a promotional video for Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. We will continue to promote Associational Emphasis Week and to communicate the association's goals and objectives to our congregations.

Credentials Committee

The objective of this committee is to interview, consider and recommend requesting congregations for a watchcare relationship with the association. This year we have interviewed and considered two such churches.

The Credentials Committee recommends unanimously that the Christian Faith Baptist Church and the Friends Baptist Church be accepted in a watchcare relationship with the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Next year these two congregations will be considered for full membership in the association.

Finance Committee

The objectives of the Finance Committee this year have been to make sure a stable financial condition is maintained in order to support our mission; to seek a long term loan on our resource center; and to try to sell Camp Retreat. So far we have been successful in keeping spending within the limits of our income. We are in the process of surveying the Camp Retreat property. We have supported our association's work as best we can with resources available.

Our goals for next year are to continue to maintain a stable financial situation; to encourage churches to increase support so we can expand our mission; and to continue to work toward completing the sale of Camp Retreat.

The History Committee's chief objective is to encourage member churches to preserve and celebrate their history. We saw Olive Grove celebrate their 100th anniversary with a brief history written by the pastor, Wm. Stephen King.

Next year we want to continue to encourage member churches to preserve and celebrate their history and to encourage the association to document on-going historical events of members churches.

Personnel Committee

Employee-employer relationships are strengthened when there is a continuous mutual flow of communication. Deterioration in productivity and quality results when this communication is minimized or ignored.

I am delighted to report a high degree of open communication between our associational staff and the Personnel Committee. The result is highly efficient staff and top quality, competent ministries.

This quality ministry has been enhanced by our new Resource Center, which now provides the staff with spacious offices in a decor conducive to an uplifting environment. Volunteers in our office have come forth with sound, much needed assistance. They enable the staff to work in a more focused manner.

Al Fausch is to be thanked and commended for an extensive work-study of our office and staff functioning. Several insightful recommendations were adopted and his affirmation of other present practices were appreciated.

I am indebted to the members of the Personnel Committee and the staff for the ongoing teamwork we share. We pledge ourselves to more loving service and to a deeper vision of who people can become when given guidance with care.

Fellowship Conferences

Church Secretaries Conference

The Church Secretaries Conference seeks to provide fellowship, support and encouragement to the church secretaries in our association. We strive to keep abreast of family and personal situations that need our prayer support, to observe special events that involve our secretaries, and to provide programs that keep us aware of trends and needs that affect church staff personnel.

The Conference meets bimonthly at 12:00 noon on Thursdays. Membership is open to secretaries and other staff members of Baptist churches, agencies and institutions in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and other religious organizations in our area, whether full time, part time, or volunteer.

During the past year our programs have included:

A potluck luncheon and planning session
Jim Lambert, Baptist State Convention, speaking on Church Annuity
Mike Bradshaw, PMBA, speaking on the use of volunteers
Catherine Huber, Manoogian Psychological Associates, speaking on Building Self Esteem
Dr. Al Carpenter, speaking on "Laughing for the Fun of It"
A report on the State Secretaries Conference at Caraway

The officers elected for 1989-90 are:

President	Marlene Bruno, Calvary
Vice President	Clara Johnston, Konnoak
Secretary/Treasurer	Jan Samuel, Calvary
Program Committee	Mary Ella Barefoot, Fellowship Sandra Hall, PMBA Office Janie Hooker, Chairman, Goodwill Joyce Love, West Side
Publicity Committee	Helen Johnson, Pfafftown

The churches who hosted this Conference last year include Calvary, Fellowship, Konnoak, Northwest, Pfafftown, Union; and the Pilot Mountain Association.

Ministers Conference

This was an unusual year for the participants in the Ministers Conference. We were put in two different hospitals, in prison, in a university and in five different church buildings. And that still didn't get us right! But, seriously, we have enjoyed a variety of programs as well as settings for the 1988-89 year. Pastors, church staff, retired ministers, and staff from local Baptist institutions make up our number.

Fellowship is the name of the game, building "koinonia" so that we may encourage and be encouraged in our endeavors to further God's kingly rule on earth as it is in heaven. Special thanks to all who led and hosted these very important gatherings.

Officers for the coming year are:

President	Bill Fryar, Macedonia
Vice President	Mike Willard, Griffith
Music Director	Phil Carpenter, Old Town
Program Committee	Charles Martin, Cornerstone Mary Berridge, Bethania Gary Threatt, Southside

Ministers' Wives

Ministers' Wives is an organization in our association made up of ministers' wives and widows of ministers. The purpose is to provide opportunities for friendship, fun, sharing, caring and spiritual growth.

This past year was an especially happy one with good attendance and the joy of welcoming new members. The theme for the year was ''Joys in Sharing, Caring and Enriching'' with excellent guest speakers for our programs. Sharon and Jim Bailiff, Winston-Salem First, gave a wonderful program entitled ''Enriched by Music.'' Calvin Knight, Baptist Hospital, gave a challenging program on ''Caring for the Needy.'' Louise Noffsinger, Knollwood, provided an interesting presentation on ''Drama'' using a group of drama students. Virginia Cook gave fine devotionals for each meeting.

Meeting in our homes each month provides warmth and the opportunity to really get to know each other. We had three morning meetings, two breakfast meetings, one covered dish dinner, a Valentine Banquet with our husbands and ended the year in May with a covered dish luncheon and business meeting.

Officers for the 1989-1990 year:

President	Carolyn Wonders, Becks
Vice President	Beverly Hamblen, Winston-Salem First
Secretary/Treasurer/Historian	Johnsie Liner, Knollwood Ruth Lawrence, Ardmore
Devotions	Virginia Cook, Kernersville First
Programs	Margaret Guthrie, Union Hill Sara Stevens, Kernersville First
Decorations	Louise Noffsinger and Johnsie Liner, Knollwood

We welcome new ministers and their wives as they come to our association.

Youth Ministers Conference

The goal for Youth Ministers Conference over the past year has been to provide unstructured fellowship time for youth ministers in our association. We hoped that during our time together problems, ideas and concerns could be expressed in a secure atmosphere of concern and love.

During 1988-89 we were able to provide fellowship opportunities. We welcomed a number of new youth ministers to the association at our monthly breakfast meetings. The conference also successfully provided a forum for sharing church and youth ministry concerns. Our final conference of the year was held in June at the home of Neil, Susan, and Sara Maxey. We welcomed PMBA summer workers at this meeting.

During 1989-90 the Youth Ministries' Conference will provide the same monthly opportunities we have had over the past few years. Meetings will resume in October. It is hoped that youth ministers in our association will use the conference as a source of support in their ministry.

Vice Moderator/Executive Board

The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association Executive Board has met four times as stipulated by the Constitution. All meetings have been open for reports from all committees, councils, and other work groups. From the nature and number of these reports, it is evident that our association is actively pursuing its objectives in faithfulness to its purpose. The following report is presented as a digest of actions by the Executive Board; the complete minutes are on file at the Resource Center.

December 13, 1988

- Authorized purchase of a new copier machine with funds from the existing designated fund on deposit for the Resource Center and repay these funds on a priority basis out of the general fund.

March 28, 1989

- Approved a recommendation to pay off the Resource Center debt as soon as possible in order to increase our programs of ministry to people and assist congregations;
- Charged the Finance Committee with the responsibility of selling the Chestnut Trails property and allow the buyer to finance it through PMBA for a reasonable rate of interest;
- Elected Erlene Priddy to serve the unexpired term of Billy Moreland on the Nominating Committee;
- Heard the report from the Personnel Committee regarding Mr. Hamblen's personnel evaluation.

June 27, 1989

- Elected Roger Aycock as chairman of the Nominating Committee;
- Approved a motion to require fund-raising of $1000.00 or more within the association to secure prior approval from the Finance Committee and the Executive Board;

- Heard a work study report presented by Al Fausch. The work study, which was requested by the Personnel Committee, focused on PMBA support staff, and recommended a salary upgrade for the financial secretary/bookkeeper position.

September 26, 1989

- Received the Auditor's report as information, desiring to present the report to the Annual Meeting;
- Approved a motion to transfer $1,800.00 from utilities in the 1989 budget to equipment and maintenance, which is over budget due to maintenance costs;
- Moved to place the Camp Retreat property on the market for sale at a minimum of $3,300.00 per acre, the property to be listed with a reputable, national realtor to be chosen by the Finance Committee;
- Voted to borrow up to $185,000.00 from Wachovia Bank and Trust Company for permanent financing of the Resource Center. The loan will be for a term of ten years at an annual interest rate of 9.75 percent, with payments of approximately $29,000 per year, with no prepayment penalty;

Albert Hale died August 3, 1990 at Brookridge Retirement Center. Mr. Hale, son of Nathan Gilbert and Emma Ball Hale of Beech Creek, Tennessee, was born June 17, 1901. On April 12, 1929 he and Julia C. Meyer of Louisville, Kentucky, were married. Their two sons, Albert S., Jr. and John William, and their wives have six children.

Brother Hale served as pastor of churches at Henderson, Mt. Airy, and High Point, NC; Jefferson City, Tenn.; and Salem and Pulaski, Va. In 1964 Dr. Hale took slightly early retirement and moved to Winston-Salem, where he started a new career—as interim pastor. He filled 23 interim pastorates. He also supplied many other churches, including Methodists, Moravians and Presbyterians.

Albert Hale had unlimited reserves of humor and charm. Although he was in the Nursing Care section of Brookridge Baptist Home when he died, it was not a case of shunting him off there to die slowly, alone and unwanted. Rather, it was because he was loved so much by so many. Mrs. Hale had assiduously nursed her beloved through a long, long illness. His worsening condition indicated this change. It was typical of this gracious, loving and cheerful man never to complain. Friends of the Hales (and they were legion) join in a hearty salute to Mrs. Hale for her faithful and skillful nursing. All who nursed him regarded it an honor and privilege to minister to him.

Trying to capture the essence of Albert Spencer Hale in a few sentences is about as futile as trying to capture the gentle zephyrs of a pleasant moonlit summer evening. This man did and said the right things for the right reasons. People always felt better—were better—having been in his presence. It is reminiscent of an anecdote regarding the great Phillips Brooks of Boston. Several daily newspapers were housed on a small street downtown. The street was nicknamed "Newspaper Row." A columnist wrote one day: "It was a dark and dismal day, but Phillips Brooks walked down Newspaper Row, and everything is all right."

All of us who knew Albert Hale felt that way after being with him. Everything is all right. Now, dear friend, we rest assured that with you all is well.

Member of Ardmore Baptist Church

(1927-1990)

It has been said that a good leader has first been a good follower. Over his lifetime, Thurman Hauser was both. Before he became a pastor, he was a layman. He knew what it looked like from both sides of the pulpit.

I first knew Thurman as a layman in the Mineral Springs Baptist Church. He loved his Lord, his church, and his pastor. Thurman was a dedicated churchman. As a layman, he served as a leader among laymen. Thurman served as deacon, Sunday School teacher, Children's Church worship leader, youth leader, visitor, and chairman of various committees. He knew how to work with people and his pastor, and any pastor could not have had a better friend and co-laborer. Both as a layman and pastor he served on various committees of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

Working faithfully along his side and equally dedicated to her Lord, her church, and her pastor was his partner in life and ministry, Virginia Ann Campbell Hauser. They walked the road of dedication and call to the ministry together. When Thurman surrendered to God’s call to the Gospel Ministry, they sold their business (H&B Tire Company) and their home so that he might have financial resources to study at Fruitland Bible Institute. They walked together the way of faith, courage and commitment.

Little did any of us realize that his ministry as a pastor would be so brief. With the same dedication with which he served as a layman, he served the Oak Ridge Baptist Church at Sandy Ridge as pastor for nine years. He served the whole community as well as his congregation. So Oak Ridge was his only pastorate before his death, but he served well, and I am sure that he can claim the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, “Well done, thou good and faithful servant.”

JAMES M. JOHNSON, SR.
(1904-1990)

For me
he will always be not John’s son but Paul’s;
he thought like Paul,
thought for us all.

From the day we met his mind was set, set on God and for eternity set free.

The letter Paul wrote,
from it I quote,
will help to see how he thus came to be.

“For to me life is Christ and death gain;
if my living in the body may serve some good purpose
I am torn two ways.
What I should like is to depart and be with Christ,
that is better by far.

But, for your sake
there is a greater need for me to stay . . .
This I know
I shall stay . . . and stand by you all to help you forward and add joy to your faith . . .”
(Phil. 1:21-26 NEB Adapted)

He stayed on with us all the years of my ministry to the church.

Thus at the end of my life,
to calm my strife, came this man sent from God

one who trod
the road
carried the load.

Father God, my gratitude to you for this, my brother,
James McRay Johnson,
Paul's son.

Sydney L. Goldfinch, SBC Missionary &
Pastor, Walnut Cove First Baptist Church 1983-1990

J. M. Johnson, Sr. served for twenty-four years as pastor of Walnut Cove First Baptist Church from 1946 until his retirement in 1970. He was recognized as Pastor Emeritus until his death.

RONALD EARL RICE

Ron Rice was one of those rare individuals who is able to see the image of God in every person, both the lovely and the unlovely. Through his gifts of ministry, he touched the lives of young and old, impoverished and well-to-do, reaching out to every segment of the communities he served.

Born in 1912 in Sturgis, Michigan, Rice pastored Baptist churches in Michigan, Indiana, and Virginia before coming to North Carolina. He served as Director of Missions for the Flat River Baptist Association. He helped organize Grove Park Baptist Church in Burlington (1944-48); Regalwood Baptist Church (1953-55); and Immanuel Baptist Chapel (1963), which later constituted as Pfafftown Baptist Church. For seventeen years he served as Missions Pastor for the First Baptist Church of Winston-Salem, during which time he helped found the Downtown Church Center and the Crisis Control Ministry. He served as the first Director of Crisis Control, from 1973-77. From 1980-84 he served as bivocational pastor of South Fork Baptist Church, Winston-Salem.

Ron Rice was also active in many other helping organizations, including Contact, Forsyth County Council for Older Adults, Meals on Wheels, Mandala, Alzheimer's Center, Walkertown Outreach Ministry, and the Shepherd's Center. He served on the North Carolina Board of Health. In 1986, Rice was the first recipient of the Nancy Susan Reynolds Award for Community Change, which was created to honor those who have done remarkable things with no expectation of recognition, who have taken risks and worked outside conventional channels.

A voracious reader, Rice was fascinated with the concept of cities and the role of urban ministry. In a 1982 article, Rice wrote: "I came to think of the city as my parish. Approaching the city from the east, catching the first glimpse of the water tower at Ninth and Chestnut Streets, I would often say to myself with satisfaction, 'There is my parish.' It is a rich feeling to care for a city. It is good to be able to say, 'This is my city.' "

That care and concern was instrumental in the roles Rice played as he attempted to answer the hard questions of life—questions about poverty, racism, and hurt. While Rice would be the first to say he lacked the answers to those questions, his life of service gives hope to those who seek to minister to others in the city.

The Rev. Robert L. Wendt passed into the presence of the Lord on March 3, 1990, after slightly more than two months of illness. Bob served with great distinction as a professor of sociology at Salem College. He had been a member of several Baptist churches, including Konnoak and First Baptist, and at the time of his death was a member of Calvary. Bob was a man of broad-ranging intellect, a magnificent teacher, always creative in the classroom with his students.

Born in Cleveland, Ohio, raised in a godly home, he continued to be a sound Bible student over all his life. My last conversation with him was regarding dominion theology. His was a curious mind, and he was able to question and dialogue with the best of men, but his presuppositions were clearly those of a committed Christian, one committed to a godly world view.

His interest ranged across much of life, from music to volley ball to community service; for instance, as a police chaplain. In Baptist life Bob was perhaps best known for his many interim pastorates that he filled in the last thirty-four years. He truly was a servant of the churches, always available, and sometimes available at the last moment. From a broadly evangelical perspective, Bob was at home preaching the gospel of Christ in Presbyterian churches as well as Baptist. For that reason, he had friends across this area in a variety of local churches.

Those who observed him during his brief time of suffering had the most unusual opportunity to see a true, mature, balanced man of God face suffering with a strong constitution and a strong faith. It was as rich a lesson as I will ever learn of suffering; and to the end, his strong, disciplined mind was under control. He knew to the end precisely what was happening, for that finely honed mind was fixed on the faithful God to the very end.

The spiritual and intellectual community of Winston-Salem has been diminished by his loss, but heaven has gained another praising voice which shall go on through eternity loving God with all his heart, soul, strength, and mind.

1. To monitor the needs and opportunities of the churches;
2. To provide updated information to the churches and to the programs of the Association;
3. To recommend annual planning guidelines for the Association;

VIII. STAFF OF THE ASSOCIATION

A. EXECUTIVE STAFF

All executive staff members should retain the ''three-dimensional model'' of minister, strategist and leader with different emphases among the dimensions as the particular area of work demands. All employed staff will be accountable, through the Executive Director and the Personnel Committee to the Executive Board and the Association in session. Job descriptions of all staff members are set forth in the PMBA Operations Manual.

B. SUPPORT STAFF

The support staff is primarily clerical and serves the executive staff, the general officers, program organization councils, and committees of the Association. Job descriptions are set forth in the PMBA Operations Manual.

C. VOLUNTEER STAFF

Appropriate expressions of gratitude and recognition for such workers are the responsibility of the executive staff of the Association.

IX. POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The policies and procedures of the Association and the specific organizational units thereof shall be proposed by those specific units affected. These policies and procedures shall be considered by the Constitution Committee and approved by the Executive Board or the Association in session. These policies and procedures shall become the PMBA Operations Manual.

X. REVISIONS

The By-Laws may be revised by the Association in session by a simple majority vote of the messengers present and voting. Any changes not recommended by the Constitution Committee must first be referred to them for study and consideration; proposed changes must be mailed to Executive Board members and clerks of the member churches at least thirty (30) days in advance of the meeting of the Association in which action on the change is proposed.

Proceedings

1990 Spring Session

of the

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association

UNION BAPTIST CHURCH
Winston-Salem, North Carolina
APRIL 29, 1990

THEME: "Our Hope Continues..."

1. The Spring session of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was held at Union Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, NC, on Sunday afternoon, April 29th, with 107 messengers and 85 visitors registered from 36 churches.

2. Presession organ music was rendered by Sherwood T. Davis, minister of music of the host church. Union's sanctuary choir sang "Spirit of the Living God, Fall Fresh on Me" as the call to worship at 3:00 PM. Thomie D. Douthit, senior deacon at Union, gave the invocation and welcome.

3. Benjamin Moseley, associate minister of Union, read Romans 8:16-25, relating to the theme "Our hope continues."

4. Rick Tucker, music director, led the congregation in singing "The Solid Rock."

5. Eugene Sherrill, moderator, gave the call to order at 3:11 PM. Peggy Hall, clerk, made a motion that messengers already registered and those to be registered constitute the body for the Spring Session of Pilot Mountain Association. Charles Stevens, Kernersville First, seconded the motion and it carried. The moderator gave instructions concerning registration.

6. Mr. Sherrill also welcomed those attending and recognized Jim Hamblen, Executive Director, for remarks and comments.

7. Chairman Charles Stevens made a motion on behalf of the Order of Business Committee that the proposed program be the order for this session unless otherwise changed by the body. Boyce Wilson, Knollwood, seconded the motion and it carried. Mr. Stevens announced that the Fall Session will be held at Kernersville First and appealed to any congregation interested in hosting the 1991 Spring Meeting to give this information to the associational office or Order of Business Committee.

8. Moderator Sherrill called attention to brochures on the Mass Evangelism Conference to be held in Charlotte August 27-29 and to "Tools for Effective Teaching," a listing of audio visuals available through the Resource Center.

9. Sheree Jones, Nominating Committee chairperson, referred messengers to the listing of nominees for officers and leaders in the Messenger packets. She thanked the committee for their hard work and dedication and asked those present to uphold them with prayer and suggestions of people to serve. Ms. Jones asked that Mary Berridge, Bethania pastor, be added to the list of nominees as chairperson of the Order of Business Committee. She made a motion that those listed, with the addition of Mary Berridge, be elected to serve as officers and leaders for 1990-1991. (Copy attached to original minutes.) Charles Stevens, Kernersville First, seconded the motion. The moderator called for discussion or nominations from the floor. There were none and the motion carried.

10. Ken Boaz, coordinator for the North Carolina/Sao Paulo Partnership, led a team of sixteen folks from PMBA last year to help churches of the Pinheiros Association. These came back with glowing reports and shared generously of their experiences. Mr. Boaz, after being asked to coordinate and lead another team to Brazil this year, reserved thirty places for our association. Dates are August 30 to September 10. There are openings/ opportunities for construction, evangelism, medical and athletic teams. About ten people are preparing to go as of this date.

Mr. Boaz dealt with some excuses he has been hearing by quoting what Jesus had to say in the Scriptures about situations He faced: (1) Maybe next year I can go; (2) I can't afford to go; (3) I don't have anything to share. He closed by saying, "You will be blessed far beyond anything you have to offer or to share."

11. Ray Hamilton, chairman of the Here's Hope Steering Committee, reported that 52 congregations participated in the recent simultaneous revivals. No final statistics are available at this time but Mr. Hamilton will be in touch with all pastors who participated for their assessment of the experience in their church.

Mr. Hamilton spoke of the hope that abides because our hope is in Jesus Christ who abides forever; the Christian hope that is strong; and hope as a part of the Christian armor. He asked for prayer that the spirit of hope—of revival—will continue. "Grasp it, hold it, cherish it, thank God for it."

12. Mr. Sherrill reminded those present that the purpose of this spring session is to celebrate the hope that Jesus gives. In introducing W. R. Grigg, who is to speak on "What I Have Seen and Experienced in PMBA Through the Years," Mr. Sherrill said he would like to hear someone speak on "What I have seen and experienced in W. R. Grigg through the years." He said Mr. Grigg is a "walking treasure" who gives himself as freely as did Peter and John to all they met.

13. The sanctuary choir sang "I Know that My Redeemer Liveth" and "Give Thanks" under the direction of Sherwood Davis.

14. W. R. Grigg expressed his pleasure at the opportunity to worship and carry on the business of the association, of being in Union Church. He spoke of the delightful relationship he has had with Pastor Ben Daniels for many years and of his appreciation for the congregation. He read Philippians 1:27-28 and elaborated on what he has seen in PMBA, as well as other associations:

a. Cooperate beautifully and disagree often, yet still remain friends.
b. Do evangelism effectively, even across racial lines. Black and white Baptists worked together to have simultaneous revivals.
c. Do Pastors' Schools meeting alternately in black and white churches. Preachers discussed everything from "Homer to cucumbers." Outstanding preachers came to lead: W.O. Carver, Gardner Taylor, Samuel Proctor.
d. Participated in weeks of Christian Education and study courses that included all organizations.
e. Held Schools of Missions when white missionaries lived with black families.
f. Cooperative churches become non-cooperative, and vice-versa.
g. Messengers disagree violently—but once a decision by the majority was made, everyone worked together to get the job done.

Mr. Grigg said he had learned the beauty and value of democracy; the place and value of the autonomy of the local church; that it is more Christian to cooperate than not to cooperate; there is no real unity without diversity, else we become robots; the place and value of recognizing that Southern Baptists do not have a monopoly on faith in God; that ministry, missions, evangelism, gospel preaching are mutually compatible—such is our mission, our reason for being. He quoted Rick Warren, who said, "It takes all kinds of churches to reach all kinds of people. Every church must clearly define its target. No one church will reach everybody, but every church can reach somebody.'' He shared a personal experience that he, Mrs. Grigg, and some friends had while visiting Europe. They were shown many church buildings—big, beautiful—but empty. He closed with the sobering thought that ''we are on our way to that emptiness if we don't get up and be about the Master's business.''

15. Rick Tucker led in singing ''Great Is Thy Faithfulness.''

16. Eugene Sherrill announced that the offering would go for indebtedness on the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center and led in prayer. Organist Sherwood Davis and Pianist Timothy Simmons played ''Great Is Thy Faithfulness'' and ''Blessed Jesus'' while the offering was being received. Jim Hamblen led in a prayer of blessing for the offering, asking those present to remember the man in whose honor it is taken. He said Lewis Ludlum does not need a building, a plaque or anything else to memorialize him. (Clerk's note: An offering of $564.45 was received.)

17. Ed Evans, Evangelism Council director, reminded the congregation that in order to maximize hope, we must stay prepared and keep a sense of urgency to share the gospel. He emphasized again the National Evangelism Conference to be held in August and announced that Jim Baldwin, Quaker Gap pastor, will coordinate and promote this event.

Mr. Evans introduced the speaker, Rev. Benjamin F. Daniels. Mr. Daniels was born in Norfolk, Virginia, and educated at Norfolk State, Shaw University and St. Mary's Seminary. He is currently enrolled in the doctoral program of Trinity Seminary. From 1965-1974 Mr. Daniels served as a missionary of the Home Mission Board with Pilot Mountain Association as his base of ministry. He has been pastor of Union Baptist Church for nine years. Mr. Evans ended with a quote from Mr. Daniels, ''The basic gospel of Christ is all we need; we should speak it simple and plain.''

18. The A.H. McDaniel Amazing Grace Choir of the host church sang ''Praise Him.''

19. Benjamin Daniels, pastor of Union Baptist, was the keynote speaker. He quoted from the hymn, ''The Solid Rock.'' Mr. Daniels expressed gratitude for W. R. Grigg and for Lewis Ludlum and personally welcomed those present. He told of witnessing a wonderful spirit between black and white churches and cited Union's ongoing relationship with Union Grove. He has also witnessed a decline in the number of Baptists, both black and white, and said that unless we recapture the spirit of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ our churches might be even fewer in number. His heart had been made glad by reports of the simultaneous revivals. They pointed up the great need for hope in our communities which have to deal constantly with the drug problem and the homeless. At one time he saw people concerned about interracial cooperation but finds this is less true now. ''If we focus in on the problems,'' he said, ''we have to conclude not much can be done. That's when we need God on our side so our hope may continue to do the job God wants us to do.''

Mr. Daniels read I Peter 1:3 in which Peter praised God for the living hope within us through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. Mr. Daniels referred to several instances in Scripture that tell about Peter:

a. At Caesarea Philippi when Jesus asked the disciples what people were saying about Him and then asked them what they thought. Peter replied, ''Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God.''
b. On the Mount of Transfiguration when Peter wanted to build three tabernacles—for Moses, Elijah, and Jesus. Peter was saying ''We are experiencing heaven right now.''
c. In Peter's home when Jesus healed his mother-in-law of her fever.

d. When many disciples stopped following Jesus and He asked if the twelve also wanted to leave, Peter replied: "Lord, to whom shall we go. Thou hast the words of eternal life."

e. Peter's denial of Jesus and the look from the Lord that broke his heart.

f. When evil men hung Jesus on the cross and He cried "Finished!," something happened to Peter. It seemed all his hopes and dreams died on that cross and Peter went back to his "fishing pond." All the disciples thought: "Jesus was a visionary, a good man but His dream did not materialize. He is dead and is not coming back."

g. But the story did not end there. On Sunday morning Jesus arose and appeared to many, including Peter. During the interval between His resurrection and ascension, Jesus explained the Scripture to the disciples and commissioned them to preach the Gospel, starting in Jerusalem and Judea. However,they were instructed to tarry in Jerusalem because they were not going to be able to do the task by themselves. The devil was alive and well and they needed somebody in the inside to guide them.

h. The Holy Spirit came like a mighty rushing wind and sanctified the believers. Peter and John, who had lost hope and almost given up on life, were able to tell a lame man in the name of Jesus to take up his bed and walk. They had a hope that continued.

Mr. Daniels asked the questions: "What is Peter saying to us? When we have seemingly insurmountable problems that we cannot solve, what can we do? In our town where we must deal with drugs and the homeless, what can we do?" He answered by saying that since our hope is in Jesus Christ, we can take Jesus with us everywhere we go; we can speak the words of Jesus to those who are hurting, to those who are sick in sin. He is the answer to all our problems. Our task is to tell others about Jesus Christ if our hope is to continue.

Mr. Daniels closed by saying people do not give awards for the endless hours of praying or the sleepless nights in trying to discern God's will. We do not have anybody to pat us on the back and tell us to continue on. But there is One who knows everything, who keeps notes on everything we do. He gives us hope to continue. No one but God has to recognize us; He has the record. We can go in confidence knowing we do not have to go by ourselves. He who is in us is greater than he who is outside.

20. Moderator Sherrill invited the congregation to make the last hymn a hymn of commitment. He quoted I Corinthians 15:19-20: "If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable. But now is Christ risen from the dead." Mr. Sherrill said it is in commitment to a risen Christ that we sing. "His spirit will lift our spirit. When we don't have anything else to work with, He is all and provides all." Under the direction of Rick Tucker, the congregation sang "He Lives."

21. Eugene Sherrill expressed thanks to the congregation of Union Baptist, all those who attended, and the Order of Business Committee. Charles Stevens, Kernersville First pastor, made the motion to adjourn and Mike Willard, Griffith pastor, seconded the motion.

22. Bob Cantwell, Evangelism Council member and pastor of Clemmons First, led in a prayer of commitment. He quoted Psalm 133:1: "How good and pleasant for brethren to dwell together in unity" and gave thanks to God for the hospitality of our brothers and sisters at Union, for the songs we had sung, the truths we had heard, and most of all for Jesus, Who gives us hope in time and eternity.

23. The Spring Session of Pilot Mountain Association was adjourned at 4:55 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Proceedings

of the

105th Annual Session

of the

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association

First Baptist Church, Kernersville, NC
October 23, 1990

AFTERNOON SESSION

1. Pre-session music was presented at 2:45 PM by Barbara Geer, pianist, and Philip Wagoner, organist and soloist. Mr. Wagoner sang "The King Is Coming" and "I'll Rise Again." Mrs. Geer is minister of music and Mr. Wagoner is minister of education and senior adults at Kernersville First.

2. "A time to celebrate: Count it all joy!" With these words Moderator Eugene Sherrill, pastor of Forsyth Park, declared the meeting in session at 3:00 PM at First Baptist Church, Kernersville, on Tuesday, October 23, 1990.

3. Instructions were given regarding registration. Special recognition was given to Bertha Sneed, a member of Antioch, for 55 years of continuous attendance at PMBA annual meetings.

4. Music Director Rick Tucker, minister of music and education at Union Grove, led in singing "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus."

5. Charles Stevens, pastor of the host church, welcomed those present to share in their town and their facilities and then led in prayer.

6. Peggy Hall, clerk, moved that those messengers already registered and those to be registered, constitute the body of the 105th annual session. Charles Stevens seconded the motion and it carried.

7. Mary Berridge, pastor of Bethania, moved on behalf of the Order of Business Committee the adoption of the tentative program as printed. Following a second, the motion carried. Moderator Sherrill announced that J. L. Wilson, pastor of Ardmore, would serve as parliamentarian of the session.

8. Boyce Wilson introduced Rev. David Smith of the Pastoral Care Unit, Baptist Hospital, and newest member of Knollwood. Mr. Smith announced that posters and information were available for attendees to take and share with their congregations regarding the services and ministry of Pastoral Care.

9. Mike Bradshaw introduced Rev. Dr. Mark White with the North Carolina Baptist Men's Division, who is new liaison between our association and the Baptist State Convention.

10. Tripp May, minister of education at Northwest, was the "guide" for the program at both sessions. In his introduction he answered the question, "What is an association?" He said PMBA is an association of rare quality, one that Shubal Stearns would have been proud of, a witness to Jesus Christ in the geographical area where our churches are located, a witness in personal diversity. PMBA is represented organizationally by the Book of Reports, which is challenging and can be overwhelming, but which represents many personalities and person hours of work. Mr. May said the value of the pages is not so much to chronicle accomplishments but to excite others to missions, to ministry.

11. Improve the Organization was the first section of the day's program. Mr. May read James 1:2-3. He said the race is not over. Although our actions and structures are not perfect, we offer our best to God. The Book of Reports is the first fruits of our labors as we humbly offer them to the Heavenly Father. As we review past ministries, plan for future ministries, but celebrate at this present moment, he challenged us to "count it all joy."

12. Rick Tucker led in singing "Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee."

13. Executive Director Jim Hamblen, on behalf of the Associational Coordinating Council, presented to the session the 1990-91 calendar in the Book of Reports. Bev Sullivan, Calvary, made a motion to adopt the calendar. The motion was seconded and carried unanimously.

14. J. L. Wilson, member of the Constitution Committee and pastor of Ardmore, called attention to the proposed changes in the Constitution and Bylaws. He said these documents help us work together as an association in decency and order. Proposed changes have all come from various work groups and seek to bring the constitution in tune with what is being done. On behalf of the Constitution Committee, Mr. Wilson moved the adoption of revisions in the Constitution and Bylaws as printed. Charles Stevens seconded the motion and it carried.

15. Ivan Price, chairman of the Audit Committee, reported on the audit of PMBA's 1989 financial records by Gray, Callison and Co. Copies of the audit are available at the Resource Center. Mr. Price called attention to the management letter, which is a rendition of CPA Tim Jefferies' comments regarding certain things that can be improved and upgraded, expecially improving documentation of designated fund expenditures. Mr. Price commended the office staff for an excellent job and said the books and records are in excellent shape. He made a motion on behalf of the Audit Committee that a 1990 audit be conducted by Gray, Callison & Co. as done in 1989. Following a second, the motion carried. The reports were received as presented.

16. Larry Matthews, treasurer, called attention to the nine months' financial report in the Book of Reports. From January 1 through September 30 congregations have contributed to the general fund a total of $166,937.89. Total income was $188,665.38; total expenses, $183,111.49. Churches and individuals have given a grand total of $346,680.69 to the Resource Center, $23,375.75 this year. Original amount of the mortgage loan on the building was $185,000.00. Payments of $91,481.03 have been made from November of 1989 through September of this year, leaving a principal amount due of $93,518.97. Mr. Matthews recognized Sandra Hall for her competent work as financial secretary.

17. Jim Hamblen publicly recognized John Lawrence, Joe Heath, and Tripp May. John Lawrence served many years as pastor of Forest Hills Church in Raleigh and as an outstanding leader in the Baptist State Convention before retiring in the Winston-Salem area. He was called to serve as interim pastor of Northwest but had to give up that position recently when eye surgery became imminent. Northwest, determining that Mr. Lawrence had served so well and had refused any honorarium, wanted to honor him in a special way. Led by Ken Carpenter and the deacon body, the congregation decided to make a $5,000 gift toward debt retirement on the PMBA Resource Center. Mr. Hamblen said, "This was a very special thing for part of our family to do." All members from Northwest were asked to stand and were applauded.

18. J. L. Wilson, pastor of Ardmore, recalled that when the association met at Kernersville First ten years ago, PMBA offices were located on North Point Boulevard. Many leaders were still dreaming of a permanent building. That dream started becoming a reality when a Fund Raising Committee was formed and churches began to give. Publicity went out that the Resource Center "would be a place where people come to help people who come for help, and we can make a difference." Dr. Wilson said everytime anyone goes to the Resource Center for business or for fellowship, they are glad we have it. He said that the total cost of $666,922.24 was a lot of money. The churches gave a lot of money. Special donations amounted to a lot of money. The present indebtedness of $93,518.97 is not a lot of money in light of the fact that it was about $200,000 three years ago.

Acting on a suggestion given several years ago, a special committee has been formed to find a way to pay off the indebtedness. Feeling the churches have done their part and wishing to give interested individuals an opportunity to do something especially significant in the life of our association, they are seeking 200 people to give $500 each over a two-year period. The Task Force of about 20 people has made a commitment to give personally and to contact others to give. This will mean more money to put into missions, programs and work the association feels led to do. Members of the Task Force were instructed to pick up an information packet from the clerk. Mr. Wilson asked for prayer for this undertaking and said commitment cards are available for anyone willing to take part. At the Spring Meeting, the Task Force hopes to be able to say, "It's a done deal; we can celebrate!" Mr. Wilson recognized Mike Bradshaw, missions ministries director, and Sally Hicks, communications secretary, for the extra work they did to make the report possible at this session.

19. Ed Stines, pastor of West Side and member of the Nominating Committee, called attention to the committee's report in the Book of Reports. He asked that the name of Mr. Tom Moore, Winston-Salem First, be added to the Finance Committee, 1993 term. Those present serving in any leadership role in the association were asked to stand. On behalf of the Nominating Committee, Mr. Stines moved that those nominated be elected to serve as described by the printed report. Bill Fryar, pastor of Macedonia, seconded the motion. The motion carried.

20. Boyce Wilson, chairman, gave the Long Range Planning Report. This committee's name has been changed to Strategy Planning. Reminding us that ''everything done remains to be done over. . . nothing is perfect. . . there is a job for each generation,'' Mr. Wilson said nothing will be perfect until we come into the presence of the Heavenly Father—but that we press toward the mark both professionally and organizationally. ''Strategy Planning is a staff function, an extension of the arms and legs of Jim, Mike, Sally, Sandra, and Peggy'' (associational staff). The committee is in the process of studying the organization of PMBA and developing a second Five Year Plan.

Mr. Wilson called attention to the ''Commitment to Excellence'' form in the Book of Reports, reading excerpts from it. He made a motion that the Commitment to Excellence be endorsed by the larger body today. Following a second, the motion carried. Mr. Wilson said members of the Strategy Planning Committee hope to model this commitment to the association by pursuing study and training to earn appropriate Associational Leadership Diplomas. Mr. Wilson presented diplomas to Debby Murrell, minister of education and outreach at Winston-Salem First, and to Peggy Hall, PMBA staff. Interim Pastor Doug Aldrich received the Associational Sunday School Leadership Diploma for Ms. Murrell, who is at Southern Seminary today. Peggy Hall was presented an Associational General Leadership Diploma.

21. To introduce Develop Believers, Tripp May read Acts 4:32-33 and expounded on the qualities of believers as set forth in that Scripture. Mr. May gave a personal testimony as one relatively new in the association. He said that from the beginning he knew PMBA folks loved the Lord and manifested this in how they regarded one another. They modeled the mark of a true believer, which is taking Christ more seriously than anything else. ''It is not a burden to work among you,'' he said; ''It has been all joy.'' It is not enough just to be a believer; we must continue to grow and develop. Mr. May said the reports being heard are representative of a larger group of ministries for developing believers.

22. Rick Tucker led in the singing of ''His Way with Thee.''

23. Eddie Brackett, King First pastor and director of Discipleship Training, said present records indicate we are not serious about developing new believers, that we are not doing too good a job of baptizing nor of discipling believers. He challenged those present to make the Resource Center just that—a resource and to share videos, tapes, equipping centers, etc. with other churches. A master list is being compiled of these audio visuals. Last year the Discipleship Training Council conducted a Children's Bible Drill, added 30 Equipping Centers to the Resource Center, and taught the doctrinal study at April's Ministers Conference.

24. Gerald Hewitt, director, reporting for the Seminary Extension Council, announced that Nancy Sebastian will be the new director. Dr. Hewitt expressed concern about the small number taking advantage of seminary classes, which are planned and carried out by the PMBA Institute of Biblical Studies. The best success of seminary classes has been at Forsyth Prison, where there is a ''captive audience'' of 25-30 students. Next class is being offered in January. Mr. Hewitt challenged those present to pray about these classes, to promote them, and to encourage others to attend.

25. Joyce Love, director of the WMU Council, said the purpose of WMU for over 100 years is still the same—supporting missions, teaching missions, doing missions. The WMU Council is committed to assist each congregation in fulfilling this task. She noted the World Day of Prayer on November 5th with services at 10:00 AM and 7:00 PM at Northwest. The weeks of prayer, Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, and Annie Armstrong Easter Offering are learning, giving, praying privileges.

A parade of flags of various countries where Baptists have mission work was used to highlight the World Missions Conference being planned in our association in September of 1991. This event will allow each congregation personal encounters with home, state, and foreign missionaries. Detailed information is available at the Display area today and at the Resource Center any time. Mrs. Love read Ephesians 3:20-21 (TEV), the WMU watchword for this year.

26. Tripp May read I John 1:7 to introduce Enhance the Fellowship. He then led in prayer asking that we be open and loving with one another, that we be known always by our love for the Lord. Rick Tucker led in singing "Serve the Lord with Gladness."

27. Jim Hamblen introduced special guests and new ministers in our association since last annual meeting. He had received a letter of commendation from Richmond Baptist Association in Virginia for Steve Booth, new minister of education at Ardmore. Others present were John Calhoun, minister of discipleship/outreach at Konnoak; Louis Hill, pastor of Union Grove; Jerry Laughter, pastor of South Fork; Tim Wilkins, pastor of Southside; Russ Wimmer, pastor of Rural Hall First; and Bill Fryar, who will become pastor of Walnut Cove First in November after serving Macedonia for seven years. Other new ministers are listed in the Book of Reports. Names of missionaries on furlough were read but none were present. Mr. Hamblen mentioned that Gene Eller, missionary to Israel, spoke at the World Missions Conference Rally September 25 and said, "We are family but our arms reach around the world." The following interim pastors were recognized: Douglas Aldrich, Winston-Salem First; Gerald Hewitt, Walkertown; and Bill Johnson, Pinnacle. Mr. Hamblen noted that many significant leaders from all across our state are now residents at Brookridge Retirement Community.

28. Charles Stevens introduced Tom McDonald, a friend from Greensboro and a salesman who uses his voice to bring glory to God in meetings and revivals. Mr. McDonald sang "Something Good's About to Happen," "Jesus Is My Cornerstone," and "Because He Lives."

29. Paul Williams, pastor of Westview, led in a time of remembrance for the 294-plus members who have died since last annual meeting. He read the names of the following significant leaders among this number: Rev. Albert Hale, Southside; Rev. Thurman Hauser, Oak Ridge; Rev. Ronald Rice, Winston-Salem First; and Rev. Bob Wendt, Calvary. Deacons were: Glenn Money, Bethany; Oscar Smith, College Park; Gilbert James, Friendship; J. Odell Banner, Germanton; James R. Spencer, Pinnacle; J. R. Cox, Red Bank; J. E. Thornton, Southside; Raymond Farmer and Carlos Hall, Walnut Cove First; W. Junior Sands, Willow Oak; Dr. Charles R. Welfare and L. Brooks Beddingfield, Winston-Salem First. Walt Pegram, Goodwill, and Melinda Hicks Pegram, Edgewood, were also mentioned. Fifteen seconds of silence were observed and then Paul Williams led in a prayer of thanksgiving and remembrance.

30. Charles Stevens gave instructions concerning the fellowship meal, which is being provided by the members of Kernersville First for a donation which will go toward Resource Center indebtedness. There will be another opportunity to give at the evening session. All money will be deposited by Kernersville First, who will then write one check to the Association. Mr. Stevens led in a blessing for the meal and the afternoon session ended at 5:01.

EVENING SESSION

31. The adult choir of Kernersville First presented pre-session music under the direction of Barbara Geer, pianist and minister of music, and Donald Clapp, organist. The choir sang "Praise to the Lord," "Behold the Lamb," and "Simeon's Prayer."

32. Eugene Sherrill convened the evening session at 7:00 and welcomed messengers and guests. Asking to be allowed a "moderator's privilege," he added two events to the session—introducing other new ministers and guests and a Sunday School Council report.

33. Jim Hamblen introduced his mother, Mrs. Christine Hamblen, who has recently moved from Texas to Winston-Salem. New ministers recognized were James Basham, minister of music at Fellowship; and Reuban Gilliam, pastor of North Winston Baptist Chapel, 1st vice moderator of Rowan Association, and president of the Baptist Ministers Conference of Winston-Salem.

34. Tripp May introduced the section, Reach People, by asking and answering the question, "What does the association need to be and do to properly proclaim the gospel?" He read Acts 1:6-8 and said Pilot Mountain Association seeks to be a witness to the Lord Jesus Christ. We have prayerfully met and humbly sought God's will with a singular purpose—that the result of all our efforts be to reach people with Christ Jesus.

35. Rick Tucker led in singing "Make Me a Channel of Blessing."

36. Ty Talton and "friends" gave a live demonstration of a "breakthrough" to highlight the Sunday School emphases for this year. The report was given as a radio broadcast from the Pilot Mountain News Network. Mr. Talton mentioned several breakthroughs: Five percent increase in Sunday School enrollment and the Growth Campaign in which 25 churches participated. He said Sunday School work makes a difference in the life of a church.

Mr. Talton asked Mrs. Mitzi Moore, Winston-Salem First, to come to the platform. Because of her service as associational Sunday School director, she was selected to be the representative recipient of the Jane W. Chatham Award. This is a plaque that recognizes associations for their achievements in Sunday School work. PMBA is now one of just 15 associations in North Carolina to receive this award, which is given by the Sunday School Department of the Baptist State Convention.

Mr. Talton closed his report by saying, "Breakthrough is only the beginning; Reach to Win will be the emphasis in this coming year."

37. The Evangelism Council report began with a "telephone conversation" between Ed Evans, Evangelism Director, and Bob Hicks, Ardmore, who went to Sao Paulo, Brazil in August. Ten people from our association assisted three Brazilian congregations in preaching, conducting nightly Bible studies, and holding medical clinics. These ten are eager to have an opportunity to share their experiences with any congregation in PMBA. Mr. Evans reported that in 1991 the major thrust will be to help in simultaneous revivals in Sao Paulo. Forty-two people are needed to form teams of three. More information is available through Ken Boaz, pastor of Fellowship and coordinator of the Partnership Project, or the Resource Center.

Mr. Evans said that, although mission opportunites are available unlike anything in the history of our nation, the greatest opportunities are right here at us. He showed two slides, depicting the population trend in Forsyth and Stokes Counties—a 72.6% increase—and a 54% decrease in baptisms in the same time frame. He challenged those present to be aware of this frightening trend, to address the situation, and to get the gospel to the people. Mr. Evans led in prayer that God will help us to be better witnesses.

Under the direction of Jim Bailiff, a choir made up of young people and sponsors from Winston-Salem First Baptist Church sang a hymn in Portuguese, "Jesu Andar Por Este Vallee" ("Lonesome Valley"). They learned this hymn on their trip to Sao Paulo in July.

38. Randy Godwin, pastor of Glenn View and director of the New Work/Church Growth Council, stated the two functions of this group. One is to start new work in our association, which can be upsetting to some congregations and pastors. He emphasized that new churches reach some people established churches do not. The role of the council is to prick hearts, to keep opportunities for new work before the congregations.

The council, with the cooperation of the Cooperative Ministries Department of the State Convention, with hard work and a lot of patience began working with Reuban Gilliam to start a black Southern Baptist mission. On September 9th in the Mineral Springs Middle School, a group of people met for the first service of North Winston Baptist Chapel. They are averaging 35 in Sunday School. On December 16th the group will organize as a Southern Baptist Church. Rev. Mr. Gilliam needs Here's Hope New Testaments, volunteers to train leaders, and a van. Mr. Godwin assured Mr. Gilliam of our prayers and thoughts and expressed appreciation to him for his leadership in this exciting "new work."

The other function of the Church Growth Council is to provide leadership, resources, and help for plateaued or declining churches. Mr. Godwin said one need already clearly evident is for a Church Growth/Development staff person, a staff person our Executive Director was promised when he was called to the association. The council is aware of the financial crunch, but the need will not go away, and they will keep this matter before our congregations.

Mr. Godwin shared how God is blessing the new covenant relationship between King First Baptist, where Eddie Brackett is pastor, and New Life Baptist, of which Marshall Boyles is pastor. God has blessed the vision and commitment of King First to "put new life into New Life." The Church Growth Council's commitment and calling, along with every congregation in PMBA, is to put new life in the form of new churches and to put new life into existing churches.

39. Herman Kitchen, a member of the Credentials Committee and member of College Park, made the following motions:

(1) On behalf of the Credentials Committee, I recommend that Christian Faith Baptist Church, 8210 Belews Creek Church Road, Belews Creek, NC be received into full membership of the association because we are convinced that its faith, polity and practice are in harmony with the purposes of the association; and this church has been under the watchcare of the association for the one year as required by our constitution and has reiterated its desire to be affiliated with us. Tripp May seconded the motion and it carried.

(2) On behalf of the Credentials Committee, I recommend that Friends Baptist Church, 1840 Lewisville-Clemmons Road, Clemmons, NC, be received into full membership of the association because we are convinced that its faith, polity and practice are in harmony with the purposes of the association; and this church has been under the watchcare of the association for the one year as required by our constitution and has reiterated its desire to be affiliated with us. Following a second, the motion carried.

(3) The Credentials Committee recommends that New Life Baptist Church, YMCA Camp Road, King, NC be received under the watchcare of the association for one year, inasmuch as that congregation indicates their desire to be part of this fellowship. The motion was seconded and carried.

Members present from each of these congregations stood and were welcomed.

40. Peggy Conrad, director of the Church and Community Ministries Council, reminded those present that we can do a lot more together than apart as an association as well as a denomination. She referred messengers to the printed report in the Book of Reports, then shared two examples of how lives were touched by the association.

Mrs. Conrad told of Maggie, a blind person who in 1989 attended an ice cream fellowship at the Resource Center and said it was the first time she had tasted ice cream in 15 years Mrs. Conrad and Maggie became friends and kept in touch. This summer she picked Maggie up to attend a cookout at Edgewood prepared by their WMU and Brotherhood. Upon entering the room, Maggie recognized voices from last year, especially a person named John, whom Pastor Richard Hicks had brought to the cookout. "Edgewood knows how to do a cook out; they had homemade chili and four kinds of home made ice cream," said Mrs. Conrad. Shortly after the cookout, Maggie gave to Mrs. Conrad a peach and white terry cloth robe, completely hand stitched. Mrs. Conrad declined the urge to offer to pay for the robe and simply thanked and hugged Maggie. "I had done so little for her and she gave me the results of several days' work."

Mrs. Conrad's husband, Hillus, works for the city of Winston-Salem. He came home very depressed one day because of a valued employee's evaluation. He was going to have to demote Tommy because Tommy could not read. Hillus and Tommy were made aware of the association's literacy program under the leadership of Bess Hollingsworth. Mrs. Hollingsworth is now working with Tommy at the Resource Center, teaching him to read. Not only will Tommy learn how to read street names and directions but also the newspaper and the Bible.

Last year during the Baptist Toy Store, four people made professions of faith. College Park hosted a Beep Ball game for blind persons. Mrs. Conrad expressed appreciation for being allowed to serve on the Church and Community Ministries Council for 10 years, five of them as director.

41. W. R. Grigg, retired minister and member of Colfax, was introduced to make a special presentation. Mr. Grigg said that as he sat here today and heard all the reports, he is glad to be a part of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. He asked Charlotte and Douglas Ludlum to come to the platform where a covered, three-dimensional bronze plaque was displayed. In his presentation Mr. Grigg said:

"The Pilot Mountain Association of Baptist churches has, without even a shadow of doubt, honored herself by naming the Center, the Lewis Ludlum Resource Center. From this center of activity will come daily the programs and activities that will continuously be the extension of the thought, the wisdom, the forethought, and the desires of our late friend.

"It is also fitting that this plaque will be placed in the foyer of the Resource Center. Each time any of us who knew him intimately, or just casually, or not at all, pass through these portals, we will be reminded of his faith in God as revealed in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, and ruler of the universe; of his faith in sinning humanity; his continuing dedication to the mission whereunto God had called him; his many efforts to get the churches to be wise, faithful, and profitable stewards of the manifold grace of God; and the ceaseless efforts made by him to accomplish the kind of successes that are always pleasing unto God.

"We will remember his successes, and some failures, as he sought to help all believers through the churches to become what we are capable of becoming.

"Thanks be to God for the parents, the family, brothers and sisters, his wife Charlotte, his son Douglas, and daughter Rebecca, and Divine will which made it possible for us to have had this wise and humble servant to minister to and with us in our Association. God bless all of them.

"Thanks, also, to Glenn Swaim and his generous gift which makes it possible for the Association to acquire this beautiful bronze plaque as a continuing reminder of our friend, Lewis Ludlum, servant and minister extra-ordinary."

Mr. Grigg unveiled the plaque. Underneath the plaque will be this engraved statement: "To this noble servant of God and for his unwavering spirit in ministry to all the churches of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, this Resource Center is appropriately and lovingly dedicated."

42. Jim Hamblen led in a prayer of dedication for the offering, which will go on the Resource Center indebtedness. Barbara Geer and Donald Clapp played a piano/organ offertory hymn.

43. Tripp May introduced the next part of the program, Strengthen Missions, by reading Philippians 2:1-5. He said the true foundation of missions is love; no effective witness comes out of a sense of obligation; it is love that makes us strong.

44. Eugene Sherrill introduced the speakers from three Baptist institutions, which, he said, "are not only close in proximity but also close in our hopes and hearts as well."

45. Michael C. Blackwell, president of Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Inc., said he was glad Pilot Mountain Association chose this night to spotlight three institutions. He said if one wants to feel good about being a part of the Baptist family in these turbulent times, just attend an associational meeting. The Baptist Children's Homes will be 105 years old November 11. This is their year to be featured at the Baptist State Convention. The Homes now consist of four main campuses: Mills Home, Kennedy Home, Odom Home, and Broyhill Home. Other ministries include Care House in Caldwell County, the only home of its kind to care for teenage mothers with their babies. Here those who decide to keep their babies learn parenting skills as well as spiritual values. A new program in Davidson County allows volunteers to go into homes where abuse of children has taken place and work with the family in the home. The Nowell and Moody Homes are group homes for troubled girls. Mr. Blackwell said the Thanksgiving Offering for the Homes will be reinstated in 1991. The institution is in a financial campaign entitled, "Give a child a chance." They minister to more than 1,000 children and 950 families each year. He closed by saying, "One thing we cherish—the trust you place in us."

46. William Stillerman, President, Baptist Retirement Homes of North Carolina, expressed appreciation for our association's support during the Homes forty year history, particularly the last two years with the construction and entering of Brookridge. Cost of Brookridge was $20,500,000. Since 1987, $11,500.000 has been received for the debt, with 90% of this amount coming from Pilot Mountain Association Baptists who believe in the ministry. The Homes have given away $3,500,000 in care to older adults who could not pay for that care. Mr. Stillerman appreciated the help PMBA folks gave in moving from the old facility to the new one, a move from an institutional setting to a community setting which has mutually benefited the association and the residents. He encouraged individuals and churches to do even more in the future. It costs $25,000 for one year's intermediate or skilled care. It is estimated that this will escalate in the next few years to $45-50,000 per year. The public sector is not picking up the debt. Mr. Stillerman said everyone is going to have to help more. There are 1,700 pastors who have incomes of less than $500 per month. He emphasized the special offering the first of February for the Retirement Homes. In partnership, everyone together can make the life of older adults in our state the "best of times."

47. Calvin Knight, Director of Church and Community Relations of the North Carolina Baptist Hospital, said it is fair to measure everything we are and do with the question, "Does it strengthen missions?" From a single building with 80 beds, a handful of employees, and a few thousand dollars budget, the hospital has grown in 67 years to a whole complex of buildings employing over 5,000 people, spending a million dollars every thirty hours. Mr. Knight stated that if the definition of "missions" is to bring wholeness of life to people, then Baptist Hospital does strengthen missions because it does bring wholeness of life to people. Jesus was concerned about physical help as well as spiritual help. Because of medical research, the hospital is able to do today things unheard of 67 years ago. New procedures are being used effectively in the treatment of children with cerebral palsy. A Cranio-facial Clinic to correct deformities of the face and head of children under one year of age has opened recently. Bowman Gray/Baptist Hospital is the only medical center in the nation using and evaluating Clinodean, a non-narcotic pain killer which has proven effective in controlling pain following surgery and for cancer patients.

Mr. Knight said that technology and procedures are not what matters; persons are the major concern. He cited several personal experiences. A woman blind for forty years had surgery and saw her daughter and grandchildren for the first time. A man whose arm was severed in an accident had his arm restored through surgery and physical therapy. A young husband and father dying from leukemia underwent a bone marrow transplant and was able to return to his job and to care for his family. ''To minister to patients with warmth and compassion in the name and spirit of the Lord Jesus Christ is, indeed, part of strengthening missions,'' said Mr. Knight.

Mr. Knight then shared his personal experience when he recently underwent surgery at the hospital. For six days, three shifts of people performed their tasks with warmth and efficiency. A nurse supervisor came to his room and apologized for not having the time to ''visit.'' Mr. Knight complimented the staff on his excellent care and treatment. He was told that when the sixth floor was first opened, the employees came together, held their own dedication service, and pledged to themselves and God that everyone who came to that floor would receive the best possible care they could give. A woman approached Mr. Knight recently and said to him that she did not know his name but she did know he went all over the state telling about the Baptist Hospital. She said her husband had been in several hospitals before coming to Baptist and had received good care in all of them. ''But,'' she said, ''we have sensed something different here. In this hospital we have felt the spirit of Christ.'' Mr. Knight thanked everyone for their prayer support, gifts, and all they had done in behalf of the healing ministry.

48. Barbara Bull, a member of Union Grove and PMBA's Finance Committee, called attention to the proposed 1991 Budget in the Book of Reports. She told of the committee's having to deny a number of requests for funding because anticipated gifts from PMBA congregations would not be enough to grant them. Ms. Bull, for the Finance Committee, moved the adoption of the 1991 budget in the amount of $258,771.00. Charles Stevens seconded the motion and it carried unanimously.

49. A total of $1,356.90 was received for the Resource Center, including donations for the meal which Kernersville First also gave to the Resource Center.

50. Moderator Gene Sherrill asked for a moment of personal privilege. Members from Friends, Christian Faith, and New Life Baptist Churches were asked to stand at the front so that everyone could extend the hand of Christian associational fellowship to them. New officers were asked to join Mr. Sherrill on the platform. He expressed appreciation to Kernersville First Baptist—those who helped usher, prepare and serve the meal, the pastor and staff—to all participants on the program, and to the PMBA office staff. He then led in prayer.

51. The 105th annual session of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was adjourned at 8:40 PM. A total of 330 registered for the meeting representing 61 churches—236 messengers, officers and leaders; and 94 visitors.

Respectfully submitted,
PEGGY HALL, Clerk

Christian Life Council

The Christian Life Council offered two workshops in 1990. In March Joe Jones, director of the Department of Substance Abuse/Dependence, Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs in Cary, led a seminar on ''Helping Families Stay Spiritually Healthy In a World Full of Stress, Drugs, and Compulsive Personalities.'' We had 17 people to attend from 7 different churches.

Our fall workshop scheduled October 30th will be led by Neil Chafin, executive director of NC Baptist Hospital Pastoral Care Foundation. The workshop will focus on Myers-Briggs Type Indicator. The MBTI is a useful tool for personal and spiritual growth.

Our Council plans to continue offering two family workshops per year.

Church and Community Ministries Council

The purpose of Church and Community Ministries Council is to assist churches to minister and witness to persons of special need. Program areas are: Blind, Adult Mentally Handicapped, Hunger, Literacy, International and Crisis Ministries.

Accomplishments this past year include:

1. Third World Craft Sale at PMBA - Sold $15,000 which went directly to people in under developed Third World countries.
2. Baptist Toy Store - was held at PMBA this year. Two-thirds of the families were families we had not helped before. We received 1,300 toys which were distributed to 471 children in 162 families. There were 4 professions of faith. Thirty-two individuals requested a visit from a local church; twelve of these names were given to PMBA churches and twenty to other churches.
3. Literacy - Two Tutor Training Workshops were held at PMBA with 80 attending. Bess Hollingsworth has conducted several other workshops in addition to the two at PMBA and we have certified approximately 70 tutors this year. We have begun ''English as a Second Language'' this year and have worked with some Russian immigrants to teach them English.
4. Rhonda Biller, student from Southern Seminary was our summer worker with Special Ministries. We had 47 attend the Spring Celebration at Becks in June and 18 volunteers. Twelve went to Carowinds in July. A Blind Fellowship (cookout/homemade ice cream) was held at Edgewood Baptist with 45 Blind attending. The event was sponsored jointly by the WMU and Baptist Men of Edgewood. College Park's Baptist Men sponsored a Beep Ball game and picnic for the blind at Hines Park with 80 attending.

The Council had its first all day Planning Retreat in May at Janie Hooker's home in Hanging Rock. This event was very productive and enriching for the members and we plan to make this an annual event.

We are greatly encouraged by the number of churches participating in the various ministry programs of our council and hope to increase those numbers next year.

Cooperative Ministries Council

The Cooperative Ministries Council serves as a liaison between the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and the Rowan Association. The council seeks ways to share in cooperative fellowship and ministry among pastors and churches of both associations.

Though joint ventures have not been easy to identify or implement, two joint worship services were shared during the year. In December both groups gathered at Winston-Salem

First Baptist for worship with the Reverend Doug Summers as preacher and lunch sponsored by the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and the Cooperative Ministries Department of the Baptist State Convention. In May ministers of both associations joined in celebration of the 60th anniversary of the Baptist Ministers Fellowship of the Rowan Association at New Bethel Baptist Church, Dr. Jerry Drayton, pastor. Dr. W. R. Grigg was the preacher for the service. A fellowship meal followed the worship.

Creative Ministries Council

Objectives of the Creative Ministries Council for this associational year were: (1) to process survey included with 1989 Uniform Church Letter; (2) to meet with representatives from each church to broaden involvement in Creative Ministries; (3) to conduct the first annual Associational Creative Ministries Festival; and (4) to form a repertory group for religious drama.

The survey in the 1989 UCL revealed 19 churches who had used drama, puppetry, clowning, mime, or storytelling during the previous year; 25 churches indicated they would be interested in receiving resources, support and/or training from the Creative Ministries Council. Eighteen churches said they would be interested in participating in a Creative Ministries Festival.

On November 9, 1989 representatives from our churches were invited to a luncheon meeting where they shared with council members concerning their church's needs, visions, etc. March 3, 1990 was a big day. In the morning and afternoon the council conducted its first Creative Ministries Festival at Calvary Baptist Church. In the evening we participated in ''Here's Hope'' Revival Rally. One of our members wrote and directed a ''spontaneous'' interruption which was a part of the evening rally program. Plans are still incomplete for our repertory drama group.

In January 1990 we learned that the NC Religious Drama Conference, ''Curtain Call,'' would be held at Knollwood Baptist Church. Our council joined in the sponsorship of that event, which was held October 12, 13, and 14. It featured professional Christian Clowner Floyd Shaffer (a long time friend of Jim Hamblen).

In 1991 we will conduct our second annual Creative Ministries Festival on February 2nd. We will continue to plan for a repertory religious drama group so that more churches can be touched by the ministry of Christian drama. We are hoping to begin a checkout of dramatic materials which will be stored at our Resource Center. Initially there will be costumes available. Later we hope to add such items as scripts, make-up, props, lighting equipment, puppets and training tapes.

Discipleship Training Council

In this associational year the council, in cooperation with the Baptist State Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention, conducted an equipping center showcase at Old Town Baptist Church. While the event was not well attended, it did add to our Resource Center 30 new modules that we previously did not have. On April 28th we had our associational Children's Bible Drill at Becks. Children from five different churches participated. Ten children qualified to attend the state meet.

The council continues to urge that churches with video, audio, etc. resources turn in a list of these to the PMBA office so they can be compiled. Why spend $300 on a series, when a sister church already has it in their possession and would be willing to loan it to you?

The April Ministers Conference was used as a forum to present the 1990 Doctrinal Study on creation.

In 1991 we wish to see more churches and children involved in Bible Drill. We will use the ministers conference in April for presenting the Doctrine of Lordship.

Evangelism Council

SAO PAULO PARTNERSHIP

The Evangelism Council continues to work with Pinheiros Association of the Sao Paulo Baptist Convention to begin 1,000 new churches in the state of Sao Paulo, Brazil between 1988 and 1992. Two teams from our association were sent this year: (1) The youth choir from First Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, went July 26-August 8, touring Pinheiros and a neighbor association with a musical; (2) A team of ten people went August 30-September 12, working with three churches in evangelistic emphasis (personal witnessing and leading revival services). There were 65 decisions for Christ recorded.

In 1991 we hope to send a group of 42 people (14 preachers and 28 lay witnesses) to make up three-member-teams for each of the 14 churches of Pinheiros Association to lead in a simultaneous revival effort. We also hope to conduct medical clinics through one church of that association. Ken Boaz, pastor of Fellowship, is co- ordinator of this mission endeavor.

In addition to the special projects, the council has concerned itself with the fact that our area has grown significantly, population wise, and at the same time we have had a decline in baptisms. We have spent much time in prayer for God's direction in turning this trend around. We believe that during this year God has given us an approach to addressing the concerns. It is our feeling that, first of all, God would have us create awareness which we have worked toward through use of the PILOT. We have come to realize this year that this concern must be kept before our churches and we have accepted this responsibility. We will continue working on a monthly basis in the coming year. We will offer training, suggestions and any other assistance within our capacity.

Language Missions Council

Goal of the Language Missions Council for this year was to continue to work with the language churches of our association in support through prayer, encouragement, and personal involvement.

The major goal for the council during 1991 is to have the NC Baptist Men Medical/Dental bus here in our association for a few days. Their ministry would primarily be with migrant workers.

Missions Development Council

The objective of the Missions Development Council for 1990 was to coordinate the work of the various missions and ministries councils of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. As a result of the review of the total ''organization'' of the Association by the Long Range (Strategy) Planning Committee, the Missions Development Council per se appeared to be a duplication of the larger Coordinating Council of the Association. Therefore, upon the recommendation of the Strategy Planning Committee, the Administrative Committee, and the Associational Coordinating Council, the Missions Development Council was phased out and the ''coordinating'' functions were continued through the Associational Coordinating Council.

Three meetings were held (4th quarter 1989, 1st and 2nd quarters 1990) in which we discussed the possible overlap of responsibilities of the council and the Associational Coordinating Council. The various chairpersons of the Missions/Ministries Councils appreciated the opportunity to participate in the smaller group but fully agreed with the overlap situation. All council chairpersons are members of the larger Associational Coordinating Council now and participate in a leadership role. The modification in the ''organization'' was an excellent decision.

New Work (Church Growth) Council

The main objective of the New Work Council for 1990 was to redefine our mission as the New Work Council of the PMBA. Our accomplishments for the year involved three areas. First, we widened our scope of ministry to include not only establishing new work but also assisting plateaued churches to grow. Our new scope of ministry required constitutional changes and a name change. The association approved the changes. The New Work Council is now the Church Growth Council.

Secondly, the council assisted in the covenant relationship of First Baptist of King and New Life Baptist. Thirdly, the council established a new black mission, the North Winston Baptist Church.

There are two major goals for 1991. First we intend to review our stated goals in the PMBA Five Year Plan. We will be asking ourselves if these goals are realistic and what action we need to take. Our second goal is to incorporate the constitutional changes for our council into an action plan for 1991.

Pastoral Ministries Council

Pastoral Ministries, as all other servant groups, is limited to the amount of assistance given by the amount of assistance requested. We do not measure our worth by the number of congregations served but, rather, by the quality of service extended to those congregations or groups.

We stand ready to assist congregations with their needs concerning ordination, deacon training, and relationships between churches and ministers.

Our desire is to do our best in each endeavor—and, as we grow spiritually and experientially, our best will be more pleasing to God. We are striving to please Him in our service to you, so we might all be able to say, "To God be the glory, for great things He is doing."

Single Adult Ministries Council

Primary objectives set forth by the Single Adult Ministries Council for 1990 included: (1) Enhancing the fellowship, (2) Developing Believers, and (3) Improving the Organization. Our goals to accomplish these objectives were: (1) Sponsoring an association-wide fellowship event for single adults, (2) sponsoring a training/en-richment event for single adults and leaders in our churches; and (3) establishing an effective communication procedure between our council and single adult leaders.

On April 28, 1990 our council successfully sponsored a "Singles Spring Festival," including a fellowship meal and a concert featuring contemporary Christian singer Jean Costner. We also sponsored a "Single Adult Enrichment Conference" October 4th, which included a fellowship meal and four informative workshops dealing with issues related to single adult life and working with single adults. This council has also established a current list of "contact persons" within many of our churches to better enhance the communication between our council and the local church.

As we look ahead to 1991, we are excited about upcoming training/enrichment programs, fellowship opportunities and the acquisition of resource materials. We will continue to look for ways in which this council can communicate with, assist and serve those in our local churches ministering to single adults.

Sunday School Council/ASSIST

As we concluded the "Challenge 10/90" emphasis, the Sunday School Council continued to work on the goals of (1) building strong churches by strengthening Sunday Schools, (2) a 5% growth in SS enrollment for PMBA, (3) leading churches to develop outreach organizations, (4) assisting churches in prospect discovery, (5) providing training for SS leadership of our churches, and (6) helping churches prepare for the 1990 simultaneous revivals.

We conducted the following events to support and reach our goals:

1. Conducted Growth Campaign follow-up February 26-27
2. Supported churches in preparation for "Here's Hope" simultaneous revivals

3. Led VBS training clinics May 5 and 7
4. Planned a "Final Four" Rally in May
5. Held personal consultation with eight churches

Long range goals include:

1. Conduct at least one Outreach Bible Study Clinic to assist three new congregations in reaching the lost
2. Provide training to assist at least five congregations in Prospect Discovery
3. Assist at least five congregations in development of Outreach organizations in their Sunday Schools
4. Plan a "Reaching Language Persons for Bible Study" workshop to assist language missions in development of Sunday School
5. Provide training for SS leadership of all churches through fall and spring training schools with annual recognition of diplomas completed
6. Conduct a major SS event in 1992 or 1993
7. Conduct an annual SS Rally to promote and challenge SS leadership in our churches.

"Breakthrough: Reach to Win" is the theme for the new 1991 Sunday School year. We will continue to work for a breakthrough in the Sunday Schools of PMBA through our fall and spring training schools and VBS clinics. We also plan to help with the introduction of the new "improved" curriculum next fall.

Woman's Missionary Union

This past year Woman's Missionary Union continued to plan and carry out events and activities in keeping with the association's objectives and goals.

ENHANCE THE FELLOWSHIP: To accomplish the goal to increase participation in associational events by 10% annually, the following events were held:

1. Baptist Women fellowship meal at Winston-Salem First on March 13 was a great success. Attendance was 240 representing 34 churches.
2. "Heart to Heart" Banquet on February 6 at the Resource Center for Baptist Young Women with 80 in attendance.
3. WMU Annual Meeting on April 23 at Edgewood with 121 people representing 25 churches. Guest speaker was Home Missionary Dottie Williamson.
4. GA Gamefest was held at Stanleyville First on November 4, 1989 with 22 attending from 5 churches.
5. GA M&M Brunch was held at South Fork with 17 people present from 5 churches.
6. Acteens "Friend to Friend" Banquet on May 10 at Ardmore with 79 attending from 11 churches.
7. "Acteens, This Is Your Year" had 30 attending from seven churches on August 2nd at Becks.

DEVELOP BELIEVERS: To accomplish the two goals of assisting each congregation to be involved in continuing intercessory prayer activities and to assist 54 congregations to enroll persons in leadership training, we planned and carried out the following:

1. Baptist Women's World Day of Prayer was held November 6, 1989 at College Park with morning and night meetings; 142 attended. An offering of $452.00 was received along with canned goods for Crisis Control.
2. WMU Leadership Conference was September 10, 1990 at College Park with 160 attending from 40 churches.

3. Personal Witnessing Training Retreat - "In His Name: Witness" - was held at Becks January 20th with 126 attending representing 26 churches.
4. Mission Friends "Prayer and the Preschooler" Workshop was held November 11, 1989 with three churches participating.

STRENGTHEN MISSIONS: To reach the goal of increasing mission education units, our council did the following:

1. Contacted every congregation
2. Provided individual church studies
3. Training was given for credit on the WMU Leadership Diploma

IMPROVE THE ORGANIZATION: The goal to assist mission performance council members to participate in training opportunities was accomplished. All WMU council members attended WMU week at Ridgecrest or WMU Council training at Caraway.

In addition, through mission action, we delivered welcome baskets to newcomers at Brookridge, held birthday parties every month at Brookridge, held birthday parties every month at Goodwill Industries, and gave personal care packets and a Christmas Party for prison inmates.

Plans to reach most of these same goals for 1991 include:

Baptist Young Women Banquet in February
Baptist Women Fellowship Meal - March 12
WMU Annual Meeting - April 8
WMU Leadership Week at Ridgecrest - June 22-28
WMU Leadership Conference - September 9
World Missions Conference - September 15-22

Youth Ministries Council

In 1990 the Youth Ministries Council continued its effort to assist local congregations in performing youth ministry. Hopefully, the churches in our association are beginning to see us as a resource, offering encouragement always and assistance when it is at all possible. We hope the churches of the PMBA will feel free to contact any of the members of this council with questions and concerns pertaining to youth ministry.

This past year we sponsored a successful associational youth retreat on November 10 and 11, led by members of the council. We feel the effort was a success with a number of churches participating. The theme was "Not Cheap - We Were Bought with a Price." Thirteen churches were represented with 160 in attendance. This year we also sponsored an associational Youth Rally on April 27.

This year the Youth Ministries Council changed its emphasis to work primarily with youth; the Ministers of Youth Conference sponsored the associational Youth Workers Clinic. The Youth Ministers Conference will take on the task of sponsoring events to train youth leaders while the Youth Ministries Council will develop associational events to train and assist youth.

Our goals for 1991 are to provide resources for training, enrichment and evaluation of youth programs throughout the association and to assist smaller congregations in their ministry efforts through planning and coordination of associational youth events.

Audit Committee

The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association's 1989 Audit has been completed by Gray, Callison and Co., P.A., Certified Public Accountants. The Audit Report was presented to the Audit Committee by Timothy L. Jefferies, CPA, on September 11, 1990 and to the Executive Board on September 18, 1990. The Audit Committee was responsible for securing this outside audit for the association and feels that we received a favorable report and commend the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association staff for their performance.

The full Audit Report, which has an unqualified opinion, is available for inspection at the associational office. The following is the Management Letter which was prepared to strengthen internal controls and operating efficiency.

The committee recommends that an outside audit be made annually.

Gentlemen:

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc. for the year ended December 31, 1989, we considered the Company's internal control structure to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

However, during our audit we became aware of several matters that are opportunities for strengthening internal controls and operating efficiency. The memorandum that accompanies this letter summarizes our comments and suggestions regarding those matters. This letter does not affect our report dated June 5, 1990, on the financial statements of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.

We will review the status of these comments during our next audit engagement. We have already discussed many of these comments and suggestions with various staff personnel, and we will be pleased to discuss them in further detail at your convenience, to perform any additional study of these matters, or to assist you in implementing the recommendations.

Very truly yours,
GRAY, CALLISON & CO., P.A.

Mangement Letter Memorandum

1. UPGRADE OF COMPUTER:

   During our audit, we noted that the financial secretary was preparing financial reports on a word processing system. This can be accomplished more efficiently with a greater variety of reports on a spreadsheet system such as Lotus or Excel. We also observed that the treasurer recommends that the Organization obtain the disbursement software for your current accounting system. We highly concur with his recommendation.

   We recommend that consideration be given to the acquisition of a spreadsheet software package for use in preparing financial reports. In addition, we recommend that the associations' current computer accounting system be upgraded for the cash disbursement program available. This will automate the disbursement function of the financial secretary's responsibilities, and create addition time for her to prepare other information.
2. DOCUMENTATION OF RESTRICTED DISBURSEMENTS:

   We noted during our audit that documentation could be improved for restricted disbursements. It was difficult to verify the appropriateness of disbursements made in the restricted fund. Documentation was limited to the check request and vouchers attached to the copy of the check.

   With the association's increasing amount in restricted funds, we recommend that the committees/councils in charge of the restricted funds provide minutes of their meetings. The minutes should reflect the approval of disbursements from the funds for which they are responsible. This will provide additional verification for restricted disbursements.

Credentials Committee

The Credentials Committee of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association recommends that:

1. FRIENDS BAPTIST CHURCH, 1840 Lewisville-Clemmons Road, Clemmons, NC and CHRISTIAN FAITH BAPTIST CHURCH, 8210 Belews Creek Church Road, Belews Creek, NC be received into full membership of the association because we are convinced that their faith, polity and practice are in harmony with the purposes of the association; and
2. These churches have been under the watchcare of the association for the one year as required by our constitution and have reiterated their desire to be affiliated with us.

3. We further recommend that NEW LIFE BAPTIST CHURCH, YMCA Camp Road, King, NC be received under the watchcare of the association for one year, inasmuch as that congregation indicates their desire to be part of this fellowship.

Long Range Planning Committee

The objective of the Long Range Planning Committee for 1990 was to begin a long range planning process with the first year (1990) being devoted to studying the resource material ''Basic Steps to a Better Association.'' The main expected outcome of study was a thorough review of the ''organization'' of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

Goals which were met: All recommended changes were made to the Constitution and By-Laws Committee for its consideration and further processing through the Coordinating Council, Executive Board, and the Association-in-Session. The name of the Long Range Planning Committee was proposed to be changed to ''Strategy Planning Committee.'' The functions of the committee did not change. A ''Commitment to Excellence'' resolution was developed for the Association-in-Session to endorse the goal of ''improving the organization'' by encouraging the elected officers and council/committee members to participate in the available self-study courses designed for the area in which they are serving. The Long Range (Strategy) Planning Committee members have made the commitment to be a ''model'' of the ''spirit'' of the resolution.

The continuation of the planning process will be the main goals for the year. The process will concentrate on the ''Social Systems'' and ''Evangelism'' data and aspects of the community and the association.

Personnel Committee

The Personnel Committee continued to give direction to our associational staff in a variety of ways. Through annual evaluations, conferences, insight from staff members and the associational family, we strive to bring about maximum job effectiveness and personal ministry fulfillment for our ministry team.

We are monitoring continuously the need for a staff person in the area of assisting churches to grow. The need for this ministry addition is generally affirmed by our PMBA leadership. In 1991 we will assess, along with the Finance Committee, the availability of funds for this additional staff member.

Conferences

Church Secretaries Conference

The PMBA Church Secretaries Conference seeks to provide fellowship, support and encouragement to the church secretaries in our association. We strive to keep abreast of family and personal situations that need our prayer support, to observe special events that involve our secretaries, and to provide programs that keep us aware of trends and needs that affect church staff personnel.

The PMBA Church Secretaries Conference meets bi-monthly at 12:00 noon on the second or third Thursday of the month. A luncheon and program are provided for those who attend at a nominal cost of $2.00 per person. Membership is open to secretaries and other staff members of Baptist churches, agencies and institutions in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, and other religious organizations in our area, whether full time, part time, or volunteer.

During the past year our programs have included the following:

NOVEMBER, 1989 - Holiday Goodies and Ideas were presented by Eva Rice of the Forsyth Agricultural Extension Service. Eva shared recipes for Christmas baking, crafts, and gift wrapping ideas.

JANUARY, 1990 - Balance of Good Stress and Routine Stress was presented by Rev. George Bowman of the School of Pastoral Care at North Carolina Baptist Hospital.

MARCH, 1990 - A Mini Concert was presented by Calvin Knight and Singers and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

MAY, 1990 - Step Into Spring In Style was presented by Wendy Womble, a professional model and a member of Calvary Baptist Church. Wendy shared accessory ideas and her Christian testimony.

JULY, 1990 - Christmas in July was presented by Jane Snyder, a member of Calvary Baptist Church. Jane shared lots of beautiful ideas for making wreaths, decorating baskets, and cross-stitching.

SEPTEMBER, 1990 - Having a Positive Attitude - Joyous Living was presented by Shirley Smith of Calvary Baptist Church. Shirley's sense of humor and words of spiritual wisdom were enjoyed by all who attended.

The churches who hosted the PMBA Church Secretaries Conference and Luncheons for the Sept. '89-Sept. '90 year were Pfafftown Baptist, West Side Baptist, Konnoak Baptist, Calvary Baptist, and the PMBA Resource Center.

Ministers of Education Conference

Last year the Ministers of Education Conference had as its goals to (1) restore and increase the Conference organization; (2) enhance the fellowship and support of Ministers of Education staff members; (3) share ideas, resources, innovative and creative programs; and (4) bond together and energize our cooperative strength as a group of Christian professional educators.

To meet those goals we have met for lunch on a regular schedule, increased our membership, and become a sharing fellowship/support group. Plans are being completed for an outstanding professional workshop led by Dr. Bruce Powers, professor of Education at Southeastern Seminary, on October 18. We have attended two meetings of a Triad Regional Education Ministers Fellowship.

Our goals for 1991 include planning and holding another enrichment workshop, which will become an annual event.

Ministers' Wives Conference

The ongoing goal of Ministers' Wives is to promote fellowship among the Baptist Ministers' Wives of our association. We had a wonderful year of fellowship, sharing, and learning.

Prominent among these was a Ministers' Wives Retreat at Caraway Conference Center. The theme was "Answering God's Call." Our inspirational speaker was Margaret Via, pastor of Duke Chapel Church in Durham.

We were given a tour of our lovely new Baptist retirement home, "Brookridge." We enjoyed a delicious luncheon there. Several of the ministers' wives who live in Brookridge have joined our group.

We always enjoy the Valentine Banquet sponsored by the Ministers Conference.

If you would like to join or visit our group, you are welcome! We are looking forward to another good year together.

Officers for 1990-91 are:

President	Velma McGee, College Park
Vice President	Sara Stevens, Kernersville First
Secretary/Treasurer/Historian	Johnsie Liner, Knollwood, and Ruth Lawrence, College Park
Devotions	Virginia Cook, Colfax
Programs	Martha Carr, Wake Forest, and Beverly Hamblen, Winston-Salem First

Ministers of Youth Conference

Our objectives and goals for the year were very similar to last year's in that we still wanted to provide an unstructured meeting time for all of our association's youth ministers. In addition, we also accepted the responsibility of providing an associational training event for youth workers and ministers in our area.

Our group met monthly for breakfast. We were able to share problems and concerns in an informal and caring atmosphere. In May we enjoyed a fellowship lunch at the home of Neil, Susan and Sara Maxey. On March 5th Micheal Capps led our associational youth workers clinic. Micheal provided us with numerous, creative, imaginative, and innovative ideas.

Our goals for 1991 will continue to be: (1) Providing a relaxed setting for youth ministers and workers to share problems, ideas, and concerns; (2) Providing an annual training event for those who work with youth in our Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.
